Make smarter, data-driven decisions with Advanced Reporting

How long does it take before a lead grows cold?

Which are your best performing lead generation channels?

What percentage of your leads make it through to a sales gallery visit or an online consultation?

Who are the star performers on the team who should be given the high-value leads?

If you've been struggling with these questions and more, the data we collect in FastKey has the answers.

Be in the know with Advanced Reporting—a feature that lets you:

- Oversee the entire sales funnel
- Improve sales practices
- Optimise your marketing efforts

All in real-time!

Gain a deeper understanding of the drivers and metrics across your entire project portfolio

Real-time sales data

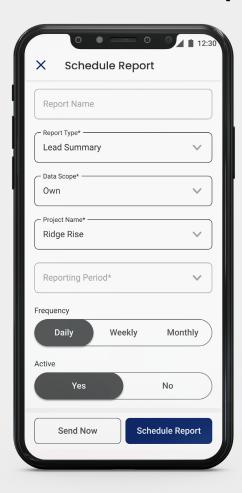

Offers transparency across all functional users and stakeholders

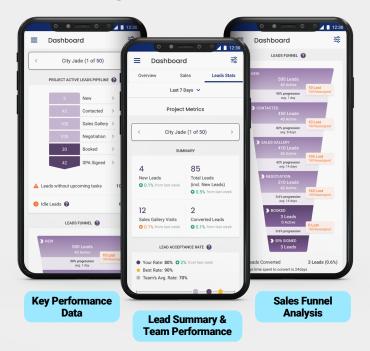

Gamified sales leaderboards

On performance and response times promote accountability and inspire more customer engagement

Get actionable, real-time data with automated reports sent straight to your inbox

Uncover best next-steps from easy data visualisation

Stay ahead of your game with Advanced Reporting

Make data a part of your daily processes with scheduled reports. No more cumbersome spreadsheets—simply configure the reports to match existing reporting templates.

