15. Location. The head office of Biathlon Canada shall be located in the Province of Alberta, Canada, at the place therein where the business of Biathlon Canada may from time to time be carried on.

16. Other Offices. Biathlon Canada may establish such other offices and agencies elsewhere within Canada as the Board of Directors may deem expedient by resolution.

DIRECTORS

17. The Board of Directors. The property and business of Biathlon Canada shall be managed by a Board of Directors, hereinafter referred to as the Board, comprised of Registered Participants of Biathlon Canada, of whom a majority shall constitute a quorum. A majority of votes cast upon a motion shall be binding at each meeting. Subject to the Articles of Continuance, the Board shall consist of the number of Registered Participants elected at General Meeting within the minimum and maximum number of Directors specified in the Articles of Continuance. Board members cannot serve as President, Vice President, Secretary or Treasurer of Divisions who are Members while sitting on the Board of Biathlon Canada. In advancement of gender balance on the Board, while ensuring the prevailing criterion for election is eligibility, ability and professional performance, the Board shall be constituted in a manner such that no one gender accounts for more than 60% of the total number of Directors.

18. Chair of the Board of Directors. A Chair of the Board of Directors (Chair) shall be elected by the Members from among the elected Directors at the Annual Meeting, to hold such position until the end of their current term in office. The Chair is subject to re-election up to the term limit in Article 20. The Chair shall be charged with overseeing the administration and management of all Board matters and shall preside at all Board meetings. With the concurrence of at least three other Board members, the Chair may call Board meetings. No such constraint shall apply to the Board meeting held in conjunction with the Annual Meeting. Upon the written request of a simple majority of the members of the Board, the Chair shall call a Board meeting within sixty days of receipt of such notice. The Chair shall be empowered to invite such members of Biathlon Canada, or other persons, as they deem advisable to any meeting of the Board.

19. Election of Directors. The Nominating Committee will provide the Members with a list of nominated Registered Participants twenty-one (21) days prior the General Meeting. At the General Meeting, the Chair of the Meeting may accept other Board nominations providing they meet the criteria of Board membership. The Members will vote at the Annual Meeting for the number of nominated Registered Participants equal to the total number of directors to comprise the Board less the number of Directors elected at the previous Annual Meeting whose term continues following the Annual Meeting, using the procedures set out in Articles 40, 41, 42, 44 and 46 to serve a two-year term as Director. The top vote getters will be Directors and form the Board until their two-year term is complete.

20. Term of Office. Subject to the Articles of Continuance, Director's terms will be two years with the exception of the first Board elected under these revised Bylaws which will have 3 Board members elected for one and a half year terms and 4 Board members with two and half year terms. Directors appointed by the Board in accordance with the Articles of Continuance shall have a term expiring no later than the close of the next Annual Meeting. No Director can serve more than 3 consecutive terms.

21. Board Authority. The Directors may exercise all such powers of Biathlon Canada as are not, by the Canada Not-for-profit Corporations Act or by these Bylaws, required to be exercised by the Members at meetings, including but not limited to the following:

- a. to carry on the business of Biathlon Canada in accordance with direction from the members at the Annual Meeting of Biathlon Canada;
- b. to make, vary, or repeal regulations for carrying out the objects of Biathlon Canada;
- c. to delegate to the Biathlon Canada staff such powers of the Board as the Board deems appropriate from time to time;

- d. to form such Committees as it may deem necessary to promote any object of Biathlon Canada;
- e. to establish such offices, appoint such agents and engage such employees as it shall deem necessary from time to time to assist with the pursuit of the objects of Biathlon Canada, and such persons shall have such authority and shall perform such duties as shall be prescribed by the Board; and
- f. to establish the nature, extent and geographical boundaries of the Divisions.

22. Expenditures and Investment Accounts. The Directors shall have power to authorize expenditures on behalf of Biathlon Canada from time to time and may delegate by resolution to an officer or officers of Biathlon Canada the right to employ and pay salaries to employees. The Directors shall have the power to make expenditures for the purpose of furthering the objects of Biathlon Canada. The Directors shall have the power to enter into trust arrangements with Trust companies for the purpose of creating trust funds from which the capital and interest may be made available for the benefit of Biathlon in Canada in accordance with such terms and conditions as the Board may prescribe.

23. Remuneration. Directors, as such, shall not receive any remuneration for their services although expenses or any portion thereof may be paid or reimbursed for their attendance at meetings.

24. Donations. The Board shall take such steps as they shall deem requisite to enable Biathlon Canada to receive donations and benefits for the purpose of furthering the objects of Biathlon Canada.

OFFICERS

25. The Chair of the Board of Directors (Chair) and the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) are the two officers of Biathlon Canada. The Chair and the CEO will be assigned their duties in writing by the Board and these duties will be reviewed at least annually by the Board.

a. The Chair is elected by the Members in accordance with Article 18 and shall preside at meetings of the Members and at meetings of the Board of Directors and represent Biathlon Canada at national or international meetings. The Chair shall appoint another Director to preside at such meetings in the Chair's absence.

b. The CEO is the most senior employee of Biathlon Canada and is responsible to the Board of Directors for the management and operations of the organization.
