The ship's itinerary has included Mediterranean cruises from Athens and Barcelona, as well as Caribbean sailings from Miami and New York, with visits to popular islands and ports in the Eastern Caribbean.Carnival Vista Arrives in Galveston, Texas, as Part of Carnival's Western Caribbean FleetThe Carnival Vista, a Vista-class vessel, has been welcomed to its new homeport in Galveston, Texas, where it joins the Carnival Valor and Carnival Freedom for year-round departures. This trio of liners operates over 200 voyages annually, carrying more than 600,000 passengers each year.From Galveston, the Carnival Vista embarks on 7-day Western Caribbean Itineraries that visit Jamaica (Montego Bay), Grand Cayman, Roatan, Belize City, and Mexico's Cozumel.Carnival Vista's inaugural season kicked off in Europe, with a series of Mediterranean itineraries that included stops in Greece, Turkey, Spain, Croatia, Italy, Malta, and France. The ship's maiden voyage began on May 1, 2016, from Trieste, Italy, and ended in Barcelona, Spain. Following the summer European season, the ship underwent an 18-day Mediterranean cruise schedule.In November 2016, Carnival Vista became the first U.S.-based ship to offer year-round Caribbean and Bahamas itineraries from Miami, Florida. The ship's inaugural homeport was a success, with round-trip 7-day cruises operating throughout the year.In January 2024, Carnival Vista underwent an 8-day Transatlantic crossing to Europe, arriving in Cadiz, Spain, for a scheduled drydock at Navantia Shipyard. The two-week drydocking project included general maintenance works, technical overhaul, safety inspections, indoor renovation, and hull cleaning/painting.In July 2019, Carnival Vista underwent repairs at the Grand Bahama Shipyard after technical issues were detected with its propulsion units. Royal Boskalis Westminster NV lifted the ship onto a floating drydock, the BOKA Vanguard, for repairs due to the complex nature of the issue. The operation was the world's first for a passenger ship and took place while the ship was on the drydock.Due to the damage caused by a crane collapse on April 1, 2019, Caribbean cruises departing from Galveston, Texas on July 6, 13, and 20 have been canceled. The Grand Bahama Shipyard's drydock facility is usually operated by BOKA Vanguard, which is equipped with an open and flat stern and bow deck that can accommodate large cargoes. This allows for underwater inspections and hull repairs to be conducted at sea.
