Christopher Wheeldon's Cinderella

Thu 17 - Sat 19 October | Palace Theatre

Whether you simply fancy a magical day out, or agree that ballet is so beautiful it deserves a trip, it's time to make your way to Manchester.

That's where Christopher Wheeldon and English National Ballet are bringing the Brothers Grimm classic Cinderella to life – complete with over 40 dancers, a live orchestra and plenty of surprises.

Venture and join us at the Palace Theatre Manchester from 17th to 19th October. You'll be delighted, astounded and moved by the magnificent sets and costumes, incredible theatrical tricks and choreography set to Prokofiev's sublime score.

And speaking of the music, it'll be performed live by English National Ballet Philharmonic.

The guitars are tuned, the suits are dry-cleaned and our time-travelling tour bus is pulling into the Liverpool Empire, straight from the swinging sixties. Which can only mean one thing: it's almost time for Let It Be!

Join our head-bopping, harmony-hitting band of Beatles as they perform over 40 of the boys' biggest tracks – from Yesterday and Hey Jude to Come Together and She Loves You. Then, experience their epic reunion at the end of the show and enjoy singalong songs like Back In The USSR and Live and Let Die.

But be quick – or before you know it, the show will have been Yesterday, and you'll be left shouting Help!.

Friday 13th. Your unlucky day.

Can you feel the chill in the air throughout Birmingham this Friday 13th?

That's because The Exorcist – one of the scariest stories of our generation, inspired by true events – is coming to The Alexandra direct from London's West End.

And we're making this traditionally unlucky day a frightfully good one for you, by offering you £6.66 tickets on all dates.

Book today between 6am and 6pm to take advantage of this offer and see the two-time Oscar-winning movie brought to life on stage, featuring the voice of Sir Ian McKellen as the Demon.

Trust us... this spine-tingling tale is enough to make you crawl underneath your theatre seat. The only thing that isn't scary is the price!

Book today between 6am and 6pm only for £6.66 tickets (Bands B – D. Limited availability)
