- 12 The Company must safeguard the confidentiality of information which a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of the Company's securities. ### External communications and Media Relations

SCHEDULE 9 – RISK MANAGEMENT POLICY

The Board has delegated to the audit and risk committee responsibility for implementing the risk management system.

The audit and risk committee will submit particular matters to the Board for its approval or review. Among other things it will:

- (a) oversee and periodically review the Company's risk management framework, systems, practices and procedures to ensure effective risk identification and management and compliance with the risk appetite set by the Board, internal guidelines and external requirements;
- (b) assist management to determine whether it has any material exposure to environmental or social risks (as those terms are defined in the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations – 4th Edition (Recommendations)):
  - (i) if it does, how it manages, or intends to manage, those risks; and
  - (ii) if it does not, report the basis for that determination to the Board, and where appropriate benchmark the Company's environmental or social risk profile against its peers;
- (c) consider whether the Company has a material exposure to climate change risk;
- (d) assist management to determine the key risks to the businesses and prioritise work to manage those risks;
- (e) assess whether the Company is required to publish an integrated report or a sustainability report (as those terms are defined in the Recommendations in accordance with a recognised international standard); and
- (f) review reports by management on the efficiency and effectiveness of risk management and associated internal compliance and control procedures.

The Company's process of risk management and internal compliance and control includes:

- (a) identifying and measuring risks that might impact upon the achievement of the Company's goals and objectives, and monitoring the environment for emerging factors and trends that affect these risks;
- (b) formulating risk management strategies to manage identified risks, and designing and implementing appropriate risk management policies and internal controls; and
- (c) monitoring the performance of, and improving the effectiveness of, risk management systems and internal compliance and controls, including regular assessment of the effectiveness of risk management and internal compliance and control.

To this end, comprehensive practises are in place that are directed towards achieving the following objectives:

- (a) compliance with applicable laws and regulations;
- (b) preparation of reliable published financial information;
- (c) verifying the integrity of the Company's periodic reports which are not audited or reviewed by an external auditor, to satisfy the Board that each periodic report is materially accurate, balanced and provides investors with appropriate information to make informed investment decisions; and
- (d) implementation of risk transfer strategies where appropriate eg insurance.

The responsibility for undertaking and assessing risk management and internal control effectiveness is delegated to management. Management is required to assess risk management and associated internal compliance and control procedures and report, at least annually, to the audit and risk committee.

The Board will review assessments of the effectiveness of risk management and internal compliance and control at least annually.

The Company must disclose at least annually whether the Board (or a committee of the Board) has completed a review of the Company's risk management framework to satisfy itself that the framework:

- (a) continues to be sound;
- (b) ensures that the Company is operating with due regard to the risk appetite set by the Board; and
- (c) deals adequately with contemporary and emerging risks such as conduct risk, digital disruption, cyber-security, privacy and data breaches, sustainability and climate change.

The Company will disclose if it has any material exposure to environmental or social risks (as those terms are defined in the Recommendations) and, if it does, how it manages, or intends to manage, those risks.

SCHEDULE 10 – SECURITIES TRADING POLICY

1. INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 These guidelines set out the policy on the sale and purchase of securities in the Company by its Key Management Personnel. Key Management Personnel are those persons having authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling the activities of the entity, directly or indirectly, including any Director (whether executive or otherwise) of that entity.
- 1.2 Key Management Personnel of the Company are encouraged to be long-term holders of the Company's securities. It is important, however, that care is taken in the timing of any dealing in securities of the Company.
- 1.3 This policy imposes constraints on Key Management Personnel of the Company dealing in securities of the Company.
- 1.4 The primary purpose of this policy is to assist Key Management Personnel to avoid conduct known as "insider trading" which is prohibited under the Corporations Act 2001 (Corporations Act). In some respects the Company's policy extends beyond the requirements of the Corporations Act.
- 1.5 This policy has been adopted by the Board of the Company.

2. APPLICATION

- 2.1 This policy applies to all Key Management Personnel of the Company as set out in Schedule 1, as may be amended from time to time.
- 2.2 This policy applies not only to the sale and purchase of any securities of the Company and its subsidiaries, but also to any "dealing in securities" which includes transactions or arrangements which operate to limit the economic risk of a security holding.
- 2.3 This policy is subject, at all times, to the law against insider trading.

3. OBJECTIVES

- 3.1 The objectives of this policy are to:
- (a) minimise the risk of Key Management Personnel of the Company contravening the law against insider trading;
  - (b) ensure the Company is able to meet its reporting obligations under the ASX Listing Rules; and
  - (c) increase transparency with respect to trading in securities of the Company by Key Management Personnel.
- 3.2 To achieve these objectives, Key Management Personnel should treat this policy as binding on them in the absence of a specific exemption by the Board.

4. DEALING IN SECURITIES – LEGAL AND OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

Insider Trading

- 4.1 Sections 1042A to 1043O of the Corporations Act prohibits conduct known as

"insider trading".

