

TYMESHIFT CASE STUDY

Tymeshift is a workforce management solution that leverages forecasting and automation to simplify previously manual team processes. Their organization is experiencing rapid growth with a global expansion strategy and needed security expertise to attract and protect more consumers.

EDEN DATA HELPED BY:

- Offering executive level leadership, serving as their Chief Information Security Officer (CISO), to manage all facets of their security & compliance programs
- Advising on compliance strategies for regulatory adherence in new markets
- Building data privacy processes to enhance consumer confidence & protect their assets

TYMESHIFT IMPACT:

- Significant impact in customer acquisition
- Building and executing on aggressive audit roadmap for market expansion