

Being a Christian Steward in the 21st Century

In this three-week series, we will examine what it means to be a Christian Steward today. We will begin by looking at the term steward in Biblical times. Each week we will try to discern what God is saying to us about being a steward. Through our discussions we will explore the many aspects of being a steward of creation, of our time, of our God-given talents, of the material gifts God entrusts to us and of all that is.

ALL: ... and in thanksgiving for the many blessings we have received.

(pause)

PRESIDER: We offer not only the "first fruits" of our financial resources...

ALL: ... but a generous portion of our time and talents as well.

(pause)

PRESIDER: Giving proportionately means it is equal for all of us

ALL: ...according to what You have given us. You ask the same of each of us.

"The Lord God then took the man and settled him in the garden of Eden to cultivate and care for it."

- Genesis 2:15

ALL: Lord, help me to do all that you ask, in the way that you ask, for as long as you ask, simply because you have asked it of me.

(pause)

- Romans 12:4-6

ALL: Lord, help me to do all that you ask, in the way that you ask, for as long as you ask, simply because you have asked it of me.

ALL: Lord, help me to do all that you ask, in the way that you ask, for as long as you ask, simply because you have asked it of me.

Colossians 3:12-17

As God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, meekness, and patience. Bear with one another and, if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other; just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you also must forgive. Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony. And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in the one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

NRSV

What word, phrase, idea stands out for you?

Therefore, as God's chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with each other and forgive whatever grievances you may have against one another. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity. Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom, and as you sing psalms, hymns and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

NIV

What is God saying to you?

So, chosen by God for this new life of love, dress in the wardrobe God picked out for you: compassion, kindness, humility, quiet strength, discipline. Be even-tempered, content with second place, quick to forgive an offense. Forgive as quickly and completely as the Master forgave you. And regardless of what else you put on, wear love. It's your basic, all-purpose garment. Never be without it.

Let the peace of Christ keep you in tune with each other, in step with each other. None of this going off and doing your own thing. And cultivate thankfulness. Let the Word of Christ—the Message—have the run of the house. Give it plenty of room in your lives. Instruct and direct one another using good common sense. And sing, sing your hearts out to God! Let every detail in your lives—words, actions, whatever—be done in the name of the Master, Jesus, thanking God the Father every step of the way.

The Message

What is God calling you to do?

Money Reflection Questions

What is your earliest memory about money?

What was your earliest instruction about money?

Was money discussed in your family of origin? How so?

Do you lean towards sharing, saving or spending money?

What is your earliest memory of giving money away?

What is your giving practice now?

What messages do you give your children (grandchildren, nieces, nephews) about a Christian's relationship to money?

TELLING THE STORY OF YOUR STEWARDSHIP/SPIRITUAL JOURNEY

The gift of one's story is one of the most precious gifts that one person of faith can give to another. What is your story? Consider writing a personal stewardship statement by completing the following sentences:

I believe ...

[What do you believe about stewardship?]

I commit ...

[How do you strive to be the faithful, loving, generous steward God created you to be?]

I invite ...

[How does this enrich your spiritual life? What would you say to others as an invitation for them to join you in this spiritual journey?]

Remember that your witness is precious in the sight of God –just as you are.
