

Skybound Wealth Europe Ltd (previously Fenix Capital Markets Trading Ltd) (the "Firm") has appropriate systems, policies and processes in place to enable the management and continuation of business in the event of any incident that may harm our staff, damage our premises or disrupt our business and/or an event such as 'Force Majeure' (unavoidable natural events which interrupt expected course of events).

These policies and procedures which map out continuity and recovery procedures are retained in hard copy in the business locations and are retained by management as appropriate.

Our policies and procedures set out the guidelines to be followed should such an unforeseen event occur and how the Firm will remain operational and maintain communications with their clients and customers.
