Campione! is a light novel series written by Takedzuki Jou and illustrated by Sikorsky, which was formerly published under the Super Dash Bunko label but is now released by Dash X Bunko. The series is expected to conclude with Volume 21. Due to copyright issues, we are no longer hosting Campione! related DMCA notices. The author of the series, Takedzuki Jou, also wrote the Meiyaku no Leviathan (Leviathan of the Covenant) and Chronicle Legion series. An anime produced by Diomedea aired from July to September in 2012, covering Volumes 1-5 but deviating with an original ending. The story follows Kusanagi Godou, a 16-year-old boy who became the youngest and seventh Campione after slaying one of the Heretic Gods, Verethragna, during his senior high school days. As a Campione, Godou must defeat troublemaking gods with the help of his followers. Translators are requested to register their work on specific chapters and adhere to the general format guidelines.
