

An Overview of Flowing

By: Ekaanth Veerakumar

Intro

- This is a PowerPoint derived from the DebateDrills Academy course “Intro to Flowing.”
- To see more (including a video), check it out here.

What is a flow?

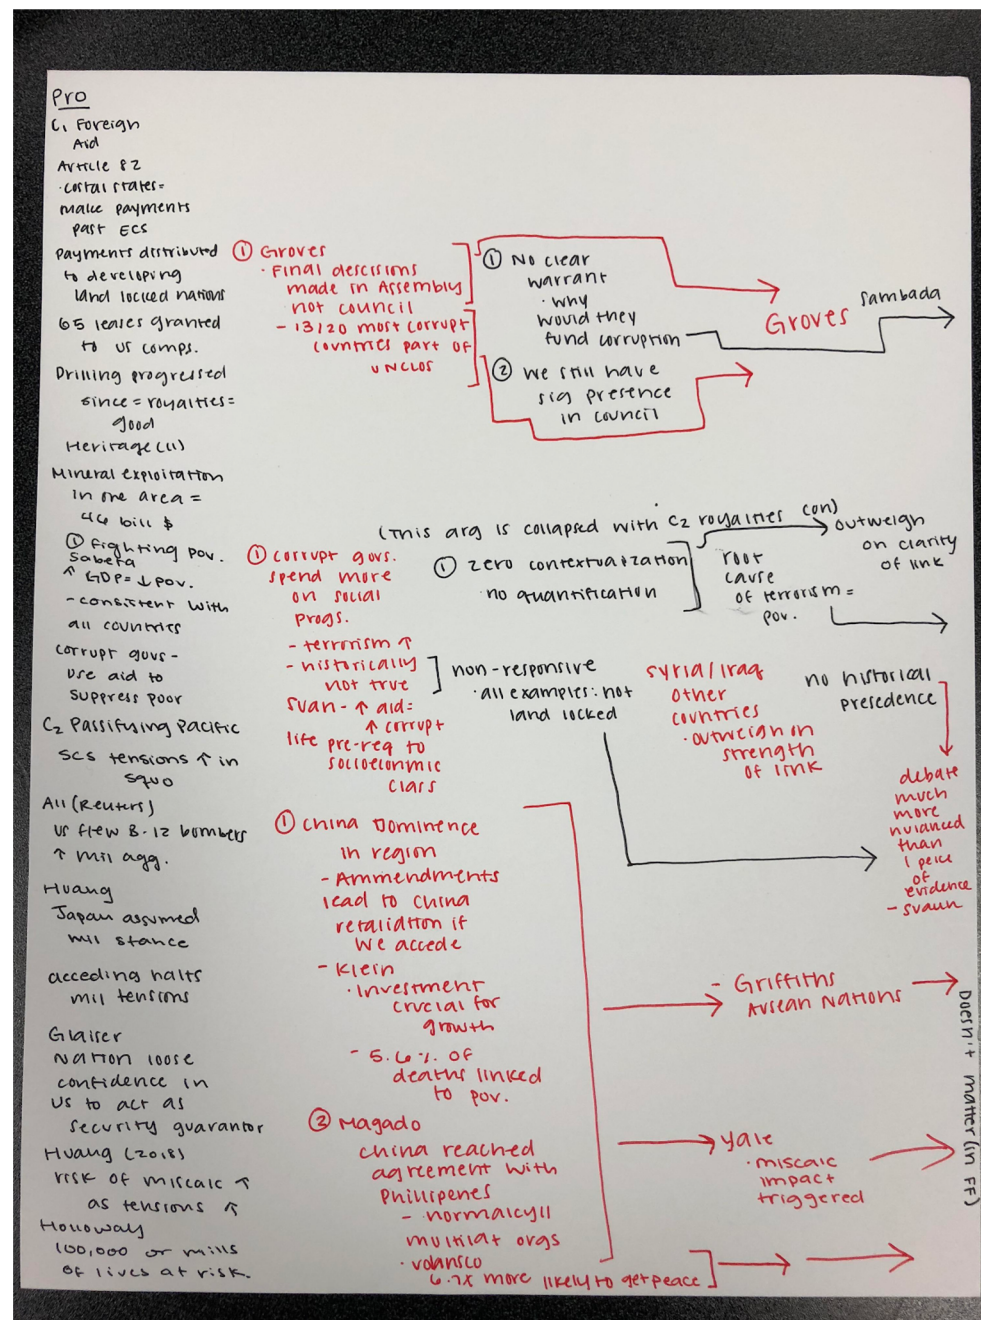

- A specialized form of note taking for debate that helps you keep track of the round, organize arguments, and organize speeches

What do you need to flow?

- At Least 2 Sheets/Sides of Paper
(Can be Digital)
- Two different colored pens

What does a flow look like?

Notes on the Flow

- Flow vertically or column by column.
- Line up responses with the argument they're responding to.
- Use arrows for extensions.

Why Should You Work on Flowing?

- Your flowing caps your other in round skills.
 - Round vision requires flowing all your strategic options.
 - Organized speeches require organized flows.
- Less time writing down responses means more time to prep.
