Click to prove you're human

View source The Assassination Classroom Wiki Policy can be found here: Policy. Please read before you begin editing. Skip to content Main Timeskip Koro-Sensei Q! Main Timeskip Koro-Sensei Q! Ms. Vitch (by Class 3-E; Manga)Ms. Bitch (by Class 3-E; Manga)Ms. Hellabitch (by Class 3-E; Manga)Bitch-Sensei (by Class 3-E; Anime Sub)Professor Bitch (by Class 3-E; Anime Dub)Bitchy Vitchy (codename)Sweetheart (by Karasuma) October 10(20 years old; Libra)(21 in Chapter 100)(28 in Chapter 179) Unnamed Parents (Deceased)Tadaomi Karasuma (Husband)Unnamed Daughter Kunugigaoka Junior High School (Formerly)Ministry of Defence Assassin (Former)Linguistics Teacher (Former)AgentWitch (Koro Q) Chapter 7 (cameo)Chapter 8 (official) “ Karasuma... Do you know what it really means... to kill somebody?[1] ” — Irina talking to Tadaomi Karasuma Irina Jelavić (イリーナ・イェラビッチ, Irīna Yerabitchi, Serbian: Ирина Јелавић) is the English teacher of Class 3-E of Kunugigaoka Junior High School and a professional hitwoman who is hired by the government to assassinate Korosensei. Appearance Irina is a beautiful fair-skinned young woman with wavy hip-length blonde hair that is split in the middle, large light-blue eyes, long legs and a curvy figure that she often utilizes to seduce and manipulate her targets on the job. She is usually seen wearing high-end brands and fashionable clothing which emphasize her flattering form. This often causes Tadaomi Karasuma to reprimand her for wearing "inappropriate" clothing for a teacher. Personality At first, Irina was shown to be a cruel, calculating and arrogant woman with little regard for the students of Class 3-E (earning her the nickname "Bitch-sensei"). Because of her high hit count and model-like appearance, she is a confident woman, experienced and has been described as giving off a mature, black widow vibe by her students because of such. Although these are all traits she carries, in actuality once her cover has been completely shattered she is shown to be childish, and has a lack of social understanding. Underneath her confidence is insecurities she has carried with her since childhood and a surprisingly humble person who can be earnest. She is not the type that easily gives up and because of her young age, connects well with her students once she gets past her ego. It is because of these students that she shows a softer side, showing that she is not as hard-edged as she may come off. History Irina is of Serbian descent. After killing the militant who murdered her parents, she wandered in the ruins of her hometown until she was found and adopted by Olga and Lovro Brovski. Eventually, Irina became a well-known hitwoman by the government. Plot First Semester Debut appearance: Pro Time Irina was first mentioned by Tadaomi Karasuma when he was on the phone with his boss. Karasuma was worried about the students as the Government wanted to bring in a real assassin. She made her official debut in Chapter 8, appearing before Korosensei as a damsel in distress where some thugs were bothering her and Korosensei saved her. She thanked him and asked where Kunugigaoka Junior High School was and Korosensei took her there where she was introduced to the class as their new English teacher. With her male accomplices, she sets a trap for Korosensei in the shed the next day. When Korosensei returns, she asks him for a more private intimate chat in the shed as the class continues their PE lesson. Once inside, she seduces Korosensei to great effect and hides away to supposedly change. At that moment, her accomplices open fire on Korosensei, the gunfire being heard for a short period of time. When the dust settled, Irina comes out of hiding, but sees her accomplices lying unconscious and a very much unharmed Korosensei standing before her. He berates her for using real bullets, which could possibly harm the students, instead of the Anti-Sensei rounds, and for how sloppy and easy her trap was to see coming as he could smell the gun oil and unknown masculine body odor from her accomplices. Afterwards, Irina sits with the class again feeling humiliated and wanting revenge. Tired of coin and learning nothing, Yuma Isogai asks her if they could have Korosensei teach them instead. Irina however berates the class for prioritizing their desire to learn for a silly exam instead of saving the world from destruction, and that even if Korosensei is killed, their status as Class 3-E will prevent them from having a meaningful future. She instead proposes that they help her come up with a plan to kill Korosensei and share the reward between them until a student throws an eraser at the blackboard, telling her to "get out". Irina sees the deadly looks of the students before ducking for cover as the class riots for her "bitching". In the study room, Irina complains to Karasuma of having to teach instead of killing. Karasuma takes her