ITUC-AP COVID-19 Survey

Government Responses to COVID-19

1) Paid sick leave
2) Wage support
3) Income support
4) Mortgage, rent or loan relief
5) Free Health care

22 April 2020

Introduction

COVID-19 could damage the global economy by directly affecting production, by causing supply chain and market disruption, and by having a detrimental financial impact on firms and financial markets. However, workers, especially those in unstable employment are the worst affected group in society. Once economic activity has been suspended or has decreased to a certain level, they will lose their jobs and hence their income. Their employers cannot afford or are not sufficiently generous to provide any relief and, in most cases, these workers are not covered by public social protection programmes. Consequently, many workers and their families may be left destitute.

The Council of the Global Unions (CGU), namely the International Trade Union Confederation (ITUC), the 11 Global Union Federations (GUFs) and the Trade Union Advisory Committee to the OECD (TUAC), published its statement on 12 March 2020 calling upon governments to: “immediately extend paid sick leave entitlements, maintain incomes and extend social protections to all workers, including formal, ‘gig’, precarious and informal workers, regardless of their employment status”.

The ITUC and its Regional Organizations have been collecting, analysing and disseminating information about COVID-19, including a review of government responses, with a particular focus on the following five areas: 1) paid sick leave, 2) wage support, 3) income support, 4) mortgage, rent or loan relief and 5) free health care, and have published three surveys relating to government responses. This ITUC-AP survey summarizes the information which the ITUC and the ITUC-AP have collected from their affiliates in the Asian and Pacific region, as well as from the media as of 21 April. Please visit the ITUC webpage on COVID-19 to view other surveys and reports.

EAST ASIA

Hong Kong- SAR

Hong Kong established an Anti-Epidemic Fund (1 per cent of GDP) and approved tax and fee reliefs and other one-off relief measures (1.8 per cent GDP) It is said that a part of the fund was provided to businesses as relief and to safeguard jobs. However, more detailed information should be collected from affiliates.
As of 18 April 2020, the Hong Kong government announced its fiscal measures of the total HK$287.5 billion, around 9.5% of the city’s GDP (the first round of the HK$30 billion Anti-epidemic fund on 21 Feb., the budgetary allocation of the HK$120 billion relief package on 26 Feb. and the second round of the HK$137.5 billion Anti-epidemic fund on 18 April). In general, the City government relief measures for workers were decided very lately despite very prompt reliefs for businesses. It is necessary to check whether relief measures are well implemented sufficiently without anyone left behind. However, it seems that there are many loopholes to majority of workers in Hong Kong excluded from their relief package.

Paid Sick Leave:
There is no Covid-19 related paid sick leave. However, in accordance with the Employment Ordinance or an employment contract, a worker serving a quarantine order has an entitlement of daily allowance (4/5 of daily wage). However, non-contacted workers in self-isolation or quarantine cannot have no entitlement. Considering a large number of precarious workers and misclassified/disguised workers in Hong Kong, most workers have not been able to enjoy any paid sick leave.

Wage Support:
The unemployment rate in the period from December 2019 to February 2020 is 3.7% with 134,100 people out of work. The number of underemployment rate including those in unpaid leave has also risen from 47,300 to 59,100.

In the second round of the Anti-epidemic fund, the government has allocated HK80 billion job retention to pay 1.5 million workers 50% of their wages, at a maximum of HK$9,000 a month, for six months from no later than June 2020. However, this payment will be given to employers and only cover the workers only with a Mandatory Provident Fund pension scheme, leaving more than 65% of workers out. Some employers intend to abuse the scheme by laying off their workers and then employing family members or friends.

The government pledged to create 30,000 time limited jobs including employing 10,000 new civil service jobs in 2020-2021 and 5,000 youth interns. Also the HK$800 million has been allocated for workers’ new skill training.

Income Support: Cash pay-out to Hong Kong permanent residents aged 18 or above.

Special allowance of the HK$990 million for eligible Working Family Assistance / Student Financial Assistance households

Reducing salaries tax and tax under personal assessment for 2019-2020 by 100%, subject to a ceiling of HK$20,000, benefiting 1.95 million tax payers.

Providing an extra allowance to eligible social security recipients, equal to one month’s standard rate payment of Comprehensive Social Security Assistance, Old Age Allowance, Old Age Living Allowance or Disability Allowance.

