TEXT SAMPLES: OPTION # 1

Our live streaming packages are designed for couples that want to share their Wedding Day with friends and family back home. If you have someone close to you that couldn't make the trip, you could have them as virtual guests and let them join your celebration.

We'll take care of everything and the only thing you need to do is share your private link with them.

In case that you're worried about them not being able to attend, we use a one-click solution that is easy even for the elderly. They'll be able to join with a single click.

Here's what you get:

- Unlimited amount of guests
- Virtual Guestbook including photos
- Customizable link + Privacy features
- Full HD Download available of your Live Stream
- Replay available for one year
- Add links to your registry

Here's what your guests get:

- Access to your Wedding without apps or signups
- They can watch on TV, laptop, tablets or smartphones
- Replay available in case that they miss the live event
- An opportunity to leave you a message and pictures of how they experienced your event

TEXT SAMPLES: OPTION # 2

We offer Live Streaming services so you can have your family and friends watching back home as you say I Do.

As we know how important this moment is to you and your family, we use a private service that allows even the technologically challenged to attend the event with ease.

You will be able to invite as many people as you wish, and you will receive a full video of the live stream available as soon as it ends. This will allow you to bring everyone together and join your most important day as a couple.

Our packages include the following:

- Ceremony
- First Dance
- Speeches

If you decide to add any extra coverage to your live stream, the price for each additional hour would be $X.

No matter which alternative you choose, your family and friends back home will have the opportunity to leave a message and a photo on your guest book, and you will be able to download and print it as soon as you go back home.

TEXT SAMPLES: OPTION #3

Planning a destination wedding is not an easy task. There are so many decisions to make, and for most of our couples, one of the most stressful ones is whom to invite.

I lost count of how many times an important family member or friend couldn't make the trip and for that, we have found the perfect solution.

Since the pandemic began we felt the need to be closer to the ones we love, and there's no better time to be close than a wedding. If some of your family and friends cannot be here for your event, we recommend you take advantage of our live streaming services.

They're so easy for everyone back home that they'll feel like they're right there with you as you say I do. All you need to do is to share a private link with them and enjoy your wedding day, they'll be watching.

Our packages start at $X, and they include ceremony coverage as well as the first dances and speeches. Please be aware, you might have to ask your aunt to stop crying over her keyboard.

Everyone back home will be able to drop a quick message on your guestbook, and you'll be able to enjoy your wedding day without the guilt of not having everyone there.

Here's what's included:

- Unlimited amount of guests
- Virtual Guestbook including photos
- Customizable link + Privacy features
- Replay available for one year
- Add links to your registry

Oh, and before I forget: You'll get a beautiful full HD recording of the live stream so you can watch your wedding before you receive the full wedding video from us.
