

The author offers a brief explanation of the value and the function of the United States Supreme Court. In so doing he offers a sharp and pointed rebuke toward both the American public, and the highest court in the land for the deaths that have been committed by the abortion of individuals who have been accounted both as un-named, and un-valued

A Word To The US Supreme Court, And The American Public Concerning The American Holocaust Of Abortion

Hey America, and the Supreme Court:

The highest court in the land: The Supreme Court is a very important part of the check and balance system of the American form of government. This system, in my opinion, has been the greatest ever implemented by any group of people, offering very great potential for personal freedom and prosperity.

Our national fathers recognizing the reality of the depraved nature of man understood that law was necessary to curtail the reprobate actions of those that would not believe and obey the Gospel of the Lord Yeshua, the Messiah, and thus receive from Him a heart to do good. (For you must understand that there exists only two powers that are able to hold back sin in man, and they are the Gospel of the Lord Yeshua, which when received in true faith and repentance will cause a person to be born again, thus inwardly becoming a new man and receiving a love for the truth. The other is the administration of the judgment of law. In other words, punishment, whether that be corporal or otherwise)

Our national fathers being wise men realized that a basic function of all government is to administer judgment upon the wicked, so that the innocent can have both justice and protection. For this to be enabled in our society it was obvious that a court system needed to be established, and at the same time this court system needed to work as a part of a check and balance system to keep each of the three branches of our government in its proper place and function: The judicial branch, the administrative branch, the legislative branch. Thus, each was meant, (Under God's law) to keep the others in check.

My study shows me that the conception of the American government was not based on human wisdom, but by the daily prayers of our forefathers, which brought the intervention of God. How can we now think that we can interpret our Constitution, and maintain justice, nobility, honor, and equality without the help of God?

Woe to you Supreme Court! You do not stand for justice any longer. You have now collaborated in the murder of more than 54 million innocent people. You violate the same Constitution and Bill of Rights that you swore an oath to uphold. I advise you to turn from your sin and come to the Savior of all men. Serve the Lord as did your forefathers, who established the Supreme Court on which you as individuals serve. This sin and rebellion has brought disgrace upon our whole nation. Do not despise the patient tolerance of YeHoVah, and use it as an excuse to continue in your rebellion. For the day of God's wrath shall surely be experienced by every man who refuses to humble himself and turn from his sin. Tell me Supreme Court Justices, how will you apologize to the American people when the God of the whole earth begins to execute judgment upon this people according to His own standard: an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, a burn for a burn, and a life for a life? You have now sanctioned over 54 million murders, how will you apologize to this people when THE GREAT JUDGE determines it is time to exercise vengeance on the American public for these murders?

I recall once reading a portion of a speech given by one of our nation's former presidents, Abraham Lincoln, at Independence Hall, Philadelphia, in the year of our Lord 1861....."I am filled with deep emotion at finding myself standing here in the place where were collected together the wisdom, the patriotism, the devotion to principle, from which sprang the institutions under which we live." You, Supreme Court, are a part of the institutions our fathers found. However, you have not remained true to the wisdom, patriotism, and principle that dominated their hearts. Darkness, murder, and self-interests have dominated your rulings. Woe to you. Only the blood of the Eternal Lamb of God is sufficient to wash away the stain of your sins. Messiah's blood can alone cleanse a person's sin. America, turn back to the God of your fathers and live.