4.2 Insider trading is a criminal offence. It may also attract civil liability. In broad terms, a person will be guilty of insider trading if:

- (a) that person possesses information which is not generally available to the market; and
- (b) if the information were generally available to the market, would be likely to have a material effect on the price or value of the Company's securities (ie, information that is "price-sensitive"); and
- (c) that person:
  - (i) buys or sells securities in the Company; or
  - (ii) procures someone else to buy or sell securities in the Company; or
  - (iii) passes on that information to a third party where that person knows, or ought reasonably to have known, that the third party would be likely to buy or sell the securities or procure someone else to buy or sell the securities of the Company.

The following are examples of information which could potentially be regarded as price-sensitive and which, if made available to the market, could materially affect the price of the Company's securities:

- (1) the Company is considering or negotiating a major acquisition or disposal of assets
- (2) a threat of major litigation against the Company
- (3) the Company's sales and profit results materially exceeding (or falling short of) the market's expectations
- (4) a material change in debt, liquidity or cash flow
- (5) a significant new development proposal, for example, a new product or technology
- (6) the granting (or loss) of a major contract
- (7) management or business restructuring proposal; and
- (8) a share issue proposal.

4.3 The above examples illustrate that Key Management Personnel of the Company will from time to time be in a situation where they are in possession of price-sensitive information that is not generally available to the public.

A person does not need to be a member of the Key Management Personnel of the Company to be guilty of insider trading in relation to securities of the Company. The prohibition extends to dealings by Key Management Personnel through nominees, agents or other associates, such as family members, family trusts and family companies. It does not matter how or where the person obtains the information – it does not have to be obtained from the Company to constitute inside information.

ASX continuous disclosure rules

4.4 The risk of contravention of insider trading laws in relation to information concerning public companies was substantially reduced in 1994 with the introduction of the continuous disclosure regime. Under that regime, public companies listed on an exchange operated by ASX Limited (ASX) are required to disclose all price-sensitive information immediately to ASX, except in limited circumstances. The tests of what constitute price-sensitive information under the insider trading laws and under the continuous disclosure requirements are effectively identical. As a consequence, at least in theory, there is little risk of Key Management Personnel contravening insider trading laws as all relevant information will already have been disclosed to the market.

4.5 However, there are a number of limitations and qualifications to the above, including:

- (a) where the ASX Listing Rules and the Corporations Act permit companies to not disclose certain information, for example in the situation where an acquisition is being negotiated and remains confidential;
- (b) where information may be known to a particular member of the Key Management Personnel but not yet by the Company as a whole (ie the Board);
- (c) where the Company may not have yet complied with its continuous disclosure obligations in relation to a particular event or circumstance – there will always be some element of delay in doing so; and
- (d) where Key Management Personnel will generally have a better feel for the performance of the Company than the public.

In these situations, there is still potential for contravention of the insider trading laws. There is also the potential for an appearance of contravention even if there has not been actual contravention. This could reflect badly on the Company as well as on the Key Management Personnel concerned and lead to reputational harm.

4.6 Another circumstance that must be guarded against is where one or more Key Management Personnel are aware of an event or circumstance and the remaining Key Management Personnel are not yet aware. In such a circumstance, it is important that no member of the Key Management Personnel deals in securities because:

- (a) there is a risk that they will be found to have been guilty of insider trading even if they had no intention of committing a contravention; and
- (b) of the potential for such circumstances to reflect badly on the Company.

4.7 For these reasons, the advice of the Chairperson should be sought prior to any dealings in securities taking place, and steps should be taken to ensure that the Chairperson is appraised of all relevant considerations by the Disclosure Officer (Company Secretary) appointed under ASX Listing Rule 1.1, condition 12.

5. DEALING IN SECURITIES – PROCEDURE AND PROHIBITED PERIODS

Procedure for obtaining prior written clearance

5.1 Key Management Personnel must not deal in securities of the Company unless:

- (a) they have satisfied themselves that they are not in possession of any price-sensitive information that is not generally available to the public;

- (b) they have contacted the Chairperson, or in their absence, the Company Secretary and notified them of their intention to do so (in advance of dealing in the securities) and the Chairperson indicates in writing (copied to the Company Secretary) that there is no impediment to them doing so; and
- (c) where the Chairperson wishes to deal in securities, he or she has contacted the Board or, in their absence, the Company Secretary, and notified them of their intention to do so (in advance of dealing in the securities) and Company Secretary indicates in writing that there is no impediment to him or her doing so.

Schedule 2 contains a flowchart of the procedure for obtaining prior written clearance.

5.2 Approvals to buy or sell securities

- (a) All requests to buy or sell securities as referred to in paragraph 5.1 must include the intended volume of securities to be purchased or sold and an estimated time frame for the sale or purchase.
- (b) Copies of written approvals must be forwarded to the Company Secretary prior to the approved purchase or sale transaction.
- (c) Key Management Personnel need to be mindful of the market perception associated with any sale of Company securities and possibly the ability of the market to absorb the volume of shares being sold. With this in mind, the management of the sale of any significant volume of Company securities (ie a volume that would represent a volume in excess of 10% of the total securities held by the seller prior to the sale, or a volume to be sold that would be in excess of 10% of the average daily traded volume of the shares of the Company on the ASX for the preceding 20 trading days) by a Key Management Personnel needs to be discussed with the Board and the Company's legal advisers prior to the execution of any sale. These discussions need to be documented in the form of a file note, to be retained by the Company Secretary.

