Writers in Residence

SPRING 2021
HEIDELBERG UNIVERSITY COHORT
In the US, over 48,000 youth are confined in juvenile or criminal justice facilities. In Ohio, about 2,200 youth are held in juvenile or criminal justice facilities.

They have been separated and isolated from family, friends, and members of the community during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Many of them feel forgotten, alone, & scared. This is for them.

We strive to reduce the recidivism rates of our residents and participate in the transformation of the juvenile justice system.

MISSION AND VISION

Teach
We teach creative writing to youth who are incarcerated.

Empower
We empower our residents’ voices.

Assist
We assist in their re-entry into society.
VALUES

Justice

We believe in creating an environment where justice becomes visible, where restoration from wrong is possible, where people are seen as more than their worst moments, where people can create a future not doomed to repeat the past.

Empowerment

We believe that our residents can build their self-esteem, resilience, and power through working on their writing, their reflection, their communication, through the creative writing workshop experience.

Relationships

We believe in fostering genuine, strong, and long-lasting relationships as well as walking with our residents as they navigate the path to re-entry.
We believe that our residents deserve to discover and recognize their own dignity and self-worth through our creative writing workshops. We also believe that if we respect ourselves, our residents, and our student volunteers then we successfully lead by example.

We believe in the power of community. This means that we continually welcome and accept our residents into our communities because they belong to an environment that promotes individuality and empowerment, especially upon re-entry. We also believe in the creation of a collaborative atmosphere that amplifies all voices together in a spirit of mutuality and kindness.

Half of our cohorts launched this spring, which actually yielded our highest outputs compared to other seasons.

To clarify how we track our outputs, we take attendance at every session because our service population remains to be extremely transient, generating the total number of residents. However, some of the residents participate in our program more than once, so we averaged the total number of residents from every cohort to produce an approximate number that represents how many residents we engage weekly. We replicated the same calculations for our student volunteers too. The Independent Sector valuates volunteer time at $27.20/hour; we multiplied this dollar amount by the total number of service hours for every student volunteer.

Dear reader,

Before you read any further, allow me to educate you about our program model.

We facilitate weekly creative writing workshops with 5-12 undergraduates from a college or university for 10-15 residents at a juvenile facility in Ohio. Each creative writing workshop lasts 12-weeks during the spring, summer, and fall, and each session runs for 60-90 minutes, teaching our residents various writing techniques, texts, and themes from diverse and dynamic authors.

Then, we publish, showcase, and distribute chapbooks like this one filled with our residents’ creative writing inside juvenile facilities, on campuses, and throughout the local communities to raise awareness about the juvenile justice system and advocate for juvenile justice reform at the end of every creative writing workshop.
Maya Angelou said: “I have learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel.” When I reflect on this quote in light of the COVID-19 pandemic that forced our in-person program to become remote since the fall of last year, I hope she is wrong. I hope that our residents never forget what we discussed, what we demonstrated, and how we made them feel seen, heard, and understood as well as inspired, optimistic, and supported because they matter: what our residents think, say, and do matters not only to us but to everyone. They possess as much value as anyone else regardless of their circumstances.

We remind them of this every workshop and session while we write poetry and prose; build positive peer relationships; and create a safe environment for them to find relief from their stress, anxiety, depression, and anger. This chapbook serves to remind you of this too, so please consider reading our residents’ creative writing with an open mind and a heart.

Creative Expressions During COVID-19

Heidelberg University
Dear reader,

We have thoroughly enjoyed hearing our residents speak passionately about the things that they enjoy. They don’t always have the opportunity to talk openly about the things that make them happy, so for us to provide them with that experience was amazing and eye-opening. Plus, some of us want to pursue careers in education, law enforcement, and social work, which only motivated us even more to pursue those aspirations that are now informed by our residents’ stories.

During each creative writing workshop, we discussed different aspects of life as it relates to the session’s text, technique, or theme. Take, for instance, the time we shared special moments of nostalgia, connecting all of us together with the little enjoyments we cherished as a child. Every individual goes through different trials and tribulations, becomes proud of their achievements, and imagines a better future for themselves. For these reasons, we ask that you read our residents’ creative writing with an open mind and a willingness to understand their point of view because that is how you discover the meaning of each artifact.
Finally, we want to thank Zachary Thomas, Sarah Lazzari, and the staff at SCYC for allowing us to engage with the residents. We want to thank our residents who participated in our program because their involvement made this spring worthwhile for everyone, especially via Zoom. They filled the remote platform with smiles and laughter, which we are also extremely grateful. As a matter of fact, we titled this chapbook Creative Expressions During COVID-19 because despite the pandemic, our residents remembered and expressed the good parts of our past through a year of struggle.

I come from a town that does drugs.
I come from a place that has helpful people.
I come from my home town that has good police.
I came from a town where my friends grew up.
I came from a town that the high school band played in parades
I came from a good high school that helps people too.
I come from a place where we rap for fun
to forget
But I’m going to come from a town I love and help out.

