

WILD & SCENIC RIVER RECREATION ACCESS POINTS

FARMINGTON RIVER

Boating Information

Distance	15.1 Miles
Access Points	5-13
Difficulty	Class I-III
Towns	Colebrook, Hartland Barkhamsted, New Hartford & Canton, CT
Tributaries	Sandy Brook, Mad River, Still River, Morgan Brook, East Branch Farmington River, Cherry Brook, Nepaug River

Access Point 5

Below Goodwin Dam, Hartland, CT
41.98428, -73.01691

Access Point 6

Parking Lot, Rt. 20, Riverton, CT
41.96262, -73.01797

Access Point 7

People's State Forest, Barkhamsted, CT
41.925545, -72.999553

Access Point 8

Rt. 181/318 Bridge,
Pleasant Valley, CT
41.9129, -72.986908

Access Point 9

Lake McDonough, Barkhamsted, CT
41.904718, -72.956449

Access Point 10

Callahan Memorial Park,
New Hartford, CT
41.878868, -72.976137

Access Point 11

Satan's Kingdom State Recreation Area,
New Hartford, CT
41.857434, -72.958483

Access Point 12

Tubing Pullout, Rt. 44, Canton, CT
41.836889, -72.930756

Access Point 13

River Road Waste Water Treatment Plant
Collinsville, CT
41.817661, -72.921674

Description: A 14-mile stretch of the West Branch Farmington River from Goodwin Dam in Hartland to the Canton/New Hartford line became a federally-designated Wild & Scenic River in 1994. In 2019, 1.1 miles in Canton were designated Wild & Scenic making the Upper Farmington River designated area a total of 15.1 miles.