Prohibited Periods

5.3 Subject to the exceptions discussed in paragraph 6 below, Key Management Personnel are prohibited from dealing in securities of the Company, and the Chairperson will not give written clearance to Key Management Personnel to deal in securities of the Company, in the following closed periods:

- (a) two weeks prior to, and 48 hours after the release of the Company's Annual Financial Report;
- (b) two weeks prior to, and 48 hours after the release of the Half Year Financial Report of the Company;
- (c) two weeks prior to, and 48 hours after the release of the Company's quarterly reports (if applicable); and
- (d) within the period of 1 month prior to the release of a disclosure document offering securities in the Company,

(together the Closed Periods).

The Company may at its discretion vary this rule in relation to a particular Closed Periods by general announcement to all Key Management Personnel either before or during the Closed Periods. However, if a Key Management Personnel is in possession of price sensitive information which is not generally available to the market, then he or she must not deal in the Company's securities at any time.

- 5.4 The Company may also impose additional periods from time to time during which Key Management Personnel are prohibited from dealing in securities of the Company, including while it considers matters which are exempt from immediate disclosure to ASX under ASX Listing Rule 3.1A.

If a member of the Key Management Personnel of the Company is in possession of price-sensitive information which is not generally available to the market, then he or she must not deal in securities of the Company at any time, even if such trading might otherwise be permitted by this policy.

- 5.5 Key Management Personnel must not:
- (a) at any time engage in short-term trading in securities of the Company;
  - (b) communicate price-sensitive information to a person who may deal in securities of the Company; or
  - (c) recommend or otherwise suggest to any person (including a spouse, relative, friend, trustee of a family trust or directors of a family company) the buying or selling of securities in the Company; or
  - (d) communicate price-sensitive information to external advisers unless they are bound by confidentiality agreements or other enforceable confidentiality obligations.

The above principles also apply to any "dealing in securities" of the Company, including the following:

- (1) trading in financial products issued or created over the Company's securities and associated products; and
- (2) entering into transactions in associated products which operate to limit the economic risk of security holdings in the Company.

6. EXCEPTIONS

Trading not subject to this Policy

6.1 Notwithstanding the above prohibited periods, Key Management Personnel may at any time (without the consent of the Chairperson, but subject at all times to the law against insider trading and to the notification requirements discussed below):

- (1) acquire ordinary shares in the Company by conversion of securities giving a right of conversion to ordinary shares;
- (2) acquire Company securities under a bonus issue made to all holders of securities of the same class;
- (3) acquire Company securities under a dividend reinvestment, or top up plan that is available to all holders of securities of the same class;
- (4) acquire, or agree to acquire or exercise options under an employee incentive scheme (as that term is defined in the ASX Listing Rules);
- (5) withdraw ordinary shares in the Company held on behalf of the Key Management Personnel in an employee incentive scheme (as that term is defined in the ASX Listing Rules) where the withdrawal is permitted by the rules of that scheme;
- (6) acquire ordinary shares in the Company as a result of the exercise of options held under an employee option scheme;
- (7) transfer Company securities already held into a superannuation fund or other saving scheme in which the restricted person is a beneficiary;
- (8) invest in, or trade in units of, a fund or other scheme (other than a scheme only investing in the securities of the Company) where the assets of the fund or other scheme are invested at the discretion of a third party;
- (9) where a restricted person is a trustee of a trust, trade in Company securities by that trust provided the restricted person is not a beneficiary of the trust and any decision to trade during a prohibited period is taken by the other trustees or by the investment managers independently of the restricted person;
- (10) undertake to accept, or accept, under a takeover offer;
- (11) trade under an offer or invitation made to all or most of the Company's security holders, such as, a rights issue, a security purchase plan, a dividend or distribution reinvestment plan and an equal access buy-back, where the plan that determines the timing and structure of the offer has been approved by the Board. This includes decisions relating to whether or not to take up the entitlements and the sale of entitlements required to provide for the take up of the balance of entitlements under a renounceable pro rata issue;

- (12) dispose of securities of the Company resulting from a secured lender exercising their rights, for example, under a margin lending arrangement;
- (13) exercise (but not sell securities following the exercise of) an option or a right under an employee incentive scheme, or convert a convertible security, where the final date for the exercise of the option or right, or the conversion of the security, falls during a prohibited period and the entity has been in an exceptionally long prohibited period or the entity has had a number of consecutive prohibited periods and the restricted person could not reasonably have been expected to exercise it at a time when free to do so; and
- (14) trade under a non-discretionary trading plan for which prior written clearance has been provided in accordance with procedures set out in this policy and where:
  - a) the restricted person did not enter into the plan or amend the plan during a prohibited period;
  - b) the trading plan does not permit the restricted person to exercise any influence or discretion over how, when, or whether to trade; and
  - c) the policy does not allow the restricted person to cancel the trading plan or cancel or otherwise vary the terms of his or her participation in the trading plan during a prohibited period other than in exceptional circumstances.