About my Best friend I got really
Mad and yelled and Backed them up.
I remember when WE got in a fight (at your dad’s), you never Called me names, you never hit me, you told me
I was being rude, you stuck up for me when your dad punched me in the face, you calmed me down by saying something hilarious to me I choked you and still you never laid a hand on me inspite of all of that you still love me and I still love you.
I remember when your mom kicked you out and you didn't have anywhere to go and I took you in with me at my moms and you helped me and my mom pay for food and help throw in on rent so we could keep our place. I think that made me look at you like a wife when I ate you ate.
I remember when an opposition was talking down on you so I texted him and you to go to the park to hoop. You didn't know what was happening, but I did and we whooped that boy. You were happy and was on they head so I did the same. Akiann you are funny and like to Be straight up. My mom never liked you but I told her if I wasn’t allowed to hang with you then I would breakdown, and now that she has met you, she claims You as her own son. If I never met you I prolly would have not been the same person.
when I bought my brother some shoes because he always had my back when I got in trouble, It made me feel good because I payed him back for keeping me out of trouble, It made him feel good too because he got some nice shoes, (vapor max).
I went to the dentist to get my teeth cleaned, afterwards I got to pick a reward and at that moment I seen the ring toss baby game I knew instantly my little sister would love it so that’s what I chose.
I gave my brother

Dear Anthony, Remember when you were locked up and a lot of crazy things happened while you were away. Well you need to start doing things by yourself and start taking risks, because if you keep hanging out with “those” people then you’re not going to get anywhere in life. You can’t be trusting anybody cause they always gon do what benefits them. You need to learn from your mistakes and don’t think about peoples opinions cuz they aint facts.
Dear Breylan I know—how it is in life but just know it not your body telling u what to do it’s your heart telling u and your memories of the past self to do better to know your mistakes. The thing is that just follow your dreams and just help the people in your life.

P.S.

Dear Cody,

I can be whoever I want to be have learned that people can change
and that change can be good,
I have amazing Girl. Your kind respectful you cherish everyone who you come across. Don’t let anybody push you around.
You are smart and an amazing Person don’t let anybody come in the way between of me and myself. Stay in Contact with God.

Love,

Cody
To myself, a year from now I have to ask one main question. Are you where you wanna be? If so, then great, but knowing myself now You Probably wont. So what will you do about it? Is your relationship with all your family better? Has your dad physically said, “I'm proud of You?” Is your family outside your own blood still around? Do they still mean everything to you like they do now? Have you found a greater Purpose in life? Just make sure you better yourself and find motivation to move forward.

Sincerely, Old Self
Life
Miya

Dear Miya,

Get out of the system, stop doing things u know will get u into trouble. You have a lot of potential weather u see it now or not and u can do great things & be successful like other people. Make your mom & dad proud, you’ve got this. Get back into sports, fix family relationships, be a better person. Don’t dwell on things u have no power over and change the things u do have power over.

Sincerely,

Miya
Gushers, thank yu for bein there for me. You’ve been there since I was little. I always enjoy eating yu wit my lil brother. Me & my lil brother would always find yu in the cabinet when lookin for snacks. My mom would always get mad at us fer eating all of yu cuz you’re her favorit too. I love how when I bite down on yu the liquid fills my mouth. My favorite color of yu to eat is red. I usually always get yu when in at tha store. My lil cousins like yu too. I’ll be sure to eat some of yu when I get outta jail

the pitcher eyeing me ready to through a strike
I swing hard and watch the ball fly fly and fly over second & over the fence
flying across the bases feeling free,
I hit a home run.
Louisville Slugger
Evan

My freshman year. Playing baseball for tiffin Columbian. I had never really played at all that year, just wasn’t as talented than some other people at the time. But our coach put me first at bat, top of the order, our very last game. So I remember distinctly I took my friends baseball bat it was a Louisville, and I went up. The pitcher threw a changeup and I just absolutely cranked it into left field, I remember it bounced and hit the fence, and I just kept sprinting. I ended up getting a triple, and playing a lot more after that.

Thank you for working with us to fulfill our mission and vision! We appreciate your time, talents, and treasure. This work relies heavily on collaboration, so without every stakeholder’s contribution, then we would not be operational.

We want to express our endless gratitude for The Cleveland Foundation’s and the Anisfield-Wolf Book Award’s on-going generosity.
We ask that you please consider donating because your financial contribution will sustain our ability to teach creative writing to youth who are incarcerated to empower their voices and assist in their re-entry into society. Your donation will allow us to:

- Purchase programmatic materials (e.g., writing materials, technology, personal protective equipment (PPE), snacks, and chapbooks) for our creative writing workshops.

- Compensate special guest authors and artists to facilitate one or more of our creative writing workshops with an honorarium.

- Assist our residents who are re-entering society with very little or zero access to social services and resource to prevent recidivating.

- Educate our local communities and government officials about the juvenile justice system’s traumatic effect on our youth.
