As for discounts, keep an eye out for seasonal sales events like Back to School deals in autumn or Black Friday offers in winter, which can provide up to 50% off the usual purchase price. To redeem a discount code, follow these steps: Choose your preferred promo code, copy it to your clipboard, and make sure you have a passport-style headshot saved on your device. Go to the Railcard website or app, select whether you want a one-year or three-year railcard, add it to your basket, and fill out the online form with your date of birth. Then, choose your form of ID, upload your photograph, and paste in your code during checkout. If your voucher isn't working, check if there are specific conditions for usage, if it's exclusive to new or returning customers, if you've entered the code correctly, or if a minimum order value is required. Additionally, you can find year-round discounts on the 16-25 Railcard website or app, which also offer tips for making the most of the scheme. Existing customers can enjoy the same discounts as new customers, and students can get an additional 5% off with StudentBeans. However, please note that once a railcard is issued, it's non-refundable, so ensure you've chosen the right option before making your purchase. Given text: change unexpectedly.