outside and sees Korosensei coming up with individual tests for the class. When she sees and listens how much Korosensei has given purpose to the lives of his students, she begins having second thoughts about them. In the next class, Irina starts giving an example of her assassination experiences, talking about how language plays an important role in any assassination. She also apologizes for being a bitch earlier, which the class accepts. However, they still call her Bitch-sensei, much to her chagrin. Settling In Irina makes minor appearances after that. When the whole school assembles, she joins in and attracts most of the male students' attention for her appearance, although she somewhat dampens this when she attempts to extract more information from Nagisa Shiota (nearly smothering him with her breasts) and trying to strike Korosensei. During the mid-terms arc, she reveals that she always made backup plans for assassinations should her original plan go wrong in the slightest at Korosensei's inquiry. At the time, Korosensei wanted the students to realize that they still need to plan ahead for the future should their teacher's assassination be successful and the reward money is claimed. At the school trip to Kyoto, she is berated by Tadaomi Karasuma for not dressing properly as a teacher, leaving her depressed and the students to comment that perhaps living the high life as an assassin made her out of touch of knowing a normal life. However, she socializes with the female students on the last night of the trip, which was ruined by a peeping and eavesdropping Korosensei. Master and Student Irina continues to settle down as a teacher, continuing to impart the knowledge of language and art of conversations to Class 3-E. After one such class ends, she is exhausted but still complains about Korosensei's fetish for her breasts. Leaving the staff room, she is suddenly strung up by an assailant. Freeing herself, her attacker reveals himself to be her mentor Lovro Brovski, a retired assassin known for training children to kill. He comes to take Irina off the mission, considering her to have compromised her undercover status in teaching the students and killing Korosensei. Irina begs to be allowed to stay until Korosensei intervenes. He proposes that the two attempt a mock assassination of Tadaomi Karasuma for Irina to prove her worth, which all individuals agree to. Her first attempt was humiliatingly unsuccessful, with Karasuma and even the students knowing that the drink she was carrying for him was drugged. Knowing that Lovro could strike any time, she is surprised to witness him attempt a frontal assault on Karasuma in the staff room, though this too was unsuccessful. Karasuma also demands her to get serious if she wants to win, scaring her (and Korosensei) in the process. Irina does try again, this time luring him with the art of conversation and "to get this over with". She surprises him when she makes him lose his balance before pinning him down. Her attempt to stab him with a fake knife though is intercepted by Karasuma. Knowing that he would win if it came to a contest of strength, she requests him to relent with puppy dog eyes. While not at all impressed by this, he does so and gives her the win. The whole thing was seen by Lovro, who realizes how dedicated she is to her work as an assassin and teacher thanks to Korosensei. With this, Lovro allows Irina to stay, much to her joy and relief. Assassination Island Arc Irina plays a minor role during the Assassination Island arc where she does not actively participate in the class's training for their upcoming assassination attempt, only hastily joining in when her mentor Lovro Brovski arrives as a special instructor. On arrival at Okinawa, she is furious that no-one is at the island to witness her debut swimwear due to the class booking out the entire hotel. However, she reiterates to Tadaomi Karasuma that the students' plan is sure to fail, and that she will step in to do the deed at that moment. While the class's plan does fail, an unknown third party has masterminded the poisoning of ten of the students. Irina joins the healthy students, Karasuma and an immobile Korosensei in infiltrating the mountaintop hotel where their new enemy is staying, Irina needing Karasuma to assist her due to being unable to climb the cliff face. Reaching the main lobby full of guards, Irina walks in acting tipsy and distracts the guards with her mesmerizing performance at the piano. This allows the rest of the class to slip by unnoticed, and appreciate their teacher's talents despite her bitchy behavior. After learning of their successful mission, she makes her own way back to the class' hotel. Prior to leaving the island, the class notice Irina's attempt to seduce an ignorant Karasuma. They decide to help her act a little more mature and arrange a dinner date with Karasuma to better notice her. Irina