Exceptional Circumstances

6.2 Exceptional Circumstances in which Key Management Personnel may deal in securities during a prohibited period:

- (1) Key Management Personnel who are not in possession of inside information in relation to the Company, may be given prior written clearance by the Chairperson to sell or otherwise dispose of the securities of the Company in a Closed Period where such person is in severe financial hardship or where there are other exceptional circumstances as set out in this policy.
A financial hardship or exceptional circumstances determination can only be made by examining all of the facts and if necessary obtaining independent verification of the facts from banks, accountants or other like institution.

Key Management Personnel may be in severe financial hardship if he or she has a pressing financial commitment that cannot be satisfied otherwise than by selling the relevant securities of the Company. For example, a tax liability of such a person would not normally constitute severe financial hardship unless the person has no other means of satisfying the liability.

Other examples include if the Key Management Personnel is required by a court order, or there are court enforceable undertakings, for example, in a bona fide family settlement, to transfer or sell the securities of the Company or there is some other overriding legal or regulatory requirement for him or her to do so.

- (2) In recognition of the case that exceptional circumstances, by their nature, cannot always be specified in advance, it is envisaged that there may be other circumstances, which have not been identified in this policy, that may be deemed exceptional by the Chairperson (or the Board or the Company Secretary where the Chairperson is involved) and whereby prior written clearance is granted to permit dealing.

Procedure for obtaining prior written clearance

- (a) The person seeking clearance to deal in securities must seek prior written clearance to do so and satisfy the Chairperson that they are in severe financial hardship or that their circumstances are otherwise exceptional and that the proposed sale or disposal of the relevant securities is the only reasonable course of action available.
- (b) If the Chairperson is in any doubt in making such determinations on behalf of the Company, consideration should be given to the purpose of the ASX Listing Rules and their discretion should be exercised with caution.
- (c) Any written clearance to deal in the Company's securities during the exceptional circumstances must specify the duration for which of such approval applies.
- (d) Only a written clearance signed by the Chairperson and the Company Secretary, as the case may be, will constitute valid written clearance for the purpose of this policy.

Schedule 2 contains a flowchart of the procedure for obtaining prior written clearance for severe financial hardship/exceptional circumstances.

7. NOTIFICATION OF DEALING IN SECURITIES

- 7.1 Key Management Personnel must notify the Chairperson (who will notify the Company Secretary) immediately on acquiring or disposing of a relevant interest in any securities in the Company.
- 7.2 Directors have entered into an agreement with the Company under which they are obliged to notify changes in interests in shares and other relevant matters.

8. NOTIFICATION OF DEALINGS IN SECURITIES – DIRECTORS – LEGAL AND OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

- 8.1 ASX Listing Rules 3.19A and 3.19B require the Company to notify dealing in securities by Directors within 5 business days. Three appendices are included in the ASX Listing Rules for the purpose of this notification, being 3X Initial Director's Interest Notice, 3Y Change of Director's Interest Notice and 3Z Final Director's Interest Notice.
- 8.2 Section 205G of the Corporations Act 2001 requires a Director of a listed company to notify ASX within 14 days of acquiring or disposing of a relevant interest in any securities of the Company. This is an obligation of the Director, not the Company. There is no prescribed form for such notifications. ASIC has granted relief from the requirements of section 205G where notifications are made by the Company under Listing Rules 3.19A and 3.19B.
- 8.3 Key Management Personnel are required to notify the Chairperson (who will notify the Company Secretary) of any dealing in securities within two (2) business days to allow the Company to comply with ASX Listing Rules 3.19A and 3.19B.

9. PENALTIES

- 9.1 A trade in any securities by a person who is in possession of price-sensitive information not publicly available could contravene the Corporations Act and expose the person to civil and criminal penalties.
- 9.2 A contravention of this policy by a member of the Key Management Personnel may result in summary dismissal.

10. MATERIAL CHANGES TO THE SECURITIES TRADING POLICY

- 10.1 Under ASX Listing Rule 12.10, if the Company makes a "material change" to this trading policy, the amended policy must be announced to the market within 5 business days of the material change taking effect.

For purposes of the ASX Listing Rules, amendments to the Company's trading policy that would constitute a material change and which would require that the amended policy be given to ASX for release to the market include:

- (a) changes to the periods specified in the trading policy when the Company's Key Management Personnel are prohibited from dealing in securities of the Company (ie the prohibited periods);
- (b) changes with respect to the trading that is excluded from the operation of the Company's trading policy; and
- (c) changes with respect to the exceptional circumstances in which the Company's Key Management Personnel may be permitted to trade during a prohibited period.

11. EFFECT OF COMPLIANCE WITH THIS POLICY

- 11.1 Compliance with this policy does not absolve Key Management Personnel from complying with the law, which must be the overriding consideration when trading in the Company's securities.

