Foundations in Personal Finance is a curriculum that meets national and state standards. You can choose your state to get started. You have the power to give your students the tools they need to succeed with money now and in the future. Our high school curriculum improves students' test scores by 24 percentage points on average. They learn the skills they need to win in the real world. Try the curriculum for free. You'll get access to Chapter 1, which includes reading content, video lessons and classroom activities. Whether you're teaching remotely, in person, or a hybrid, we've got you covered. We've done the planning for you, so you can save time. You'll also get tools and support that will help you win in the classroom. You can be confident that what you're teaching will make a lasting difference in your students' lives.
