WORSHIP

All these pieces, broken and scattered
In mercy gathered, mended and whole
Empty handed but not forsaken
I've been set free, I've been set free

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost but now I am found
Was blind but now I see

You take our failure, You take our weakness
You set Your treasure in jars of clay
So take this heart, Lord, I'll be Your vessel
The world to see, Your life in me

Oh I can see You now
Oh I can see the love in Your eyes
Laying Yourself down
Raising up the broken to life

Follow along in song!
Join together in worship.

What stuck out the most about the Crossover Global presentation?

Read Matthew 13:31-33

Jesus taught these parables with 12 disciples. What does the mustard seed look like now? How has the Kingdom grown?

The changes in growing plants and rising dough are hard to see when you watch them close but noticeable when you go back and look after some time. When you look back can you see the transforming work God is doing in your life? What changes have felt slow or fast? Incremental or dramatic?

How has that been the case in our world both close (families, jobs, city) and afar (globally)?

What role do we have in cultivating the Kingdom of Heaven? What can we learn from the picture of planting a seed or letting dough rise?

What changes for us and the world when we realize God's Kingdom is growing and rising?