appreciates the class's assistance but ruins the critical moment when she talks about her first kill with Karasuma. Flustered, she leaves the table and blames the class for her mistake. Second Semester The Reaper incident During the lead-in, Irina is disappointed that Tadaomi Karasuma forgot her birthday and thus did not receive a present from him. The class keeps her company while simultaneously arranges for Karasuma to present her with a bouquet of flowers. However, when he admits that he considers their relationship to be purely professional and only because of their mission to kill Korosensei; Irina discovers the class's involvement and leaves the classroom- seeing that staying in the classroom will cause her skills and worth to deteriorate. She does not return for three days until, the man (who the students bought the flowers from) arrives at their classroom, revealing that he is the Reaper and has kidnapped Irina - holding her for ransom at a secluded warehouse. The class conduct a rescue mission to save Irina. However, they discover it was too late as Irina had joined the Reaper and betrays them, taking out Meg Kataoka's rescue team single-handedly. When Korosensei and Karasuma arrive at the warehouse, Irina plays hostage and successfully baits Korosensei into a pitfall trap- dropping him in with the imprisoned students. Both the class and Karasuma are horrified to learn that Irina went along with the hit man's plan to kill Korosensei, despite knowing the students will be killed as well; Irina simply stating as long as her mission is complete. When Karasuma heads off to stop the Reaper, Irina stayed behind to watch the prisoners and told them why she switched sides. Regaining consciousness, she finds Karasuma rescuing her at the insistence of the students who have been sympathetic to her past. Karasuma tears a sleeve to wrap her broken arm, although she gets a nosebleed at the sight of his muscled body. Realizing that the students do indeed care about her and that the Reaper only used her as a pawn, she betrays him to allow Karasuma to gain the upper hand and witnesses the latter's victory. The majority of the class forgives Irina's betrayal though a few still wanted to dish some payback.After the incident, Irina rejoins the class faculty and reconsiders her stance in the class. Later Appearances As winter approaches, Irina has since appeared periodically in later arcs. When Korosensei holds a careers consultation, Irina arrives at the class with a more conservative, less revealing style. The students notice the sweater she recently bought still had the size label, which Nagisa Shiota removes without her noticing. When Nagisa's mother Hiromi Shiota is set to visit the school to request Nagisa be transferred back to the main campus, the class scramble to disguise Korosensei as Tadaomi Karasuma who was away on a business trip. Irina volunteers to be the teacher but under a mock interview session, her answers prove that she is still immature (almost causing Kataoka to stab her in anger). During the school festival, Irina attracted the attention of the same delinquent students responsible for kidnapping Kaede Kayano and Yukiko Kanzaki at the school trip. She is seen to continually seduce them in coming back to the mountain classroom to help Class 3-E raise more money. At the end of the semester, she witnesses Kayano's true identity and her near-suicidal attempt on Korosensei's life. Although unable to come up with an idea to distract Kayano's bloodlust, she sees with some satisfaction Nagisa's seduction kiss on Kayano. Irina praises Nagisa's kiss, but comments that he still has a long way to go to match hers. She later listens to Korosensei talk about his past life as the original Reaper and how he was influenced to become a teacher while in captivity. Final Semester Irina observes the class to still be uncertain at the start of the final semester and advises the students to not let their emotions cloud their purpose. That afternoon, she arrives with Tadaomi Karasuma and Korosensei after a fight breaks out between Nagisa Shiota and Karma Akabane. Moreover, that some like Yukiko Kanzaki and Karma had been hiding their talons until this moment. Along with the rest of the eliminated students and Korosensei, she observes Nagisa winning the fight against Karma. The class eventually regain their resolve to kill their teacher, but also have to prepare for their high school entrance exams. Unbeknownst to her, Korosensei conned the class into getting an unfashionable seven-three haircut by provoking them into saying any word synonymous with failure, and walked into the classroom unwittingly degrading the students and causing their bloodlust to rise. The result is that the students comically gang up on her and force her into receiving the same hairstyle. On Valentines Day after school hours, Irina discusses with Karasuma about the