12. DEFINITIONS

- 12.1 For the purposes of this policy:

- (a) "Board" means the board of directors of the Company as appointed from time to time;
- (b) "closed period" means the fixed periods specified in paragraph 5.2 when the Company's Key Management Personnel are prohibited from dealing in securities of the Company;

It includes procuring another person to do any of these things;
- (d) "price-sensitive information" means information concerning the company that is not generally available to the market and, if available to the market, that a reasonable person would expect to have a material affect on the price or value of securities in the Company;

- 12.2 For the purposes of paragraph 4, a Director's "dealing in securities" includes associates of Directors dealing in securities, and it is incumbent on each Director to ensure that an associate does not deal in circumstances where the dealing could be attributed to the Director concerned. Associate has the meaning given to it Division 2 of Part 1.2 of the Corporations Act.

6.2 Making a Report

- (a) Who to report to?

The Company encourages reports of Reportable Matters to be made to any of the following recipients (as appropriate in the circumstances) (Recipients):

- (i) to the Whistleblower Protection Officer;
- (ii) to the relevant supervisor, senior manager or officer in the Company who makes, or participates in making, decisions that affect the whole, or a substantial part of, the business of the Company, or who has the capacity to affect significantly the Company's financial standing;
- (iii) to the Chairman of the Audit and Risk Committee;
- (iv) any member of the Board;
- (v) the Company Secretary;

The contact details of the Recipients can be found on the Company's website/from an appropriate employee. Reports can be made by email, telephone, in person.

The Company recognises that there may be issues of sensitivity whereby a Discloser does not feel comfortable to make a report to an internal recipient. In such cases, the Discloser may feel more comfortable making an anonymous disclosure to an external recipient.

Nothing in this Whistleblower Policy (including anonymous reporting) should be taken in any way as restricting someone from reporting any matter or providing any information to a regulator (such as ASIC, the APRA, Commissioner), the Company's auditor or a member of the audit team, a lawyer (to obtain advice or representation) or any other person in accordance with any relevant law, regulation or other requirement. Information in relation to whistleblowing is available from such regulators and can generally be downloaded on their website.

(b) Anonymous reports

The Company also appreciates that speaking up can be difficult. Reports can also be made anonymously or using a pseudonym and still be protected. A Discloser can refuse to answer questions that could reveal their identity. While reports can be made anonymously, it may affect the ability to investigate the matter properly and to communicate with the Discloser about the report. Anonymous Disclosers should therefore attempt to maintain two-way communication as far as possible.

Anonymous reports can be made by phone or by sending an anonymous email using a temporary or disposable email address available from the internet.

(b) Information to include in the report

As much information should be included in the report as possible including details of the Reportable Matter, people involved, dates, locations and whether more evidence may exist.

Disclosers will be expected to have reasonable grounds to believe the information being disclosed is true (which will be based on the objective reasonableness of the reasons for the Discloser's suspicions) but the Discloser will not be penalised and may still qualify for protection if the information turns out to be incorrect should they have such reasonable grounds. However, any deliberate false reporting will not qualify for protection under this Whistleblower Policy and will be treated as a serious matter and may be subject to disciplinary action.

(c) Questions

Personnel who are unsure about how this Whistleblower Policy works, what is covered by the Whistleblower Policy or how a disclosure may be handled are encouraged to speak with the Whistleblower Protection Officer or Company Secretary in the first instance.

6.3 Investigating a Report

(a) Who will investigate?

An appropriate investigator (or investigators) may be appointed to investigate any reports made under this Whistleblower Policy. An investigator will be independent of the Discloser and individuals who are the subject of the disclosure and the department or business unit involved. Possible investigators include:

- (i) the Whistleblower Investigating Officer;
- (ii) the Whistleblower Protection Officer;
- (iii) a relevant supervisor, senior manager or officer in the Company who makes, or participates in making, decisions that affect the whole, or a substantial part of, the business of the Company, or who has the capacity to affect significantly the Company's financial standing;
- (iv) the Chairman of the Audit and Risk Committee;
- (v) any member of the Board;
- (vi) the Company Secretary;

Where a Reportable Matter relates to the managing director, Chief Executive Officer, Whistleblower Protection Officer, Whistleblower Investigating Officer or a director of the Company, the matter will be referred directly to the Chair of the Audit and Risk Committee, Company Secretary or other appropriate person.

(b) How will the investigation be conducted?

Any matters reported under this Whistleblower Policy will be considered and a determination will be made as to whether the disclosure falls within the scope of this Whistleblower Policy. If so, the matter will be investigated as soon as practicable after the matter has been reported. The investigation process will be conducted in a thorough, fair, objective and independent manner (while preserving confidentiality) and will depend on the precise nature of the conduct being investigated. Due care and appropriate speed will be taken and reported information will be verified and relevant personnel interviewed as part of the investigative process. The Company may seek independent advice as necessary.

The Discloser may be asked for further information, will be given regular and appropriate updates in the circumstances and will be advised of any outcomes from the investigation (subject to considerations of privacy and confidentiality). Any updates or outcomes will be advised by reasonable means.

Anonymous reports will be investigated based on the information provided and may be limited if the Discloser has refused or omitted to provide contact details.

