25. No interference with proper ASX Settlement transfer

The Company must not in any way prevent, delay or interfere with the generation or registration of a proper ASX Settlement transfer or the registration of a paper-based transfer in registrable form (which satisfies the requirements of clauses 48-54), except as permitted by clause 51, the Listing Rules or ASX Settlement Business Rules.

Lien

26. Lien

- (a) The Company has a first and paramount lien on every Share for:
 - (i) unpaid calls and instalments on those Shares;
 - (ii) if the Shares were acquired under an employee incentive scheme, any amount owing to the Company for acquiring those Shares; and
 - (iii) any amount the Company is required by law to pay (and has paid) in respect of the Share of a Member or deceased Member.

- (b) A lien extends to reasonable interest at any rates the Directors may determine, and expenses incurred because the amount is not paid.

27. Extent of lien

The Company's lien (if any) on a Share extends to all dividends, bonuses and other monies payable for the Share including the proceeds of sale of the Share, and the Company may deduct or set-off against any dividends, bonuses or other monies, any monies due and payable to the Company.

28. Exemption from lien

The Directors may at any time declare any Share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of clauses 27 and 28.

29. Sale under lien

The Company may sell any Shares on which the Company has a lien in any manner the Directors think fit provided that no sale may be made:

- (a) unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable; and
- (b) until the expiration of 30 days after a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of the amount which is presently payable, has been given to the registered holder of the Shares or the person entitled to the Shares because of the death or bankruptcy of the registered holder.

30. Proceeds of sale of Shares sold under lien

The net proceeds of the sale of Shares sold under lien (after payment of all costs and expenses incurred in selling the Shares) will be received by the Company and applied in payment of that part of the amount for which the lien exists and which is presently payable and any interest on that amount, and the balance (if any) is to be paid to the person registered as the holder of the Shares immediately before the Shares were sold.

31. Transfer on sale under lien

- (a) The Company may do all things necessary to give effect to a sale of Shares on which the Company has a lien, including authorising a Director or any other person to:
 - (i) execute a transfer of the Shares sold in favour of the purchaser of the Shares; and
 - (ii) do all acts and things as are necessary or desirable under the Act, the Listing Rules or ASX Settlement Business Rules to effect a transfer of the Shares sold in favour of the purchaser of the Shares.
- (b) The purchaser is to be registered as the holder of the Shares transferred, and is not bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor will the purchaser's title to the Shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in connection with the sale.

Calls

32. Directors may make calls

The Directors may make calls as they think fit on the Members for all monies unpaid on the Shares held by the Members that are not monies made payable at fixed times by the conditions of allotment. A call will be deemed to have been made when the Resolution of the Directors authorising that call was passed and may be made payable by instalments. The Directors may revoke or postpone a call.

33. Notice of calls

The Company must give written notice of a call at least 30 business days before the call is due. The notice must specify the time and place for payment and any other information required by the Listing Rules. The non-receipt of any notice by, or the accidental omission to give notice of any call to, any Member will not invalidate the call.

34. Difference in terms of issue as to calls

The Directors may, on the issue of Shares, differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the time for payment of those calls.

35. Fixed payments deemed calls

Any sum which, by the terms of issue of a Share, becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, will for the purposes of this Constitution be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which the sum is payable. In case of non-payment, all the relevant provisions of this Constitution as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise will apply as if the sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

36. Interest on sums not paid

If a sum called in respect of a Share is not paid on or before the date for payment, then that sum will bear interest from the date for payment to the time of actual payment at any rates as the Directors may determine. The Directors may waive payment of interest, either in whole or in part.

37. Payment of calls

Each Member must pay the amount of every call made on it at the times and places appointed by the Directors.

38. Proof of calls

In any proceeding for the recovery of monies due for any call, it is sufficient and conclusive evidence of the debt if it is proved that:

- (a) the name of the Member sued is entered in the Register as the holder or 1 of the holders of the Shares in respect of which the call was made;

- (b) the Resolution making the call was recorded in the minute book; and
- (c) notice of the call was given to the Member sued in accordance with this Constitution.

