

Manager ESG (m/f/d)

cylib GmbH is a start-up for holistic battery recycling. The proprietary end-to-end process is characterized by an efficient, resource- and climate-friendly recovery of all materials of an electric car battery. The recovery of green secondary raw materials from the cylib process enables the realization of a true circular economy in the European market.

For the sustainable development of further growth, we are looking for an ESG Manager starting immediately.

Qualifications & Skills:

- Graduate degree in environmental management, sustainability science, environmental engineering.
- Experience in developing and interpreting LCAs
- Experience in handling and processing big data sets
- knowledge of life cycle assessment software
- Strong sustainability awareness
- Assertiveness to strongly promote the environmentally conscious position
- Organizational talent, self-responsible way of working with flexibility and prioritization of tasks
- Very good knowledge of MS - Office
- Communication skills with an open and friendly attitude
- Good knowledge of German and English, both written and spoken

Responsibilities & Tasks:

- Development and implementation of a sustainability roadmap
- Support of creation of an LCA
- Detect and survey the current company's sustainability status
- Define a target state
- Derive and implement measurable targets (incl. ESG KPIs) for the continuous, sustainable development of the company
- Implementation of ISO 14001, EMAS if necessary SBT
- Close cooperation with the founding team
- Regular reporting in the company about the environmental management system
- Collaboration with HR manager to implement social sustainability requirements

Our offers:

- Working in a young, diverse, inclusive and interdisciplinary team
- family-friendly company and healthy work-life balance
- Visible contribution to climate protection & circular economy
- Innovative project environment with plenty of room for own ideas
- Steep learning curve
- Team spirit and a family atmosphere
- Profit-sharing via stock options and performance-based bonuses
- Continuous expansion of benefits, e.g. mobility bonus

Interest aroused?

We are looking forward to getting to know you! You can easily send us your application documents by e-mail:

info@cylib.de

Be a part of cylib &
Next generation battery recycling!