

FAQ: Virtual Performances

We are excited to be reuniting with our SCD Family this season, either from your home or in the theater. As per our Virtual Performances, here are a few frequently asked questions to help you understand our new Digital Theater.

1. Is there a link to the show?

- If you purchased a Digital Theater Virtual Ticket, an hour before the show you're attending we will send you an email with a link to our Digital Theater, along with a generated password you'll need to access the Digital Theater on our website. Your Digital Theater Virtual Stream ticket is only valid for the show date you purchase, at the time of the performance that day.
- Do you watch the show live or can you watch it at a different time?
 - Each show will start at the same time our In-Person Performances are showcased. Our Virtual Stream performances are available the Friday, Saturday, and Sunday of each performance this season.
- Does the $25 entitle you to watch more than one performance?
 - Your Digital Theater Virtual Stream ticket is only valid for the show date you purchase, at the time of the performance that day.
- What is the purchase procedure?
 - If you click on our ticket button at the top of this page, you will be directed to our online box office where you can select ticket type and date of your preference. Digital Theater tickets are only available the Friday, Saturday, and Sunday performances of each show this season.
- Do you take all credit cards?
 - We accept all credit cards through our online box office. We are unable to take American Express cards if you purchase tickets over the phone through our box office.
- How far in advance must you purchase?
 - Box offices close half an hour before each performance.
- What can people expect to see?
 - SCD is showcasing a high-tech Digital Theater right on our website for all four performances for this 15th Season. This new and innovative format will feature a professional, multi-angle experience with quality sound so our audience members feel like they're right there on stage with us.
