Writers in Residence

Fall 2021
University of Dayton Cohort
In the US, over 48,000 youth are confined in juvenile or criminal justice facilities. In Ohio, about 2,200 youth are held in juvenile or criminal justice facilities.

They have been separated and isolated from family, friends, and members of the community during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Many of them feel forgotten, alone, & scared.

This is for them.

We teach creative writing to youth who are incarcerated.

We empower our residents' voices.

We assist in their re-entry.
JUSTICE. We believe in creating an environment where justice becomes visible, where restoration from wrong is possible, where people are seen as more than their worst moments, where people can create a future not doomed to repeat the past.

EMPOWERMENT. We believe that our residents can build their self-esteem, resilience, and power through working on their writing, their reflection, their communication, through the creative writing workshop experience.

DIGNITY. We believe that our residents deserve to discover and recognize their own dignity and self-worth through our creative writing workshops. We also believe that if we respect ourselves, our residents, and our student volunteers then we successfully lead by example.

COMMUNITY. We believe in the power of community. This means that we continually welcome and accept our residents into our communities because they belong to an environment that promotes individuality and empowerment, especially upon re-entry. We also believe in the creation of a collaborative atmosphere that amplifies all voices together in a spirit of mutuality and kindness.

RELATIONSHIPS. We believe in fostering genuine, strong, and long-lasting relationships as well as walking with our residents as they navigate the path to re-entry.
“One writes out of one thing only.”

— James A. Baldwin
We strive to reduce the recidivism rates of our residents, and participate in the transformation of the juvenile justice system.

To clarify how we track our outputs, we take attendance at every session because our service population remains to be extremely transient, generating the total number of residents. However, some of the residents participate in our program more than once, so we averaged the total number of residents from every cohort to produce an approximate number that represents how many residents we engage weekly. We replicated the same calculations for our student volunteers too. The Independent Sector valuates volunteer time at $27.20/hour; we multiplied this dollar amount by the total number of service hours for every student volunteer.

This information was last updated on 11/29/21 before our creative writing workshops concluded for the fall season.

reconstruction of the soul
Dear reader,

This chapbook marks our second program season in a single year engaging the residents of the Montgomery County Center for Adolescent Services. Unit by unit, we are facilitating a 90-minute, weekly environment for the youth to creatively express themselves as well as critically reflect on their life’s journey – the past, present, and future.

We feel honored and humbled to witness each resident change and grow from the first week with six-word memoirs to the very last week with affirmations. We built connections with the youth and wrote alongside them during every session, which always included moments of laughter, learning, and longing for more time together. We are grateful for the residents allowing us to work with them to empower their voice and feel heard by their peers.

We hope that you read our residents’ creative writing with an open mind because they put forth a lot of time and energy into their poetry and prose even when they didn’t recognize themselves as storytellers. Hence the title of this chapbook, “Reconstruction of the Soul,” each youth wrote to repair something either visible or invisible for you to also heal with them.

Two Truths and a Lie

MB

I wake up every day, brush my teeth, wash my face, eat breakfast, then call my best friend. We talk about what we get into for the day and what time they tryna link up. When we link up we go get some food, chill, and conversate for a little bit. (true)

Every day I drag race with my friends on side streets and run from the police when they try to stop us from drag racing. (lie)

Stop talking to me
You on some weird st
What you on
On my son
Put it on yo hood
No Bicker

MW

Outside, shots fired
If they make moves gotta talk to me
No bicker
Alone again everybody left,
So many people gone it’s nobody left
They try to talk to me but all I say
Is no bicker
Life Problems

As past blood sheds thin
The wind blows far from present time
We still wake again, again.
Steps to Success

MW

Set goals
Get money
Be the king, not the peasant
I will achieve my goals
I will be a CEO
Do what needs to be done
Be successful
Gotta be successful
Gotta get a job
I wish somebody told me to do right in school. Stay out of jail, follow your dreams, stay outta the way, get money the legal way, dress right. My goal is to get my own business, apartment, and when I turn 18 get my own car. I want a wife and a son that plays sports and gets good grades.
Unspoken Street Codes

VJ

Hey, you don’t have to rob to get what you want
You don’t have to kill to get a name
You don’t have to be a class clown to get some smiles
You can go to college instead of jail
You can sell clothes, not drugs
You don’t have to be black or white to get respect
You don’t have to be a savage to fit in
Keep doing your best and you are heading for success.
Complete my education by maintaining motivation. Stay out the system and I ain’t tryna be the next victim. Ima do good, Ima do right. It ain’t over, I’m still in this fight.
Positive Vibes

JG

Get my master's degree
Engineering, full ride for free
I'm gonna catch a bfree
And I got the key for the Mercedes Benz
Your locks are nice one of the real if I say I got you that’s
100. Plus, if I consider you my brother
I’ll never switch up, you don’ have to be a crazy person. Love yourself, believe in yourself more than what anybody else thinks
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS
We want to acknowledge the following individuals below for their time, energy, and resources devoted to fulfilling Writers in Residence’s mission and vision because without them nothing would be possible:

- Residents
- Community Partners and Juvenile Facilities
- Student Volunteers
- Cohort Advisors and Academic Institutions
- Special Guest Authors and Artists
- Staff and Contractors
- Board of Directors
- Donors and Community Members

We want to thank another integral member of our team, Morgan K., who transcribed almost every resident’s handwritten artifact into a digital document so we can publish their poetry and prose.

We also want to express our gratitude for our Graphic Designer, Jordan Mondell, who produced this contemporary, high-quality chapbook that elevates our residents’ creative writing.

Finally, we want to recognize the support from the following grantmaking institutions:

- The Cleveland Foundation - Anisfield-Wolf Book Award, Cleveland Black Futures Fund
- The Sisters of Charity Foundation – Ministry Leadership Program
- The Fowler Family Foundation
- The Ohio Arts Council
By donating to Writers in Residence, you allow us to...

Provide writing materials, technology, personal protective equipment (PPE), snacks, chapbooks, and teaching artists for our creative writing workshops.

Support our residents who are re-entering society with very little or zero access to social services and resources to prevent them from recidivating.

Educate our local communities and government officials about the juvenile justice system’s traumatic effect on our youth to enact reforms and alternatives.
