Elayne greenberg. Elaine greenberg obituary. Elaine flores gibraltar. Elaine myra greenberg. Elayne e. greenberg.

It is with profound sorrow that we announce the passing of our esteemed colleague Elayne Greenberg. As reported to St John's faculty, Elayne passed away last night, surrounded by her partner Robert and son Carey Alexander. Despite her untimely departure, Elayne's legacy lives on through her unwavering dedication to her students and colleagues. As a cherished member of the St. John's community since 2007, Elayne was a gifted community builder, passionate advocate for dispute resolution, and an unrelenting force for good. Her commitment to her students and their well-being inspired her to continue teaching and mentoring until the end. While there will be no formal service or shiva due to the upcoming Passover holiday, we plan to gather at the Law School in the coming weeks to pay tribute to Elayne's remarkable life and contributions. Expressions of sympathy may be sent to Carey Alexander at calexander@scott-scott.com. We take solace in knowing that Elayne is at peace, her memory a blessing to us all. We will keep you informed as we learn more about this profound loss to our community on both personal and professional levels. Elayne was an extraordinary individual who touched countless lives with her kindness, humor, warmth, and welcoming nature. She wrote eloquently on topics such as plea bargaining, criminal law, diversity, and dispute resolution-related matters, leaving behind a lasting legacy in the field. Rest in peace, dear Elayne. She embodied a remarkable spirit, dedicating herself to improving the world and genuinely caring about others. Her wide-ranging concerns inspired optimism when tackling complex social issues, often lifting my spirits when I felt discouraged. Her warm smile was effortless, no pretenses needed. This tribute honors her academic achievements. You can also view these photos of Elayne with friends and colleagues over the years. If a picture is worth 1,000 words, a video must be priceless. In August 2020, she interviewed me for her students' sake, showcasing her exceptional questioning skills and effortless conversation management. She wrapped it up by asking about my photography techniques. I searched YouTube for more of her videos and found interviews with mediator Leslie Berkoff, six skits on ODR with Noam Ebner, a presentation on third-party mediation funding, and clips featuring her from the International Center for Ethno-Religious Mediation. Take a look.
