

Mentor Guide: Program Week 10

The Promises of God- Trey Green

Trey Green talks about the promises that God makes to us, and how we can stand on those promises as we seek to do His will on the earth. (You are not required to watch the videos, but here is a link if you are interested.)

Process questions:

1. Summarize this teaching in your own words.
2. How can you know what God has spoken to you?
3. What can you do to stand on the words that God has spoken to you?
4. What can you expect from God as you stand on His words? What can you expect from your circumstances as you stand on God's word?

Possible Activity: Ask the one you are mentoring to bring a list of 3 promises that they are holding on to about their future. Spend time praying together from the promises, thanking God for the promise and that it is already completed in the Heavens. You can do it like fire tunnel or in small groups, depending on your time and the number.

Relate—Accountability & Evaluation

Summary of the lesson

- Accountability & Evaluation are not biblical words. They are biblical concepts. Both are about being effective and fulfilling God’s calling; neither reflects on your value as a person.
- As believers, we are all called to be more like Jesus day by day and to do the works of the Kingdom of God.
- Accountability and evaluation enable us to experience the support of the Body of Christ as we pursue consistent excellence in our lives and projects.
- Accountability calls us to integrity - living congruently in our intentions, thoughts, words and actions.
- Evaluation is the means by which we pause, take a look at how things have been going and determine if we are aligned with His trajectory.
- Evaluation ensures that we are hitting the desired target by reviewing progress toward accomplishing stated outcomes and fulfilling our roles and responsibilities.
- In a John 1:17 culture characterized by Jesus (grace and truth), we can offer one another feedback without creating an environment of performance or fear.

a. How to mentor an Individual

- i. What is one thing you want to change in your life (or do in your life) that you need/want to be held accountable for? (ex: exercise, eating right, prayer, etc.,.)
Who can hold you accountable in that area?
- ii. How do you do receiving feedback?
- iii. Are there any on the spot areas of feedback we want to give or receive?
- iv. In the next conversation with your team leader, ask about how their team operates with feedback (is it on the fly, is it in a formal “review,” does it not happen, etc).

b. How to mentor a Group

- i. Same as above – discussion
- ii. Is there anyone in this group that you have feedback for?
