SEVILLE MERCY CONFERENCE CENTRE

A Mercy* home for Laudato Si'

A unique facility, founded by the Sisters of Mercy, nestled in a tranquil, tropical setting in the city of Cairns. The Sisters of Mercy are committed to the spirit of mercy and hospitality inspired by their founder Catherine McAuley. This spirit continues to thrive as, together with the staff at Seville, they offer these gifts through the provision of extravagant hospitality.

"MERCY impels us to extravagant HOSPITALITY, COMPASSION and JUSTICE in the earth community being shattered by displacement." Chapter statement, Institute of the Sisters of Mercy of Australia and Papua New Guinea (ISM PNG)*

Seville provides a welcoming base for groups to gather, engage, relax and retreat. As a conference centre, Seville embraces sustainable, eco-friendly practices centering around care for the earth and social responsibility.

A Mercy Home for Laudato Si'

Guided by our Mercy tradition, Seville Mercy Conference Centre is inspired by Laudato Si' (Pope Francis' encyclical on the care for our common home) to embrace the principles of sustainability and ecological conversion. Through engagement with the natural world, we encourage groups to reflect on the ecological crisis: forming connections between God the Creator, humanity and nature. Our aim is to inspire students to respond to the call to action in caring for our common home – for this generation and the ones to follow.

Environmental care is integral to the Christian faith and, as such, we offer an invitation to spiritual encounter with creation through Laudato Si' reflections.

"Our insistence that each human being is an image of God should not make us overlook the fact that each creature has its own purpose. None is superfluous. The entire material universe speaks of God's love, his boundless affection for us." (Pope Francis Laudato Si' 84)
