Which Is Higher, Our Mountains Or The Number of People We've Murdered?

Or

Do Any of Us Possess The Values That Our Founding Fathers Possessed?

Hey America, Alaska, and Washington State Residents:

For a four-year period, my family and I lived Northwest of Seattle in the San Juan Islands. The San Juans, make up an absolutely beautiful portion of YeHoVah's creation. Separated from the mainland, the islands are a bit of a world unto themselves offering a definite flavor of marine life, including: generally safe boating conditions, salmon and other fishing, the viewing of a variety of ocean animal life such as seals, sea otters, and killer whales, also you'll find a broad spectrum of sea birds, but especially sea gulls and cormorants. The islands also offer a flavor of country living being crisscrossed with county roads, wooded hills and small farms, and when its tourist season you'll experience bicycles and mopeds galore on the winding country roads. A visit to the San Juans is entirely likely to avail you the opportunity to see deer, rabbits, raccoons, fox, various types of eagles and hawks, and even an occasional wild turkey. In the winter the many ponds are inhabited by migratory water fowl such as geese, ducks, and swans that enjoy the moderate winter there. But one fond joy I often experienced while living in the San Juans was in the summers when blue skies prevailed, the distant Cascade Mountains came into view and stood in majestic splendor announcing to my heart that YeHoVah' was their creator, and being their creator He was larger and more immovable than any mountain, however immovable that we as men may perceive a mountain to be!

Yes, I found them at times to be beautiful, white Mountains against the blue sky. The most common of the great Cascade peaks that would show itself in the summer was that of Mount Baker at 10,781 feet. It is located basically east and a bit north of the San Juans, however from some vantage points it was also possible to catch a view of Mt. Rainier to the southeast. I always felt the sight of it was very impressive! For years before our stay on the San Juans we lived in Willow, Alaska. Willow, just happens to provide a very excellent view spot of Mount McKinley. (Denali, as some have begun to call it) It's the tallest mountain in North America, and as I understand it, the tallest in the world from base to summit. My compliments to its designer and creator...it is magnificent! It stands at 20,138 feet above sea level.

Now we are building a house for ourselves on the crown of a hill between Wasilla and Palmer. This location affords a magnificent view of Pioneer Peak. Since we are west of the Chugach Range I'm looking forward to years of viewing the sun rise over those mountains. Pioneer Peak stands at 6,398 feet above sea level, and its base is very near sea level, therefore it is very impressive to view.

American, listen up! If you took the fifty four million babies (54,000,000) you have now “legally” butchered (aborted), pressed their remains 1/4 inch thick, (why not? their remains are no more sacred than hamburger...after all your Supreme Court declared that they are not human until after they are born....and that is only if they are one of the lucky ones who are loved and allowed to be born) you could stack them one on another and scale

Mt. McKinley 55.86 times, Mt. Baker 104.35 times, Mt. Rainier 78.06 times, or Pioneer Peak 175.83 times. Now aren't we pleased with ourselves? We are a nation of butchers.

Hitler will rise up in the judgment at that last day and condemn us. He and his co-horts killed approximately six million Jews. The total combined approximation of deaths both civilian and military in World War Two was 56,125,262. America, compare that with the fifty-four million babies we've now murdered. We have forsaken the God of our fathers and adopted the pagan religion of humanism (that man centered manner of thought where we think we are equal to God, therefore independent of Him), thus making ourselves to be God. Thinking ourselves to be wise and able to guide ourselves, thinking that we had the right to create a whole new set of rules (laws) different than what YeHoVah impressed our national fathers to love and adopt. Now our crimes against the most innocent of humanity and YeHoVah pile higher than our highest mountains.

America, your president votes for murder, your Supreme Court votes for murder, most of your elected officials on the federal level appear to vote for murder, or they are too confused or cowardly to step forth and do battle against it. Someone needs to hurry up and quickly invent one VERY affective fireproof suit because I tell you that many are going to be needing one to escape the fires of hell. The Almighty waits for us to acknowledge our many sins, because once we acknowledge our sin then we can repent. Then, and only then will we find peace with YeHoVah', and any hope of a lessening of the inevitable judgment that is due this society. I tell you we will not escape His judgment. The blood of these innocents cries out before the Judge of the earth, it cries, “Revenge Us O Lord”, and revenge them He shall.

We who claim to fear YeHoVah’ and to possess His salvation, it is left for us to intercede for such a wicked generation and to stand opposed to its madness with all our strength and with every opportunity that avails us, and let us not be naive to think we will be held innocent if we are indifferent and do, and say nothing, for silence is guilt in itself.

(One of the less than one third who are conceived in America who are loved and honored, and allowed to live)

Think about it America...we have now “legally” murdered fifty-four million babies, not soldiers, not combatants, not those who are by YeHoVah’s law guilty of crimes deserving capital punishment, but the most innocent and helpless of all people: BABIES. That’s a very big number. Can you imagine counting a number that big? I sincerely doubt I can. Certainly, it would have to be in more than one sitting, for I would grow hungry and tired long before I finished. Yet truly, we have murdered at least that many babies. I guess murder has become “the American way”, and if the murder continues un-abated who knows how high the tally will reach before YeHoVah’ in His anger crushes this nation, thus forcing the end of the slaughter of the pre-born innocents.