Lower MTR fares by 20 % for 6 months from July 1, 2020.

Mortgage, Rent or Loan Relief:
Pay one month’s rent for lower income tenants living in public rental units of the Hong Kong Housing Authority and the Hong Kong Housing Society.
Providing various rental concession schemes, such as rental reduction by 75% for 6 month from April for eligible tenants of government properties, government land and the EcoPark.

Free Health Care: Hong Kong has established a low-cost public healthcare system including non-permanent residents are eligible with a valid document. Hospital authority will receive an additional HK$3 billion.

Japan

As of 7 April, the Government of Japan adopted the Emergency Economic Package Against COVID-19 with the total value of JPY108.2 trillion (20 percent of GDP), subsuming the remaining part of the previously announced packages (the December 2019 stimulus package) and the two COVID-19-response packages announced on February 13 and March 10 respectively); (i) develop preventive measures against the spread of infection and strengthen treatment capacity (expenditure of 0.5 percent of GDP), (ii) protect employment and businesses (15.1 percent of GDP), (iii) regain economic activities after containment (1.6 percent of GDP), (iv) rebuild a resilient economic structure (3 percent of GDP), and (v) enhance readiness for the future (0.3 percent of GDP).

Paid Sick Leave: Sickness and injury allowance is applicable to a sick leave due to COVID-19. It may be required to check whether there is any extended or new measure for all including an uninsured.

Wage Support:
1. Wage replacement programme for firms with paid leave schemes (up to JPY8,330) as well as self-employed and freelancer (JPY4,100 per day) upon certain conditions.
2. Raising the subsidy rates of the Employment Adjustment Subsidy from 2/3 to 9/10 for SMEs and from 1/2 to 3/4, respectively, for those do not dismiss employees between April and June.
3. Relaxed qualifications for the Employment Adjustment Subsidy, which provides SMEs and large corporations a financial support that covers 2/3 and 1/2 of the cost of special paid leaves, respectively.
4. Aids to households including supports for work leaves for parents in relation to the school closure.

Income Support:
1. Abe pledged a cash payment of JPY100,000 ($930) to everyone in Japan instead of JPY300,000 subsidy for a household affected by Covid-19.
2. Under certain conditions, employee’s pension contribution payment can be made in instalments.
3. Tax policy to extend deadline for personal income tax, gift tax and consumption tax payments. Also, deferments on tax payments for individuals and business impacted by COVID-19 upon request.
4. (Child Care) The government will take care all additional costs at after-school child care centres that accept children from the morning during the school closure.
Mortgage, Rent or Loan Relief: So far, any programme to waive or ease loan including mortgage payments or rents has been identified yet. However, Japanese government requested the Private Bank Association for allow affected people a flexible arrangement for repayment. Note also Japanese government has introduced various special or emergency loan programme to individuals and companies.

Free Health Care: In accordance with a decree to apply the infectious Disease Act to COVID-19, enforced on 1 February, the cost of provision of medical care has been shouldered by the government. Japan has 2 statutory schemes on health care: National Health Insurance and Employees’ Health Insurance. According to the ADB (2019) the weighted (actual subprogram beneficiaries divided by the total intended beneficiaries of social protection) coverage of health insurance in Japan (2015) was 57 per cent. In this regard, we need to check those who are excluded from the protection, especially most vulnerable groups such as migrant workers.

Korea
As of 16 April, the total value of packages against Covid-19, has been introduced by the Korean government, is KRW 141 trillion (USD 115 billion, 7.4% of GDP) including emergency support of KRW 20 trillion for households and damaged industries and the supplementary budget of KRW 11.7 trillion (USD 10 billion, 0.6% of GDP).

Comparing with March 2019, there are 195,000 job losses in March this year. Over 150,000 people filed for their unemployment benefits only in March 2020. The number of temporary layoffs is 1.6 million in March.

Paid Sick Leave: Ministry of Health and Welfare provides financial supports for those who cannot work for hospitalisation or quarantine/isolation due to the infection. Also, the Ministry of Employment and Labour provides financial support to employers who provide paid leaves for workers affected by the virus.

Wage Support:
1. Ministry of Employment and Labour provides financial supports for those who need to take leaves for parental purposes due to the extended school closure.
2. Ministry of Employment and Labour provides various subsidies to individuals and companies to retain employment.
3. Ministry of Employment and Labour provides a financial support scheme to employers who adopt flexible working arrangements.

