Mass Intentions

Ladies and Gentlemen, happy feast of Our Lord's Baptism!

We are very blessed at SS. Peter & Paul. We have baptisms nearly every weekend. How beautiful it is to draw these young souls into the family of faith. Mothers and Fathers along with Godparents standing up for the faith on behalf of this child! That this child may enjoy the light of Christ and the spiritual protection of heaven as they grow. It is a joyful moment for our priests and deacons when we are the celebrant of baptism. It is a joyful moment for family and friends, especially for parents and grandparents! They look upon this little soul whom they already love to bits and now add the gift of faith to this love.

The final line from this weekend's gospel draws our attention to the parental pride of the heavenly Father for Jesus; with thunderous voice, echoing through the Jordan river valley, "You are my beloved Son, with You I am well pleased." This was a message for Jesus, a message that the crowds would never forget! We are part of that blessed group who will not forget the message from Our Heavenly Father. We have heard this memorable moment proclaimed in the gospel. We are aware of parental joy and the joy that we embraced at our own children's baptism. We connect the joy of the Father to our own baptized child, knowing that each child who has been cleansed in the font evokes that same parental pride from the First Person of the Trinity, God the Father. How refulgent does the soul strive when it is aware of the great love of parents and God in their life. Let us continue to show our love in this way to our own children and point out the ways that God loves them; furthermore, let us remember that we are loved by God so that our trust, our peace and our love may thrive!

Women's Evening of Recollection

An Evening of Recollection is a time set aside specifically for a Christian woman to seriously go deeper into her relationship with God. It is an opportunity to spend a couple of hours in prayer and conversation with God guided by meditations of a priest of Opus Dei, a short talk, and an examination of conscience before the Blessed Sacrament. It is a chance to step back from the whirlwind of daily tasks for a few hours spent looking at God. Join us Monday, January 17 at St. Thomas in Crystal Lake. Confession begins at 6:45 pm.
