Director

Juan Manuel Del Río, 30 years old, born in Los Cabos, Mexico. Juan is a hard working and self-taught, experienced filmmaker. Always looking for new challenges, Juan's creative vision comes from normal people and their surroundings, extraordinary stories from ordinary situations. He embraces an empathetic point of view for his characters, understanding every action comes from an emotion, and emotions are just a reaction for what they are currently living or have lived. There is no black or white, just humans living and that is important for him to highlight in his creative work.
