overview

front

side

A side view of a minimalist ceramic bowl set. The set includes a bowl, a saucer, and a matching lid, all displayed on a white surface against a dark background. The bowl is a simple, wide, shallow shape. The saucer is a flat, circular disc. The lid is a shallow, bowl-like shape with a slightly flared rim. The lighting is soft and even, highlighting the smooth texture of the ceramic.

front ii

A minimalist table setting featuring a white bowl on a white plate, a white bowl, and a silver fork, set against a dark background.

overview

A photograph showing a white ceramic bowl and a stack of plates on a white surface. The bowl is positioned to the right of the stack. The word "front" is written in the top left corner.

side

A side view of a white ceramic bowl and a stack of plates on a white surface. The bowl is a simple, wide, shallow shape with a thin rim. It sits on a white, angular pedestal. To the left, a stack of three plates is visible, with the top plate being a light beige color and the others being white. The background is a soft, out-of-focus grey.

side ii

A minimalist still life composition. In the foreground, a white ceramic bowl sits on a white rectangular pedestal. To its left, a stack of three white plates is visible, with a smaller white bowl resting on top of them. The background is a smooth, white, curved surface that curves upwards and to the right, creating a sense of depth and space. The lighting is soft and even, highlighting the clean lines and textures of the ceramic objects.

overview

A minimalist still life composition featuring a white bowl, a white plate, and a white cup stacked on a white surface. A large white sphere is visible in the background. The scene is lit with soft, warm light, creating a clean and modern aesthetic.

A photograph of a white ceramic dinner set. On the left, a bowl is placed on a matching plate. To the right, a larger plate is shown with a fork resting on its edge. The items are set on a white surface, with a dark, curved background element behind them. The lighting is soft, highlighting the clean lines of the ceramic.

overview

A minimalist still life photograph. In the center, a white ceramic bowl sits on a white plate, which is placed on a white pedestal. A white cup is partially visible behind the bowl. The background is dark, creating a strong contrast with the white objects. The lighting is soft, highlighting the smooth textures of the ceramics.

A white ceramic plate with a blue floral design is shown from the back, resting on a white surface. The design features a central flower with several leaves. To the left of the plate, a stack of three white ceramic bowls is visible. The background is a dark, curved surface.

side

A side view of a white ceramic plate and a stack of three white ceramic bowls on a white surface. The plate is leaning against a dark background, and the bowls are stacked on a white surface. The lighting is soft, highlighting the smooth texture of the ceramic.

A minimalist table setting featuring a white plate, a bowl, and a fork on a white surface against a dark background. The text "side ii" is visible in the top left corner.