students' futures. She worries that should they fail to kill Korosensei they'll consider themselves to be failures later in life. Karasuma disagrees and adds that Irina's concern for Class 3-E is unfitting for an assassin. Irina attacks him in provocation but Karasuma easily disarms her, and suggests that she work with the Ministry of Defense. While Irina argues that she does not have a place to stay or even a church to pray at, Karasuma essentially invites her to his place, causing Irina to blush. Since then, Irina has been completely enamored at the thought of being together with Karasuma. Five days before the March deadline, the Japanese government activated their master plan and trapped Korosensei on the mountain classroom to be killed by their orbital weapon. Class 3-E were imprisoned for their 'safety'. On the night of the deadline (and the orbital weapon to fire), Irina arrived at the compound holding the students, putting on a happy act that embarrasses the students. To add more awkwardness, she kissed a few of the students before abruptly leaving. It turned out Irina smuggled in Kotaro Takebayashi's explosives as a means to escape and provided a route for the class to meet with her. When the students escaped, Irina wished them good luck before returning to Karasuma. Once more she asked whether the class will be okay and is reassured they will be provided they remember the basics of assassination. Aftermath After seven years have passed since the assassination of Korosensei, it is shown that Irina is now married to Tadaomi Karasuma and works with him in the Ministry of Defence. Her personality didn't change even after seven years of marriage. In the Graduation Album, it's been mentioned that Irina and Karasuma have a daughter who's built a harem of boys in her kindergarten. It's also shown that they both accomplish missions together as a team. Abilities Infiltration: As an infiltration assassin, Irina is considered second to none where she is able to charm/distract her way into her target's inner circles, penetrating the highest security and killing/trapping them when they are alone at point-blank range with little difficulty. Irina often has to adopt different personalities in order to infiltrate into the various situations her missions put her through. Kiss of Death: From Olga, Irina has apparently gained the "Kiss of Death" technique, able to acquire several "Hits" off of others through indiscriminate French kisses. She has taught this technique to her students, the most notable being Nagisa Shiota. Planning: After her seduction techniques, this is considered to be one of Irina's greatest talents as she can elaborate detailed plans completely on her own with backups for any complication that might arise, thus giving her targets little to no chance of survival. Martial Arts Competence/Weaponry Master: Being an assassin, Irina shows considerable expertise with handling weapons such as firearms and melee weapons, apart of being able of setting up complex trigger traps when attempting to kill Korosensei. She also is shown to be skilled in martial arts, but since she is an assassin and not a combatant, she is severely under-skilled when compared to more prominent fighters in the series, such as Tadaomi Karasuma. Musician: Irina has been shown to be able to play the piano at a concert-performer level with ease while still being able to draw people's attention through minuscule body movements.[2] Multilingualism: Irina is extremely skilled in conversational abilities, being fluent in 10 different languages. Through these skills combined with her infiltration abilities, she is able to extract information from her targets. Relationships Tadaomi Karasuma Main article: Tadaomi Karasuma At first, Irina had little interest in Tadaomi and found him a pain to deal with. Their relationship also started off on the wrong foot as her failed attempt in ending Korosensei's life and lack of interest in teaching the students nearly led to her early dismissal. However, as time passed, their relationship turned more cordial as Irina took an genuine interest in the students' well-being, both physically and emotionally. Eventually, Irina was revealed to have genuinely fallen in love with Tadaomi Karasuma through her failed attempts at seducing him. At the end of the series, she was seen being married to Karasuma (which now makes her Irina Karasuma), although most of their personalities remained unchanged. In the Graduation Album, it is shown that they now have a daughter and it's also been mentioned that Irina has failed to win the "never-ending nightly battle between husband and wife" for the last 7 years which frustrates her greatly. Korosensei Main article: Korosensei Korosensei is Irina's target. Most of the time, Irina tries to attack Korosensei, who easily evades her attacks. They seem to have a friendly relationship, even with Korosensei