PAVILLON DE LA REINE

*For Parisians at heart everywhere,
a hotel in the heart of Paris*

The Pavillon de la Reine Hotel & Spa is owned and run by the Chevalier family, who also own Pavillon des Lettres, Le Pavillon du Faubourg Saint-Germain and Hotel du Petit Moulin. The hotel has 56 individually designed rooms and suites, with all the charm, sophistication and elegance of a grand palace. This is a haven in the heart of the Marais, set back from the Place des Vosges, the oldest square in Paris: the ivy-covered building is set behind a private courtyard garden awash with roses.

The Marais is lively and trendy, and full of wonderful boutiques, galleries, fascinating museums, atmospheric cafés and restaurants.

The hotel is a quiet, sophisticated hideaway – private, comfortable and deeply luxurious.

LA SUITE DE LA REINE

*All the charm and elegance
of an Hotel Particulier*

Suite de la Reine is Pavillon de la Reine's most spacious suite, spanning 860 square feet. Set at the corner of the building, the suite has large double aspect windows and a spectacular high ceiling which flood the suite with plenty of bright Parisian light. Suite de la Reine is characterised by exquisite design details: original 17th century Versailles parquet flooring, a handcrafted chandelier specially commissioned from Alexandre Logé and touches of gold. An antique fireplace dating from the 17th century, typical of Le Marais, gives a nod to the history of the area. Antique touches are deftly combined with contemporary furnishings by designer Didier Benderli. The marble bathroom has a neutral colour palette with mustard yellow highlights as well as underfloor heating - bringing the suite up to date with a deeply luxurious feel. A separate dressing room and an open shower in the bedroom add a touch of further decadence. Suite de la Reine: all the charm and elegance of an Hotel Particulier - with all the understated sophistication of a private home. More than simply a Suite - a Parisian home away from home.

Bed: king size (or twin beds on request)	Dressing area
Occupancy: up to 4 adults (open sofa bed on request)	Nespresso machine and complimentary mini bar
Views: city view on a quiet street of Le Marais and our private Japanese garden, 2nd floor	Flat screen mirror televisions
