We may collect your child's Identity and Contact Data, Technical Data, Marketing and Communications Data, and Services Data when they use our Services or correspond with us or our instructors.

Prospective customers

Personal Information that you provide directly. We collect your Identity and Contact Data, Services Data and Marketing and Communications Data when you are considering subscribing to our services.

Instructors

Personal Information that you provide directly. We collect your Identity and Contact Data, Career History and Education Data, Financial Data, Technical Data, Marketing and Communications Data and Services Data. Third parties or publicly available sources. We may collect Career History and Education Data from publicly available sources such as LinkedIn and your previous employer's website (if applicable).

Website Visitors

When you interact with our Website, we may automatically collect Technical Data about your equipment, browsing actions and patterns. We collect this Personal Information by using cookies and other similar technologies. Please see section 10 below.

4. How do we use your information?

We will only use your Personal Information when the law allows us to do so. Most commonly, we will use your Personal Information in the following circumstances:

Where we need to perform the contract we are about to enter into or have entered into with you.

Where it is necessary for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests. The legitimate interests we rely on are set out next to each purpose below.

Where we need to comply with a legal obligation.

Generally, we do not rely on consent as a legal basis for processing your Personal Information. If we rely on your consent to process Personal Information, you may withdraw your consent at any time (see section 8 below).

Purposes for which we will use your Personal Information

We may use the Personal Information that we collect for the following purposes. For each purpose, we describe the legal bases we rely on to justify such use of your Personal Information.

Marketing communications

We may use your Personal Information to provide you with email notifications and other communications by email, on the basis that it is in our legitimate interests to use your Personal Information for these purposes in developing our services. For further information on this, see the 'Your Choices' section of this Privacy Notice.

Combining Personal Information

We may combine the Personal Information that we collect from you to the extent permitted by applicable law. For example, we may combine various different databases that contain your Personal Information to allow us to provide better support services and more personalised content (such as marketing)

Change of purpose

Where we need to use your Personal Information for another reason other than for the purpose for which we collected it, we will only use your Personal Information where that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If we need to use your Personal Information for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

5. To whom do we disclose your personal information?

We will only use your Personal Information for our internal business purposes, some of which are mentioned above. We may disclose your information to the following entities:

Service Providers

We use third party service providers to help us to administer certain activities and services on our behalf, such as IT and cloud services, administration services and marketing services. We may share Personal Information about you with such third party service providers solely for the purpose of enabling them to perform services on our behalf and they will operate only in accordance with our instructions. Here are examples of third-party service providers we use:

IT Service Provider and Administration Services – we use uCheck, Google Cloud, Google Analytics, Hotjar, Facebook Analytics, and Tapfiliate to provide us with administration, IT and cloud services.

Marketing services – we use Mailchimp, Facebook, Google and Nextdoor to provide us with marketing services.

Anonymous statistics

We prepare and develop anonymous, aggregate or generic data and statistics for various reasons (such as aggregate usage statistics including “page views” on the website, and analysing how users use our content). As this data is anonymous (i.e. you cannot be identified from it) we do not consider this information to be Personal Information. As such, we may share it with any third party.

III. Third parties when required by law

We will disclose your Personal Information to comply with applicable law or respond to valid legal process, including from our regulators, law enforcement or other government agencies (in which case such agencies or regulators will be acting as controllers as well); to protect the users of the website (e.g. to prevent spam or attempts to defraud them); to operate and maintain the security of the website (e.g. to prevent or stop an attack on our systems or networks); or to protect our rights or property.

Other Parties in Connection with Corporate Transactions

We may disclose your Personal Information to a third party in the event that all or substantially all of our business or assets are or are intended to be sold or otherwise assigned to another entity.

Other Parties at Your Direction

We may share Personal Information about you with third parties when you request such sharing, such as to prospective employers, or to your legal or other professional advisers.

6. What do we do to keep your information secure?

We have put in place appropriate physical and technical measures to safeguard your Personal Information. In addition, we limit access to your Personal Information to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your Personal Information on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality. When we use service providers to assist us in processing your Personal Information, we have written contracts in place with such service provider which means that they cannot do anything with your Personal Information unless we have instructed them to do it.

However, please note that although we take appropriate steps to protect your Personal Information, no website or transmission of data, computer system or wireless connection is completely secure and therefore we cannot guarantee the security of your Personal Information.

Where we have given you (or where you have chosen) a password that enables you to access certain parts of Our Sites, you are responsible for keeping this password confidential. We ask you not to share a password with anyone.

International Transfer of Data

The Personal Information that we collect from you may be stored and processed in your region, or transferred to, stored at or otherwise processed outside the European Economic Area (“EEA”).

By using the website and/or providing us with your Personal Information, you acknowledge that we will collect, transfer, store and process your information outside the EEA. We will take all steps reasonably necessary to ensure that your Personal Information is kept secure and treated in accordance with this Privacy Notice and the requirements of applicable law wherever the data is located.