constantly making fun of her assassination attempts on him, and, especially, her love life. Lovro Brovski Main article: Lovro Brovski Lovro is Irina's caretaker after she joined Lovro during her escape from Militant atrocities. Later he trained her to become a hitwoman by performing plenty of assassination tasks and infiltration which ultimately leads him to send her to Kunugigaoka Junior High School as an English Teacher. Olga Main article: Olga Olga is Irina's former instructor whom she met along with Lovro Brovski after her escape from a town infested by militia. When Irina started goes with them, Olga taught every seduction manners to her while Lovro Brovski would provide the skills of assassination. Toka Yada Main article: Toka Yada Out of all the Class 3-E students, Yada is Irina's favorite as she had been the most interested in learning the art of infiltration and negotiation from Irina, and sees them as her "second blade" in later life. As a result, she, along with Hinano Kurahashi, learned of Irina's past and was among the first to vouch for her in convincing Tadaomi Karasuma to save her life during the Reaper arc despite her earlier betrayal. The class see Irina and Yada become a formidable pair at the school festival; Yada utilizing her negotiation skills to advertise and convince customers to travel the mountain path to their makeshift restaurant and Irina subtly seducing them to stay. Although taught how to seduce her target, Yada prefers not to use it as a means to get her desired outcomes. Nagisa Shiota Main article: Nagisa Shiota Although initially it began with Irina's ruse to get information on Korosensei with a 'Kiss of Death "30 hits"' and timidity on the part of Nagisa, the two eventually become good allies with the good bonds of teacher and student. On several occasions, Irina demonstrated some valuable techniques as an assassin to Nagisa and was surprised by Nagisa's hidden talents and bloodlust, the more notable examples being outsmarting a combat veteran such as Akira Takaoka in a fight and subduing Kaede Kayano with her own technique: the Kiss of Death. Etymology The name Irina means "peace" in Greek, Russian. Irina's married name Karasuma means "crow" (烏) (karasu) and "while, time, space, interval" (間) (ma). Quotes (To the girls of Class 3-E) "You girls are lucky to have been born in a peaceful, safe country... you can take your time growing into womanhood."[3] (To Class 3-E) "You don't know anything about me. I never expected to spend my life in the ordinary world! Hanging out with children who were like little brothers and sisters to me... worrying about falling in love... That just isn't me! I don't live in a bright and shiny world like that!"[4] (To Class 3-E) "The most foolish way to try to assassinate someone is to let your emotions and desires get ahold of you. Do that and you place yourself below a wild animal. The second most foolish way is to kill your own feelings to assassinate your opponent."[5] Trivia Karma Akabane is the first one to call Irina Bitch-sensei, which came from mispronouncing the vić in her surname Jelavić. Irina identifies herself as a Christian Popular opinion; she is pretty gorgeous. References ↑ Assassination Classroom Manga; Volume 9, Chapter 75 ↑ Assassination Classroom Manga: Chapter 25, Page 15 ↑ Assassination Classroom Manga; Volume 3, Chapter 19 ↑ Assassination Classroom Manga; Volume 12, Chapter 106 ↑ Assassination Classroom Manga; Volume 16, Chapter 142 Main With Tentacles Timeskip Koro-Sensei Q! Main Timeskip Koro-Sensei Q! Picture Book Graduate/Rolling Riser (Codename) Unnamed father Unnamed mother Shiro (formerly)Class 3-E Student Electrical Engineer (Timeskip) Episode 10 (Cameo)Episode 11 (Official) “ I might fail a hundred times, but I'll be sure to kill him before it's all said and done. You've got my back, right guys? ” — Itona to his male classmates Itona Horibe (堀部 糸成イトナ, Horibe Itona) is the second assassin transfer student to arrive at Class 3-E, following the previous assassin, Ritsu. He initially served as the secondary antagonist, before ultimately joining Class E for good. Appearance Itona has short, spiked platinum blond hair (light blue-tinted white in the anime) which he later wears a large bandana over and sharp light blue eyes (yellow/amber in the anime). Although fairly short, he possesses a strong build. Personality Originally, Itona had developed a hunger for strength from abandonment and being bullied, and thus hated the idea of losing or any position which made him weak. As such, he allowed Shiro to implant him with tentacles and became obsessed with killing the powerful Korosensei in order to prove that he was the strongest. He is also a brutally honest and direct individual. While under the influence of the tentacles, Itona mimicked Korosensei's interests and hobbies, examples being an interest in big boobs and eating the same snacks. After