

UPPiNG YOUR ELViS

Creative Mastery. A fully submersive, intense workshop, coaching people to inject creative and conscious leadership into business and beyond.

Create a confident core of leaders who will inject creative magic into any opportunity. As strong role models they will shift your culture to be more energetic, human and inspiring, with skills that lead change and drive bottom-line results.

In a culture of creativity, tools and techniques can only take you so far. What makes the difference is the people who are facilitating creativity within your business. Their energy, confidence and how they show up as leaders in your business, is where true creativity thrives.

FOUR-DAY MIND AND BODY RE-BOOT.

People will learn how to bring more energy, awareness, and creativity to all that they do. They often have breakthroughs and leave not just feeling inspired and energised, but with the skills to drive new thinking to their work and lives.

- Discover how to embrace flexibility, experimentation, and collaboration.
- Learn how to apply new thinking and lead others in thinking differently.
- Become a pro facilitator, presenting successfully to hold a room with ease.
- Understand how to embed a positive and productive feedback culture
- Personal brand work culminating in a personal 'brand launch'. Explore who you are, what your values are and what your future could look like.
- Develop the belief that you can make your world better and create an actionable plan to make that happen.
- Create public commitments to self and business that sustain ongoing change.