Where we transfer your Personal Information outside the EEA to third parties, we will ensure that appropriate transfer agreements and mechanisms, such as the EU Standard Contractual Clauses, are in place to help ensure that our third party service providers provide an adequate level of protection to your Personal Information. We will only transfer your Personal Information outside the EEA in accordance with applicable laws or where you have given us your consent to do so.

7. Data retention - how long will we store/keep your personal information?

We will only retain your personal data for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, regulatory, tax, accounting or reporting requirements. We may retain your personal data for a longer period in the event of a complaint or if we reasonably believe there is a prospect of litigation in respect to our relationship with you.

To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal, regulatory, tax, accounting or other requirements.

When your Personal Information is no longer required for the purpose it was collected or as required by applicable law, it will be deleted and/or returned to you in accordance with applicable law.

In some circumstances you can ask us to delete your Personal Information (see section 8 below).

8. Accessing personal information and other rights you have

We will collect, store and process your Personal Information in accordance with your rights under any applicable data protection laws. Under certain circumstances, you have the following rights in relation to your Personal Information:

Subject Access – you have the right to request details of the Personal Information which we hold about you and copies of such Personal Information.

Right to Withdraw Consent – where you have consented to our processing of your Personal Information, you have the right to withdraw such consent at any time. In the event you wish to withdraw your consent to processing, please contact us using the details provided in section 1.

III. Data Portability – you may, in certain circumstances, request us to port (i.e. transmit) your Personal Information directly to another organisation or to you.

Rectification – we want to ensure that the Personal Information about you that we hold is accurate and up to date. If you think that any information we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, please let us know. To the extent required by applicable laws, we will rectify or update any incorrect or inaccurate Personal Information about you.

Erasure ('right to be forgotten') – you have the right to have your Personal Information 'erased' in certain specified situations.

Restriction of processing – you have the right in certain specified situations to require us to stop processing your Personal Information.

VII. Object to processing – You have the right to object to specific types of processing of your Personal Information, such as, where we are processing your Personal Information for the purposes of direct marketing.

VIII. Prevent automated decision-taking – in certain circumstances, you have the right not to be subject to decisions being taken solely on the basis of automated processing.

Enforcing your rights

If you wish to enforce any of your rights under applicable data protection laws, then please see section 1 above. We will respond to your request without undue delay and by no later than one month from receipt of any such request, unless a longer period is permitted by applicable data protection laws, and we may charge a reasonable fee for dealing with your request which we will notify to you. Please note that we will only charge a fee where we are permitted to do so by applicable data protection laws.

Complaints

If you are concerned that we have not complied with your legal rights under applicable data protection laws, you may contact the Information Commissioner's Office (www.ico.gov.uk) which is the data protection regulator in the UK which is where we are located. The ICO's address is:

Information Commissioner's Office

Wycliffe House

Water Lane

Wilmslow

Cheshire

SK9 5AF

Helpline number: 0303 123 1113

Alternatively, if you are based outside the UK, you may contact your local data protection supervisory authority.

9. Third party links

Our website contains links to other third party websites that are not operated by us. These linked sites and applications are not under our control and as such, we are not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of any linked websites and online applications. If you choose to use any third party websites, any Personal Information collected by the third party's website will be controlled by the Privacy Notice of that third party. We strongly recommend that you take the time to review the privacy policies of any third parties to which you provide Personal Information.

10. Cookies

We may use cookies on our website. Cookies are small text files that can be read by a web server in the domain that put the cookie on your hard drive. Cookies are assigned to and stored in a user's internet browser on a temporary (for the duration of the online session only) or persistent basis (cookie stays on the computer after the internet browser or device has been closed). Cookies collect and store information about a user's preferences, product usage and content viewed which allows for us to provide users with an enhanced and customised experience when engaging with the website.

11. Your choices (e.g. marketing-related emails or otherwise)

When you request information on or from the website, or otherwise communicate with us, we may use your Personal Information (such as your contact details (e.g. name, address, email address, telephone number) to send you marketing-related correspondence by email related to our products. When we process your Personal Information for marketing purposes, we do so on the basis that it is in our legitimate interests to use your Personal Information for these purposes.

We may also use your Personal Information to personalise and to target more effectively our marketing communications to ensure, to the extent possible, that any marketing-related correspondence is relevant to you.

We do not share your Personal Information for marketing purposes with third parties without obtaining your prior consent.

To opt out of receiving marketing-related correspondence from us, please click "Unsubscribe" from any marketing or promotional email you receive from us.

12. Changes to this privacy notice

It also is important that you check back often for updates to the Privacy Notice, as we may change this Privacy Notice from time to time. The "Date last updated" legend at the bottom of this page states when the notice was last updated, and any changes will become effective upon our posting of the revised Privacy Notice.

We will provide notice to you if these changes are material and, where required by applicable law, we will seek your consent. We will provide this notice by email or by posting notice of the changes on our website.