39. Prepayment of calls

The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any Member willing to advance it, all or any part of the amount unpaid upon the Shares held by it beyond the sums actually called up. The Directors may then either:

- (a) if the Member so requests, make a call on the Member for the amount advanced, pro rata in respect of all Shares held by that Member on which monies remain unpaid or on any other basis as agreed between that Member and the Directors; or
- (b) authorise payment by the Company of interest on the whole or any part of the amount so received until the amount becomes due or is repaid at the rate agreed between the Member paying the sum in advance and the Directors. The Directors may at any time authorise repayment of the whole or any part of the amount paid in advance upon giving to the Member 1 Months' notice of the date for repayment.

Forfeiture of Shares

40. Forfeiture upon non-payment of calls

Unless the Directors otherwise determine, any Share upon which a call is unpaid at the expiration of 14 days after the day for its payment will be absolutely forfeited without any Resolution of the Directors or other proceeding. Subject to the Act and the Listing Rules, the Directors may then proceed to cancel or sell the forfeited Shares.

41. Evidence of forfeiture

42. Effect of forfeiture

Upon forfeiture of a Share:

- (a) the person whose Share is forfeited will cease to be a Member in respect of the forfeited Share;
- (b) that person will lose all entitlements to dividends declared in respect of the forfeited Share and not actually paid; and

- (c) that person remains liable to pay to the Company all money which, at the date of forfeiture, was payable by it to the Company in respect of the forfeited Share together with interest on that amount from the date of forfeiture until payment at the rate determined by the Directors. The Directors are under no obligation to enforce payment.

 - (i) execute a transfer of the Shares sold in favour of the purchaser of the Shares; and
 - (ii) do all acts and things as are necessary or desirable under the Act, the Listing Rules or ASX Settlement Business Rules, to effect a transfer and to enable the forfeited Shares to be disposed of.

44. Proceeds of sale

The proceeds of sale of any forfeited Shares received by the Company must be applied in payment of:

- (a) first, the expenses of the sale;
- (b) second, any expenses necessarily incurred in connection with the forfeiture, including any interest accrued;
- (c) third, the calls then due and unpaid; and
- (d) the balance (if any) must be paid to the Member whose Shares have been sold within 5 business days of receipt by the Company of the proceeds of sale.

45. Redemption of forfeited Shares

A Share belonging to a person which has been forfeited may be redeemed at any time up to, but not including, the day on which the Share is intended to be sold, by payment to the Company of all calls due on the Share and any other costs and expenses which may be permitted by the Act and the Listing Rules, and on payment the person is entitled to the Share as if the forfeiture had not occurred.

The Directors may accept the surrender of any Share which they are entitled to forfeit on any terms they think fit and any Share so surrendered may be disposed of in the same manner as a forfeited Share.

Transfer of Shares

56. Election as to registration on transmission

If the person becoming entitled to a Share, elects to be registered itself, it must deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by it stating that it so elects. If the person becoming entitled to a Share, elects to have another person registered, it must effect a transfer of the Share in favour of that person. 100. Chair of general meeting

The chair of the Directors, or, in the chair's absence, the deputy chair (if any) will be entitled to take the chair at every general meeting. vote and the Act, the Listing Rules or this Constitution require that no account be taken of the vote, in which case the Resolution is not passed.

106. Method of voting

- (a) Subject to clause 107(b), every Resolution submitted to the meeting, in the first instance, will be determined by a show of hands unless a poll is demanded in accordance with clause 108 or the Act either before or on the declaration of the result of the vote on a show of hands.
- (b) Every Resolution submitted to the meeting held at a virtual place using virtual meeting technology, and, if the meeting is to be held in 2 or more virtual places using virtual meeting technology, will be determined by a poll, unless the chair of the meeting decides that it will be determined on a show of hands.
- (c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Constitution, and subject to the Act, the Directors may decide, for any general meeting, to allow any Member who is entitled to attend and vote on a Resolution at that general meeting, to allow that Member to vote on that Resolution by direct voting.