At the end of the investigation, the relevant investigating officer will report their findings to the Chairman of the Audit and Risk Committee / Chairman of the Board / or the appropriate person, who will determine the appropriate response. This may include rectifying any unacceptable conduct and taking any action required to prevent future occurrences of the same or similar conduct as well as disciplinary action if necessary. The identity of the Discloser will be redacted from any written investigation reports unless they have consented to disclosure of their identity.

The Discloser may lodge a complaint with a regulator if they are not happy with an outcome of the investigation or if they consider that this Whistleblower Policy has not been adhered to adequately.

6.4 Support and Protections

(a) Identity Protection (Confidentiality) for Disclosers

The identity of and information likely to lead to the identification of a Discloser will be kept confidential, however a disclosure can be made:

- (i) if the Discloser consents;
- (ii) to ASIC, APRA, the Commissioner or a member of the AFP;
- (iii) to a lawyer for the purpose of obtaining legal advice or representation; or
- (iv) if the disclosure is allowed or required by law.

During the course of an investigation, the Company will take reasonable steps to reduce the risk of disclosing information that could identify the Discloser (including redacting all personal information or references to the Discloser, restricting the number of people involved in handling and investigating the disclosure and ensuring secure and confidential email communication in relation to the investigation). Note however, that in practice, people may be able to guess the Discloser's identity if the Discloser has mentioned their intention to make a disclosure; the Discloser is one of a very small number of people with access to the information; or the disclosure relates to information that a Discloser has previously been told privately and in confidence.

Unauthorised disclosure of:

- (i) the identity of a Discloser who has made a report of a Reportable Matter; or
- (ii) information from which the identity of the Discloser could be inferred, may be an offence under Australian law, will be regarded as a disciplinary matter and will be dealt with in accordance with the Company's disciplinary procedures.

A Discloser may lodge a complaint about a breach of confidentiality with the Company or a regulator.

(b) Protection from detriment for Disclosers

A Discloser who makes a report under this Whistleblower Policy shall not suffer detriment (either actual or threatened). Examples of actual or threatened detriment include:

- (i) harassment, intimidation, victimisation, bias or discrimination;
- (ii) dismissal of an employee or varying an employee's position or duties;
- (iii) causing physical or psychological harm or injury; or
- (iv) damage to a person's property, reputation, business or financial position or any other damage.

Certain actions will not constitute detrimental conduct such as:

- (i) administrative action that is reasonable for the purpose of protecting a Discloser from detriment (eg moving a Discloser who has made a disclosure about their immediate work area to another area to prevent them from detriment); and
- (ii) managing a Discloser's unsatisfactory work performance, if the action is in line with the Company's performance management framework.

The Company will take all steps to protect Disclosers from any form of detrimental treatment and may ensure that a risk assessment is carried out to determine the risk of detriment.

Anyone who retaliates against someone who has reported a possible violation may be subject to discipline by the Company or penalties under the Corporations Act, Taxation Act or other Australian law.

Anyone who is subjected to detriment as a result of making a report under this Whistleblower Policy should report it in accordance with clause 6.2.

A Discloser (or any other employee or person) can seek compensation or other remedies through the courts if:

- (i) they suffer loss, damage or injury because of a disclosure; and

- (ii) the Company failed to prevent a person from causing the detriment.

A Discloser may seek independent legal advice or contact a regulatory body if they believe they have suffered detriment.

(c) Other protections available to Disclosers

Additional protections will be offered by the Company depending on the Reportable Matter and the people involved. Protections may include but are not limited to:

- (i) monitoring and managing behaviour of other employees;
- (ii) offering support services (including counselling or other professional or legal services);
- (iii) implementing strategies to help minimise and manage stress; time or performance impacts; or other challenges resulting from the disclosure or the investigation;
- (iv) offering a leave of absence or flexible workplace arrangements during the course of an investigation; or
- (v) rectifying any detriment suffered.

In addition, current and former employees may also request additional support from the Whistleblower Protection Officer if required.

Whilst the Company will endeavour to support all Disclosers, it will not be able to provide the same sort of practical support to each Discloser. Therefore, the processes in this Whistleblower Policy will be adapted and applied to the extent reasonably possible.

(d) Fair treatment of those mentioned in a disclosure

The Company will ensure fair treatment of officers and employees of the Company who are mentioned in any disclosure, and to whom any disclosures relate. The disclosure will be handled confidentially and will be assessed and may be subject to investigation. If an investigation is required, it will be conducted in an objective, fair and independent manner. Such employees will be advised of the subject matter of the disclosure at the appropriate time and as required by law and will be advised of the outcome of the investigation. An employee who is the subject of a disclosure may contact the Company's support services.

(e) Files and Records

The Company will ensure that any records relating to any reports made under this Whistleblower Policy are stored securely and only accessed by authorised personnel directly involved in managing and investigating the report. All those involved in handling and investigating reports will be reminded about confidentiality requirements including that an unauthorised disclosure of a Discloser's identity may be a criminal offence.