(This is one of the 54,000,000 children who were conceived in the womb of a confused and unbelieving mothers, who along with the child’s father listened to wicked public opinion and hired their own offspring murdered with the permission and blessing of corrupt civil law)

You people of Alaska and Washington State. Those mountains that you are so proud of stand as a perpetual reminder of our perversion. Our perversions are great beyond description. We are vile beyond telling. There is only one thing greater than our sins. It’s the mercy the Savior has available to those willing to cry out to Him in true repentance. This mercy grants us access to the blood that Yeshua shed on our behalf at Calvary. Know this, there is no pit too deep for Him to reach down and rescue a lost soul from. I know, for He rescued me! For it is written: Bless the LORD, (YeHoVah’) O my soul, and forget not all His benefits.....who forgiveth all thy iniquities (sins).....He hath not dealt with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities. For as the heaven is higher than the earth, so great is His love toward those that fear Him. For He knoweth our frame, He remembereth that we are but dust. (Psalms 103: 1, 2, 11-13 KJV) But Woe to that man or woman that is so foolish, and so hard of heart so as to deny His blood and His mercy, such a person (and it matter nothing what their position is in this life, whether President, Supreme Court Justice, Senator, or Congressman) will experience eternal damnation being cast away from the presence of the Holy One.

America you have been a people whom the Almighty granted liberty. Our national fathers since the very conception of this nation valued personal rights and freedoms above their very lives, and thus through the generations have been willing to risk all to preserve liberty, and very many have sacrificed their lives in both time of war and time of peace to secure and maintain personal rights and freedoms. BUT it is exceedingly apparent that recent generations in America have not possessed the motivation of heart that caused our national fathers to, at all costs, seek to obtain and then preserve religious, political, and personal rights and freedoms, for at the time of the conception of this nation these Bible verses were commonly preached and believed: Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ has made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage. (Galatians 5:1 KJV) and, As free, and not using your liberty for a cloak of maliciousness, but as servants of God. (1 Peter 2:16 KJV)

You America have used the precious rights and personal freedoms that our fathers purchased in YeHoVah's name for you--- not to do His will and honor Him, but as a cloak for your perversions, the total of which is higher than the world's highest mountains. Woe to such a people who have turned their back on the Creator and Father of their nation to pervert the ways of their founding fathers, and blaspheme their father's God by committing and "legalizing" every perversion known to mankind.

So common was the faith of Yeshua in the original 13 colonies, and with that faith the principles of life, honor and liberty, that before the revolutionary war this statement was true, "...we began to be aware of ourselves as a nation, a body of Believers which had a national identity as a people chosen by God for a specific purpose: to be not just a "city upon a hill", but a veritable citadel of Light in a darkened world." A

Yes, our founding fathers sought freedom, in fact they were even willing to enter into war with what was then the greatest military power on the earth to sustain their declaration of freedom (independence) from that government's ungodly and oppressive ways to secure their national and personal rights, but it was not to use their God given rights or freedom as either a cloak for perversion, or an empowerment of the same. Rather the freedom they fought for was to insure for themselves and their posterity the climate to live before God as free men in order to honor Him in every aspect of their lives: religiously, politically, and personally.

These principles of heart sprang forth from them because they embraced the faith and fear of YeHoVah' with their whole being and counted their connection to Him as the absolute primary treasure of their lives which is shown by this quotation, "Tiny Chatham, out on the "elbow" of Cape Cod, declared in December of 1772 that its townspeople held their "civil and religious principles to be the sweetest and most essential part of their lives, without which the remainder was scarcely worth preserving. In like spirit, the new year of 1773 was rung in by the men of Marlborough. "Death", they proclaimed unanimously on the first of January, "is more eligible than slavery. A free-born people are not required by the religion of Jesus Christ to submit to tyranny, but may make use of every such power that God has given them to recover and support the laws and liberties...(we) implore the Ruler of the skies, that He would make bare His arm in defense of His Church and people, and let Israel go."” B

We who claim the fear of God, isn't it about time we opened our eyes to, and then admit the reality that aspects of our present government seeks to completely destroy every vestige of the nation under God that our fathers purchased for us at the expense of their lives and toil, and then to put our hands to the task of defending and propagating it? Isn't it about time we shake ourselves and come to our right minds and fall on our faces before the Mighty One and admit the sin of indifference that grips so many of us, and the many personal ways that are common among those that claim the faith of Yeshua, where we stand in violation of YeHoVah's commandments? Isn't it about time we review our values and decide that life under a totalitarian government that is sold out to allow and commit every perversion is no life at all? Isn't it about time that we realize that death is better than to sit and allow our nation and the hope that this once Christian nation offered to all of its citizens, not to speak of the other nations of the world - to be wrested from our fingers? Isn't it about time that having done business before the Mighty One to renew our commitment through repentance-- that we stand to fight to secure a hope for our children, and their children, and that this hope is only possible when the people of God finally decide that nothing in life is more precious than honoring the One who purchased us from our own sins, the very One who formed this nation in the first place?

May God Almighty whose name is YeHoVah', may He grant us the spirit of repentance to turn from our many sins and the pettiness of values that grips so many of us, thus leading us to bend our knees before Him interceding for a very lost generation, and to stand and begin to fight for what is right before Him! Amen!