- (a) the chair;
- (b) at least 5 Members present in person or by attorney or proxy or by representative; or

108. Conduct of poll

The chair will decide in each case the manner in which a poll is taken, but in all cases it must ascertain the number of votes attaching to Shares held or represented by persons voting in favour of a Resolution or Special Resolution and the number of votes attaching to Shares held or represented by persons voting against the Resolution. Any dispute as to the admission or rejection of a vote will be determined by the chair and that determination made in good faith will be final and conclusive.

- (b) on a poll every Member (including each holder of preference Shares who has a right to vote) present in person or by proxy, attorney or representative will have 1 vote for each fully paid Share held by that Member and a fraction of a vote for each partly paid Share, equivalent to the proportion which the amount paid (not credited) is of the total amounts paid and payable (excluding amounts credited) for that Share, ignoring any amounts paid in advance of a call.

110. Voting if call unpaid on Shares

A Member will not be entitled to vote at any general meeting in respect of Shares held by the Member for which calls or other monies are due and payable to the Company at the time of the meeting. Subject to any restrictions affecting the right of any Member or class of Members to attend any meeting, a Member holding any Shares upon which no calls or other monies are due and payable to the Company is entitled to receive notices and to attend any general meeting and to vote and be reckoned in a quorum despite that monies are then due and payable to the Company by that Member in respect of other Shares held by that Member. Upon a poll, a Member will only be entitled to vote in respect of Shares held by the Member upon which no calls or other monies are due and payable to the Company at the time of the meeting.

111. Voting by joint holders

Where there are joint holders of any Share, any joint holder may vote at any meeting either personally or by proxy or attorney or representative in respect of the Shares as if they were solely entitled to those Shares, but if more than 1 joint holder is present at any meeting (whether personally, by proxy or by attorney or by representative) and tenders a vote, only the vote of the joint holder whose name appears first on the register will be counted. Several legal personal representatives of a deceased Member will for the purpose of this clause be deemed to be joint holders of the Shares registered in the name of that Member.

112. Voting by transmittee

A person entitled to transmission of a Share under clauses 48-54 who, at least 48 hours before the time notified for a general meeting (or an adjourned meeting), satisfies the Board of its right to that Share, may vote at that general meeting in respect of that Share as if the person were registered as the holder of the Share.

5.1 Entitlement to Dividends

Each “A” Class Share is entitled to receive the Preferred Return Dividend as a priority to any dividend paid on Ordinary shares or on any other class of shares until the Preferred Return is paid in full to the holders of “A” Class Shares. The following applies to the Preferred Return Dividend:

- (a) for the avoidance of doubt, holders of Ordinary shares and other classes of Shares, if applicable, will not be entitled to any payment of dividends announced by the Company until and unless the holders of “A” Class Shares have received an amount equal to the Preferred Return (whether paid by dividends or in the form of returns of capital);
- (b) dividends paid by the Company from year to year will be accumulated and count as payment in part or in full towards the Preferred Return;
- (c) The entitlement of “A” Class Shares to receive the Preferred Return Dividend will be deemed satisfied when the aggregate of all payments made from year to year by the Company on account of dividends or returns of capital have resulted in the Preferred Return being paid in full.

5.2 Payment to Ordinary Shares and Catch-Up Return

- (a) Following payment of the Preferred Return to the holders of “A” Class Shares, when the Board announces dividends for the year, such dividends will be paid solely to holders of Ordinary shares until such time the Catch-Up Return is paid in full to the holders of Ordinary shares.
- (b) The entitlement of the holders of the Ordinary shares to receive priority dividends under clause 5.2(a) will be deemed satisfied when the accumulated payments made from year to year by the Company on account of dividends or returns of capital have resulted in the Catch-Up Return being paid in full.

5.3 Surplus

Following payments made in accordance with clauses 5.1 and 5.2, the holders of “A” Class Shares and holders of Ordinary shares will share pro rata in the further payment of any dividends announced after that time.