(f) Special legal protections under the Corporations Act and the Taxation Act

Whilst this Whistleblower Policy deals with internal disclosures of information, additional legal protections are available for certain Disclosers under the Corporations Act and the Taxation Act provided the disclosure is about a “disclosable matter” or “tax affair” as defined under such legislation and certain conditions are met. These are summarised in Annexures 1 and 2 respectively. Disclosures that are not about “disclosable matters” or “tax affairs” will not qualify for protection under the Corporations Act or Taxation Act. For more information, see the information available on the ASIC website and the ATO website.

7. Monitoring and Review

- (a) Material incidences reported under this Whistleblower Policy will be reported to the Board or a committee of the Board.
- (b) The Board will monitor the content, effectiveness and implementation of this Whistleblower Policy on a regular basis. There may also be independent reviews taken from time to time. Any findings, updates or improvements identified will be addressed as soon as possible and circulated to all officers and employees
- (c) Officers and employees are invited to comment on this Whistleblower Policy and suggest ways in which it might be improved. Comments, suggestions and queries should be addressed to the Board.

ANNEXURE 1 – SUMMARY OF PROTECTIONS UNDER THE CORPORATIONS ACT

The Corporations Act sets out disclosures that are protected under the Corporations Act if certain conditions are met as well as the protections available to protected disclosures. A summary of such protections (as at the date of this policy) is set out below but you should refer to the Corporations Act itself for a full understanding of the conditions and protections available and the relevant definitions. You can also visit the ASIC website for more information.

1. PROTECTED DISCLOSURES

Disclosures will be protected if:

- (b) the discloser is an Eligible Whistleblower, being an individual who is, or has been, any of the following:
  - (i) an officer or employee of the Company (eg current and former employees who are permanent, part-time, fixed-term or temporary, interns, secondees, managers and directors);
  - (ii) an individual who supplies services or goods to the Company (whether paid or unpaid) or an employee of a person that supplies goods or services to the Company (eg current and former contractors, consultants, service providers and business partners);
  - (iii) an associate of the Company;
  - (iv) a relative, dependant or dependant of the spouse of any individual referred to at (i) to (iii) above; or
  - (v) any prescribed individual under the Corporations Act;
- (b) and the disclosure is made to:
  - (i) the ASIC, APRA or a prescribed Commonwealth authority; or
  - (ii) an Eligible Recipient, being:
    - (A) an officer or senior manager of the Company or a related body corporate of the Company;
    - (B) an auditor (or a member of the audit team) of the Company or a related body corporate of the Company;
    - (C) an actuary of the Company or a related body corporate of the Company;
    - (D) a person authorised by the Company to receive disclosures that qualify for protection under the Corporations Act;
    - (E) anyone prescribed under the regulations as being an eligible recipient; or
  - (iii) a legal practitioner for the purposes of obtaining legal advice or legal representation in relation to the whistleblower provisions in the Corporations Act (even in the event such legal practitioner concludes that a disclosure does not relate to a disclosable matter under the Corporations Act);
- (c) and the disclosure relates to a Disclosable Matter in that the discloser has reasonable grounds to suspect that the information concerns misconduct, or an improper state of affairs or circumstances in relation to the Company or a related body corporate of the Company. This includes any suspicion that the Company or its body corporate, or an officer or employee of the Company or its body corporate has engaged in conduct that:
  - (i) constitutes an offence against, or a contravention of, a provision of the Corporations Act, the Australian Securities Investments Commission Act 2001, the Banking Act 1959, the Financial Sector (Collection of Data) Act 2001, the Insurance Act 1973, the Life Insurance Act 1995, the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2009, the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993, or an instrument made under any such Act; or

- (ii) constitutes an offence against any other law of the Commonwealth of Australia that is punishable by imprisonment for a period of 12 months or more; or
- (iii) represents a danger to the public or the financial system; or
- (iv) is prescribed by regulation.

(Note that the term "misconduct" is defined in the Corporations Act to include fraud, negligence, default, breach of trust and breach of duty.)

(d) Public interest and Emergency Disclosures

Emergency or public interest disclosures (as defined under the Corporations Act) will also be protected if made to Journalists or Parliamentarians (each as defined in the Corporations Act) in extreme cases (excluding tax matters) in circumstances where at least 90 days have passed since an earlier protected disclosure has been made to ASIC, APRA or another Commonwealth body without reasonable steps having been taken to address the misconduct, or there will be substantial and imminent danger to someone's health or safety. Note that before such public interest disclosure is made, the discloser must have given written notice to the relevant regulatory body. Such notice must include sufficient information to identify the previous disclosure and must state that the discloser intends to make the public disclosure if appropriate steps are not taken.

Disclosers are advised to contact an independent legal adviser to ensure they understand the criteria for making an emergency or public interest disclosure that qualifies for protection.

(e) Personal work-related grievances

Personal work-related grievances (as defined in the Corporations Act) will not be protected to the extent that the information disclosed does not concern a contravention, or an alleged contravention, of the prohibition on victimisation under the Corporations Act that involves detriment caused to the discloser or a threat made to the discloser.

