

Working together to accelerate what's next.

Change is a continuous opportunity for growth. With IPL, you can learn how to create positive organizational shifts that lead to long-term success.

The IPL Advantage

If you're looking for an atypical consulting firm, you've come to the right place. Our expertise is robust. Everyone on the IPL team has served as a global leader and knows what it takes to make lasting change happen within a dynamic organizational environment.

What makes us special? Our approach combines research-based diagnostic, design, and delivery methods with the art of configuring everything we do to our clients' unique needs. Just ask our clients about our effectiveness. Since 2019, 95 percent of them have hired us for multiple projects.

Is IPL Right for You?

You invest in talent as a strategic business priority. You strive to proactively drive change and stay committed to your core values. And you would value a trusted consultant whose guidance could help you target strategic business shifts. If this sounds like you, consider IPL as a partner.

Experts Committed to Your Success

At Inflection Point Leadership, our mission is to establish sustainable growth for organizations, so their people can thrive today and help shape a more successful tomorrow. Founded by Kristy Braden and Brad Smith in January 2019, IPL was born out of a desire to help business leaders navigate and capitalize on the opportunities and obstacles they experience on a daily basis.

To create the IPL team, we've pooled the collective expertise of former HR leaders who are dedicated to helping organizations turn challenging inflection points into successful realities.

Our Services

Equip your organization to make positive shifts happen with our advisory, assessment, design, and delivery services.

Making Shift Happen

Identify the next major inflection point for your organization and determine how equipped your leaders are to navigate change with help from IPL.

Leading What's Next, Together

Align your teams around the organization's purpose and goals and identify what actions you need to take build a path forward with insights from us.

Growing What's Next Leaders

We help you conduct assessments, create development programs, and sustain a pipeline of top talent that will help you continuously evolve.

Need help with your leadership team? Let's talk!

Email: Kristy@InflectionPointLeadership.com or Brad@InflectionPointLeadership.com

inflectionpointleadership.com