5.4 Board has control of dividend and capital management policies

For the avoidance of doubt, the Board of the Company decides and controls dividend and capital management policies including the announcement of dividends (if any).

6. Winding Up

6.1 Ranking in a Winding Up

In respect of the payment or distribution of the capital of the Company available to members in a winding up of the Company, “A” Class Shares rank:

- (a) in priority to the claims of the holders of Ordinary shares and other classes of shares, if applicable; and
- (b) equally and without any preference amongst themselves.

6.2 Payment to “A” Class Shares in a Winding Up

In respect of the amount available to be paid to shareholders on a winding up of the Company, the holders of the “A” Class Shares will be paid an amount equal to the lesser of:

- (a) the Winding Up Preferred Return (unless the amount calculated as the Winding Up Preferred Return is zero, in which case the holders of all “A” Class Shares will be paid a total sum of $100); or
 - (b) the amount available to shareholders in the winding up;
- in priority to the payment of any amount to the holders of the Ordinary shares or any other class of shares.

6.3 Payment to Ordinary shares in a Winding Up

Following the payment of the Winding Up Preferred Return in full in accordance with the requirements of Clause 6.2, the holders of Ordinary shares will then be paid an amount equal to the lesser of:

- (a) the Winding Up Catch-Up Return; or
- (b) the remaining amounts available to shareholders in the winding up.

6.4 Payment to other classes shares in a Winding Up

Subject to payment made in accordance with Clauses 6.2 and 6.3, any surplus amount available to be paid to shareholders on a winding up of the Company, will then be applied to pay to the holders of any other classes of shares in the Company an amount equal to their paid-up capital.

6.5 Rights to Surplus on Winding Up

Subject to payment made in accordance with Clauses 6.2, 6.3 and 6.4, each “A” Class Share confers upon its Holder the right to participate pro rata with holders of Ordinary shares and the holders of other classes of shares, if applicable, in the surplus assets or profits of the Company (if any) available for distribution after distribution and payments made in accordance with clauses 6.2, 6.3 and 6.4.

7. Further agreements of Holders

7.1 Each Holder irrevocably acknowledges and agrees:

- (a) a Holder has no right to apply for the Company to be wound up, or placed in administration, or to cause a receiver, or a receiver and manager, to be appointed in respect of the Company on the grounds that the Company does not or is or may become unable to comply with these Terms; and
- (b) these Terms contain no events of default.

8. General Meetings

8.1 Meetings

A Holder has the same rights as those conferred by the Constitution upon the holders of ordinary shares in relation to receiving notices, reports and audited accounts and attending meetings of the Company.

8.2 Voting rights

An “A” Class Share entitles its Holder to vote together with the holders of Ordinary shares on any question, proposal or resolution whatsoever arising at a general meeting of the Company.

8.3 Number of votes

On a show of hands, a Holder has one vote, and on a poll, a Holder has one vote per “A” Class Share held.

9. Pre-emptive Rights

9.1 Shares issue

A Holder has the same pre-emptive rights with respect to the issuance of shares as those conferred under clause 79 of the Constitution on the holders of ordinary shares.

10. Further issues and no other rights

10.1 Further issues not to vary class rights

Each of the following is expressly permitted and authorised by these Terms and does not affect, or constitute a modification or variation of, the rights or privileges attaching to “A” Class Shares then on issue:

- (a) the allotment or issue of Shares (including “A” Class Share), or the conversion of existing Shares or classes of shares into Shares or classes of shares, as the case may be, ranking equally with or in priority to, or having different rights from, the “A” Class Shares then on issue for participation in profits or assets of the Company, and whether entitled to cumulative or non-cumulative dividends;
- (b) a redemption, buy-back or return or distribution of capital in respect of any share capital other than an “A” Class Share, whether ranking behind, equally with, or in priority to, the “A” Class Shares; and
- (c) the conversion of “A” Class Shares.
