Further, Gemini will apply due diligence to customer accounts to guard against their indirect use by said entities. If Gemini determines an account holder is in violation of the aforementioned regulations, Gemini will take all appropriate steps to prevent such indirect access, including, where necessary, immediate termination of the account(s) in question.

Notice to all customers regarding regulation GG Notification for Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act (UIGEA) of 2006

The Unlawful Internet Gambling Enforcement Act (UIGEA) of 2006 prohibits any person engaged in the business of betting or wagering, as defined in the Act, from knowingly accepting payments in connection with the participation of another person in unlawful Internet gambling. The Department of the Treasury and the Federal Reserve Board have issued a joint final rule, Regulation GG, to implement this Act.

As defined in Reg GG, unlawful Internet gambling means to staking or risking by any person of something of value upon the outcome of a contest of others, a sporting event, or a game subject to chance, upon an agreement or understanding that the person or another person will receive something of value in the event of a certain outcome and includes the purchase of a chance or opportunity to win a lottery or other prize (which opportunity to win is predominantly subject to chance), any scheme of a type described in 28 U.S.C. 3702, any instructions or information pertaining to the establishment or movement of funds by the bettor or customer in, to, or from an account with the business of betting or wagering which involves the use, at least in part, of the Internet where such a bet or wager is unlawful under any applicable Federal or State law or tribal lands in which the bet or wager is initiated, received or otherwise made.

Internet gambling transactions restricted under this rule are prohibited from being processed through any Gemini account. At present, Gemini will not open accounts for customers engaged in any Internet gambling business, including legal Internet gambling businesses.