Income Support:
1. Consumption coupons for the poor, emergency family care and employment retention support (KRW 3.5 trillion), announced on 17 March.
2. Relief checks to households in the bottom 70 % income bracket (around 14 million households), of up to KRW 1 million (USD 820) per household, announced on 30 March.
3. Another one-time-relieve package of the total KRW 9.7 billion, including a second extra budge of 7.6 trillion (USD6.3 billion), for shopping coupons and gift certificates to 14.78 million households, about half of the nation's total households, announced on 16 April.
4. There is a national employment insurance. The insured will have his/her unemployment benefit. Those who are not covered by the employment insurance including workers in unpaid leaves, workers in misclassified employment, etc will get financial supports for 2 months.

5. Tax policies: (i) increase of tax deduction for individuals for the use of credit and debit cards; (ii) consumption tax cut for auto purchases; and (iii) loans and financial guarantees for self-employed and people affected by the virus.

6. Social security contribution relief with three-month payment deferrals and 30 % contribution rate deductions for small business and low-income households.

Mortgage, Rent or Loan Relief:
1. Tax policy: Korean government will provide tax benefit to lessors who waive or cut down rent payment of his/her lessees.
2. Extension of loan maturity as well as deferment of interest payment Affected SMEs and self-employment.

Free Health Care:
1. Testing: COVID-19 testing is free for suspected patients, infected patients and those who are required to take a test.
2. Medical costs for COVID-19 are paid by central and local governments with national health insurance service.
3. The national health insurance service is a statutory national health insurance scheme to cover 63.3 per cent (ADB, weighted coverage as of 2015). All foreigners who stay longer than 6 months should also enrol. However, medical costs are not completely free. We need to check those who are not covered by the insurance.

Mongolia

Paid Sick Leave: Some paid sick leave only for workers covered by the national health insurance

Wage Support: The Mongolian government approved a subsidy to retain employment by supporting firms to pay 200,000MNT to employees for 3 months. However, this will not cover the self-employed and workers without unemployment insurance. For the first 3 months of this year, 5,200 people received unemployment benefits.

Income Support: Mongolia has its national unemployment insurance with a small coverage. Increase of the monthly ‘Child Money’ allowance of MNT20,000 to children aged under 18 to MNT30,000 for 3 months. Exemption of employers’ social insurance contribution by private enterprises and companies and exemption of personal income tax for 6 months from April. Exemption of social insurance contributions by self-employed individuals for 6 month until October. Temporary postponement of the repayment of soft mortgage loans from the government, decided 3 April.

Mortgage, Rent or Loan Relief: The government’s decision to make deferrals on consumer and business loan repayment and their interests for 90 days in 18 March to cover 1,069 individual borrowers (MNT36.6 billion) and 126 companies (MNT109.8 billion). The Bank of Mongolia lowered its policy rate by 2 % points from 11 to 9 percent.

Free Health Care: Mongolia has its own national health with a large coverage.
Taiwan-ROC

The total value of the economic stimulus package, pledged by the government as of 3 April, is NT$1.05 trillion (US$34.64 billion), 5.4% of its national GDP – NT$210 billion from a special budget, NT$140 billion from the general budget and NT$700 billion in loans to affected industries.

Fiji

Paid Sick Leave: The government will pay 21 days leave for people earning less than $30,000 if they test positive with COVID-19.

The FTUC is disappointed that there is no immediate assistance to workers in the budget other than helping themselves to their retirement funds. Full FTUC statement is available here: http://www.ftuc.org.fj/wp-content/uploads/2020/03/PRESS-RELEASE-COVID-19-SUPPLEMENTARY-BUDGET-RESPONSE-WORKERS-GROSSLY-HOODWINKED.pdf.

Wage Support:
1. From 6 April 2020, workers in the hospitality sector who have lost their jobs or have had their hours cut since 1 February 2020 can — for now — access an initial $1,000 dollars from their FNPF accounts, with additional funds to be considered as the situation unfolds further. If any worker does not have this full amount available, the government will directly subsidise the difference.
2. All those employees affected by nationwide physical distancing requirements, along with employees who have been placed on leave without pay or had their hours cut, will be able to access an initial $500 dollars from their FNPF accounts. The government will also subsidise the difference for any Fijians who do not have this full amount available (FTUC noted that this is a Government that is telling workers to fend for themselves by withdrawing from their own retirement fund in these difficult times, yet make it look like it is Government assistance).