However, a personal work-related grievance will still qualify for protection if:

- (i) it includes information about misconduct, or information about misconduct includes or is accompanied by a personal work-related grievance (mixed report);
- (ii) the Company has breached employment or other laws punishable by imprisonment for a period of 12 months or more, engaged in conduct that represents a danger to the public, or the disclosure relates to information that suggests misconduct beyond the Discloser's personal circumstances;
- (iii) the Discloser suffers from or is threatened with detriment for making the disclosure; or
- (iv) the Discloser seeks legal advice or legal representation about the operation of the whistleblower protections under the Corporations Act.

2. PROTECTIONS AVAILABLE

(a) Protected disclosures will be given the following protections under the Corporations Act

Protected disclosures not actionable

- (i) the discloser will not be subject to any civil, criminal or administrative liability (including disciplinary action) for making the disclosure; and
- (ii) no contractual or other remedy may be enforced, and no contractual or other right may be exercised against the discloser on the basis of the disclosure; and
- (iii) if the disclosure qualified for protection under the Corporations Act (including public interest and emergency disclosure), the information is not admissible as evidence against the discloser in criminal proceedings for the imposition of a penalty, other than proceedings in respect of the falsity of the information;

Victimisation Prohibited

Anyone who causes or threatens to cause detriment (as defined in the Corporations Act) to a discloser or another person in the belief or suspicion that a report has been made, or may have been made, proposes to or could be made, may be guilty of an offence and may be liable for damages or subject to a court order. Examples of possible court orders include, but are not limited to:

- (i) requiring compensation for loss or damage;
- (ii) an injunction to prevent, stop or remedy the effects of detrimental conduct;
- (iii) an order requiring an apology for engaging in detrimental conduct;
- (iv) if the detrimental conduct wholly or partly resulted in the termination of an employee's employment, reinstatement of their position; and
- (v) any other order the court thinks appropriate.

Identifying information not to be disclosed

Subject to applicable laws:

- (i) a discloser's identity cannot be disclosed to a Court or tribunal except where considered necessary; and
- (ii) the person receiving the report commits an offence if they disclose the substance of the report or the discloser's identity, without the discloser's consent, to anyone except an authorised disclosure to ASIC, APRA, the AFP or a lawyer for the purposes of obtaining legal advice or representation in relation to the report.

Costs of proceedings

A discloser may not need to pay costs of legal proceedings unless they have acted vexatiously or without reasonable cause and the unreasonable act caused the other party to incur the costs.

(b) Confidentiality

In relation to a protected disclosure, the identity of a discloser (and any information likely to lead to the identification of a discloser) must be kept confidential unless expressly authorised in writing.

A disclosure of the discloser's identity will be authorised if made:

- (i) to ASIC, APRA or a member of the AFP;
- (ii) to a legal practitioner for the purposes of obtaining legal advice or legal representation in relation to the whistleblower provisions in the Corporations Act;
- (iii) to a person prescribed by the regulations of the Corporations Act for this purpose;
- (iv) with the express written consent of the discloser; or
- (v) by ASIC, APRA or a member of the AFP to a Commonwealth or State or Territory authority for the purpose of assisting the authority in the performance of its functions or duties.

However, such confidentiality does not apply where the disclosure is not of the identity of the discloser and is reasonably necessary for the purposes of investigating a matter and all reasonable steps have been taken to reduce the risk that the discloser will be identified.

(c) Timing

A discloser will qualify for protection from the time they make their disclosure, regardless of whether, at this time, the discloser or recipient recognises that the disclosure qualifies for protection.

(d) No immunity from misconduct

Note that the protections do not grant immunity for any misconduct a discloser has engaged in that is revealed in their disclosure.

The Company is committed to conducting all of its business activities fairly, honestly with integrity, and in compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations. Its Board, management and employees are dedicated to high ethical standards and recognise and support the Company's commitment to compliance with these standards.

In particular, the Company is committed to preventing any form of Corruption and Bribery and to upholding all laws relevant to these issues, including the Anti-Corruption Legislation. The context of any other political contributions is key in determining their appropriateness. For instance, it is permissible for the Company to make a payment to attend a political function in circumstances where such payment could not be construed as an attempt to influence the political party.

ANNEXURE A – DEFINITION OF INDEPENDENCE

Examples of interests, positions and relationships that might raise issues about the independence of a director include if the director:

- (a) is, or has been, employed in an executive capacity by the Company or any of its child entities and there has not been a period of at least three years between ceasing such employment and serving on the Board;
- (b) receives performance-based remuneration (including options or performance rights), or participates in an employee incentive scheme of the Company;
- (c) is, or has been within the last three years, in a material business relationship (eg as a supplier, professional adviser, consultant or customer) with the Company or any of its child entities, or is an officer of, or otherwise associated with, someone with such a relationship;
- (d) is, represents, or is or has been within the last three years an officer or employee of, or professional adviser to, a substantial holder of the Company;
- (e) has close personal ties with any person who falls within any of the categories described above; or
- (f) has been a director of the Company for such a period that their independence from management and substantial holders may have been compromised.

In each case, the materiality of the interest, position or relationship needs to be assessed by the Board to determine whether it might interfere, or might reasonably be seen to interfere, with the director's capacity to bring an independent judgement to bear on issues before the Board and to act in the best interests of the Company as a whole rather than in the interests of an individual shareholder or other party.
