LIMITLESS FAITH HEALS

Mark 5:21-43

²¹ And when Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered about him, and he was beside the sea. ²² Then came one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name, and seeing him, he fell at his feet ²³ and implored him earnestly, saying, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well and live." ²⁴ And he went with him.

And a great crowd followed him and thronged about him. ²⁵ And there was a woman who had had a discharge of blood for twelve years, ²⁶ and who had suffered much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was no better but rather grew worse. ²⁷ She had heard the reports about Jesus and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his garment. ²⁸ For she said, "If I touch even his garments, I will be made well."

²⁹ And immediately the flow of blood dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. ³⁰ And Jesus, perceiving in himself that power had gone out from him, immediately turned about in the crowd and said, "Who touched my garments?" ³¹ And his disciples said to him, "You see the crowd pressing around you, and yet you say, 'Who touched me?'"

³² And he looked around to see who had done it. ³³ But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling and fell down before him and told him the whole truth. ³⁴ And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease."

³⁵ While he was still speaking, there came from the ruler's house some who said, "Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Teacher any further?" ³⁶ But overhearing^[a] what they said, Jesus said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Do not fear, only believe." ³⁷ And he allowed no one to follow him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. ³⁸ They came to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and Jesus^[b] saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. ³⁹ And when he had entered, he said to them, "Why are you making a commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but sleeping."

⁴⁰ And they laughed at him. But he put them all outside and took the child's father and mother and those who were with him and went in where the child was.⁴¹ Taking her by the hand he said to her, "Talitha cumi," which means, "Little girl, I say to you, arise."

⁴² And immediately the girl got up and began walking (for she was twelve years of age), and they were immediately overcome with amazement. ⁴³ And he strictly charged them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

PERSONAL STUDY

Mark 5:21-43 and its parallel passages in the other Synoptic Gospels give us a front row seat to the faith of two people, Jairus and the sick woman. Write down any key words that describe the faith of each person:

The faith of Jairus	The faith of the sick Woman

1. A limitless faith trusts Jesus in the midst of seemingly hopeless circumstances. What circumstances seem hopeless to both Jairus and the woman? How did they display their trust in Jesus?
2. In Mark 5, Jairus has to wait for his daughter to receive her physical healing. What’s the longest you’ve been called to wait on the Lord? How has that waiting affected your faith in Him?
3. What actions did Jairus’ faith lead him to take? The woman? What does this teach us about limitless faith?
4. How is God calling you to a limitless faith this week?
5. What limitless prayer is God calling you to pray this week?

GROWTH GROUP

SHARE: GET TALKING

In Mark 5, Jairus has to wait for his daughter to be healed by Christ. In 90 seconds, share the worst “waiting in line” story you have and how you felt during your wait.

STUDY: GO DEEPER

1. What challenged you the most from the message or personal study this week?
2. In your personal study, what keywords did you find that described the faith of Jairus and the sick woman? How does their limitless faith in Christ inspire you?

SUPPORT: GROW TOGETHER

1. Is there an area of your life (physical, emotional, relational, other) where you need to pray for God's healing? Can the group pray for you right now?
2. How is God calling you to a limitless faith this week?
3. What is your limitless prayer this week?