3. For those affected in the informal sector in the lockdown areas, government will also be providing a one-off relief payment of $150 dollars for all those who have a street trader or hawker license.

Income Support:

1. Reduction of employers FNPF Statutory Contributions from ten per cent to five per cent, from 1 April 2020 until 31 December 2020 (FTUC slammed the move and noted that this is tantamount to a 5 per cent pay cut for workers and result in lesser savings in the FNPF).
2. A 300 per cent tax deduction will be afforded to employers for wages and salary paid to employees who are self-quarantined, with approval from the Ministry of Health. For those who are not compensated by their employer during self-quarantine, government will provide $100 dollars in relief.
3. 100 per cent of electricity costs up to the first 100 units will be covered by Energy Fiji Limited and government, leaving subsidised customers responsible for just the nine per cent VAT.
4. Sick leave.
5. Fijians in the informal sector who are confirmed to have contracted the virus will be paid a one-off sum of $1,000 dollars.

Mortgage, Rent or Loan Relief:

1. Loan repayments for six months for any Fijian who has lost their jobs or had their hours reduced. Mortgages, personal loans and even hire purchase payment plans from stores will qualify.
2. Landowners can reduce rent for business from $1,000 to $500 and the $500 being lost can be claimed and the government will carry the burden.
3. Banks will waive all charges on minimum balances in customer's accounts and remove the minimum purchasing requirement for electronic transactions.
4. $5 million dollars for SME credit guarantee scheme; $60 million loans available to banks for SMEs and customers.
5. For students repaying tertiary education loans, all repayments will be suspended until 31 December 2020.
6. A tax deduction will be given to cover any deductions made to existing rent contracts, (commercial). This reduction will apply for rent payable between 1 April and 31 December 2020.
7. Reduce stamp duty rates for Fiji resident taxpayers for mortgages from 1.7 per cent to zero per cent. Foreign nationals will see their mortgages’ stamp duty reduced from five per cent to zero per cent (FTUC noted that this will not lead to any impact) +L30.

Free Health Care:
1. In general, public health care is free or at very low cost for all persons in the country. However, medications and supplies is limited.

2. Additional $40 million dollars to enhance our health system’s capacity to respond to this pandemic – on top of the $347.5 million dollars allocated to the health sector in this financial year.

Kiribati

The small island nation of Kiribati has declared a state of emergency and gone into partial lockdown, with schools closing from 30 March. No COVID-19 economic or health measures have been announced.

3. From 1 July 2020, working families with children who are not receiving a main benefit and have some level of employment income each week will no longer satisfy the hours test to receive the In-Work Tax Credit. More details here https://www.beehive.govt.nz/sites/default/files/2020-03/Income%20support%20factsheet.pdf.
4. The employer will not be liable to income tax or GST on the subsidy received from the Ministry of Social Development and will not be entitled to an income tax deduction for wages paid out of the wage subsidy.
5. Business tax changes include a provisional tax threshold life, the reinstatement of building depreciation and writing off interest on the late payment of tax.

Mortgage, Rent or Loan Relief:
1. The Government, the Reserve Bank of New Zealand, and retail banks have agreed a six-monthly principal and interest payment holiday for mortgage holders, and a business finance guarantee scheme for SME customers whose incomes have been affected by COVID-19, in which the government covers 80 per cent of the credit risk.
2. The Minister of Finance announced on 23 March 2020 a six month freeze on residential rent increases and increased protections for tenants for termination of tenancies. This has been applied as law through the COVID-19 Response (Urgent Management Measures) Amendment Act.
3. The government and the banks will also implement a NZ$6.25 billion (USD3.62 billion) business finance guarantee scheme for small and medium-sized businesses, to protect jobs. The scheme will include a limit of NZ$500,000 per loan and will apply to firms with a turnover of between NZ$250,000 and NZ$80 million per annum.
4. The government has also committed to a temporary law change to enable businesses to put existing debt into hibernation for six months.

Free Health Care: New Zealand residents and some work visa holders benefit from free or subsidised public health services, testing for COVID-19 is provided only through the public health system for free.

A dedicated $500 million fund was announced that includes:
- $32 million for extra intensive care capacity and equipment at hospitals.
