

MYKEL
DIXON

How to ensure your audience is ready and raring for Myke to hit the stage!

Stage Introduction

Our next guest is an award-winning speaker and author and recognised authority on creativity, culture and the human future of work. He works globally with a stellar cast of fortune 500 and ASX 200 listed companies who strive to make work feel more like play, teams feel more like family, and organisations feel more like festivals of possibility.

In 2018 he was named Australia's breakthrough speaker of the year by the Professional Speakers Association and in 2021, his second book 'Everyday Creative' was named the #1 leadership book in the country by the esteemed Australian Business Book awards.

Today, he'll be speaking to us about (Myke will give you the appropriate text depending on what keynote he's delivering).

A jazz musician by trade, a gypsy by nature, fierce non-conformist and prolific anti-perfectionist who has an unhealthy obsession with spontaneous audience participation so strap yourselves in, expect the unexpected and please join me in welcoming...
Mykel Dixon.

OPTION 1

Mykel Dixon is an award-winning speaker, award-winning author, professional musician and recognised authority of Creativity, Culture and the Human Future of Work. He works globally with a stellar cast of fortune 500 and ASX 200 listed companies who strive to make work feel more like play, teams feel more like family, and organisations feel more like festivals of possibility.

OPTION 2

Mykel Dixon is here to save the world from boring work, bland events and beige bosses. A jazz musician by trade, gypsy by nature, fierce non-conformist and prolific anti-perfectionist, he leads a new-wave of entrepreneurial savants showing forward-thinking companies how to reinvent for relevance in a twenty-first Century Renaissance.

MYKEL
DIXON

Long

Mykel Dixon is an award-winning speaker and author, master facilitator and recognised authority of Creativity, Culture and the Human Future of Work. He works globally with a stellar cast of fortune 500 and ASX 200 listed companies who want to liberate themselves from boring work, bland events and beige bosses.

A jazz musician by trade, gypsy by nature, fierce non-conformist and prolific anti-perfectionist, Myke leads a new wave of conscious, creative business leaders who strive to make work feel more like play, teams feel more like family, and organisations feel more like festivals of possibility.

In 2018, he was named Australia's Breakthrough Speaker of The Year (by the Professional Speakers Association) and in 2021, his second book Everyday Creative was named the #1 Leadership book in Australia by the esteemed Australian Business Book Awards.

Blending his unique career and life experience, an obsession for audience participation and a magnetic stage presence, Myke's live learning experiences are unrivaled. Fusing live music, spoken-word poetry, visual storytelling and spontaneous audience interaction. Just like that time you were upgraded to first class, once you've experienced a Mykel Dixon anything, it's hard to go back to coach.

Missing anything?
Then...

Contact Kate Stubbings
General Manager
Mykel Dixon PTY LTD

kate@mykeldixon.com
+61 411 698 775

mykeldixon.com.au

MYKEL
DIXON