being abandoned by Shiro and befriending Terasaka and his gang, Itona has since become more mellow and humble, and is now able to admit people are stronger than him, while still retaining his brutal honesty. He has also shown to be a very observant and creative individual. Thanks to Terasaka's words of encouragement, as well as Class 3-E's admiration of his abilities, Itona's desire to kill Korosensei became less self-centered and is willing to work together with Class 3-E, becoming much more sociable and involved with his classmates. His perversion, however still lingered as shown when he volunteered to use his self-built tank to look up the girls' skirts. History Itona is the son of Horibe Electronics Factory's former president. After his father's company went bankrupt, Itona was abandoned and sent to live with his uncle, which caused bullies to target him. They called him a weakling, with no money or home. This caused Itona's obsession with power and victory. One night, Itona was found by Shiro, who told him that in his eye lies a tenacity for power and that he would help him achieve that power in order to grasp victory, and to become the strongest man in the world. Plot First Semester Transfer Student Time, 2nd Period Itona makes his debut in Chapter 29 as the second transfer student to Class 3-E. Upon his entrance, he walks through the back wall of the classroom (with the class exclaiming to him to use the door) and states that he is victorious and has proven himself stronger than the classroom walls. The class states that another pain has turned up and Korosensei has an odd and unreadable expression on his face. Shiro introduces him and tells Korosensei that he'll be watching over Itona for time being since he's spoiled him a bit. While Nagisa Shiota notes that two have probably had more than their fair share of problems, Karma Akabane asks Itona why he's dry when it's pouring outside and he wasn't carrying anything. Itona starts glancing around the room until his eyes fall on Karma. He starts telling him that he's probably the strongest in the class, but he's weaker than him so he won't kill him. He then gets up and states that he only wants to kill those who might be stronger than him and in the classroom that only means Korosensei. In response, Korosensei asks Itona if his talk of "strong" and "weak" refer only to fighting and that in a contest of strength he wouldn't be able to stand in the same dimension as him. Itona says that he can because they are brothers related by blood, shocking the rest of the class and even Korosensei himself. After stating that, Itona tells Korosensei that as siblings there is no need for petty tricks and that he will kill him and validate his strength. He sets up the time for it for after school in the classroom and tells Korosensei that that would be his final class and to say his farewells to the other students. He then exits through the hole he made in the wall. Later, the students of Class E are noting the similarities between the new transfer student and their teacher like how they both have a sweet tooth and how they both look at gravure magazines. The latter provokes Okajima to state that he sees them in a more realistic light and that they are all brothers when it comes to liking big chests on women. Kayano asks why Korosensei doesn't know about him if they are brothers and Fuwa begins to let her imagination run wild with a story about prince brothers separated due to a war. While Kayano and Hara are trying to make sense of her story, Nagisa glances at Itona who briefly glances back before returning to his magazine. The school day continues and it's now the final bell, thus the time of the match. The classroom has been turned into a fighting rink of desks. Shiro makes one rule for the match and that is if Korosensei takes one step out of the rink then he'll be executed on the spot. By doing this, he's given Korosensei no place to run because if he breaks a rule that is decided in front of everyone then it'll ruin his credibility as a teacher. Korosensei agrees to that lays out the condition that harming the students watching will also mean defeat which is agreed to. Shiro calls the signal and upon it Itona lops off Korosensei's arms and in the process reveals that his hair doubles as tentacles. This answers Karma's earlier question of how he remained dry in the rain despite having nothing with him. Korosensei's face becomes black as he grows with anger, asking where Itona got those tentacles, surprising him. Shiro responds by saying they have no obligations to tell him and that despite the fact that Itona has a different background and parents, they are indeed brothers. He then proceeds to taunt him by asking if those tentacles bring to mind something unpleasant which it does. Korosensei says that he needs to ask some questions as well and Shiro responds by saying that he won't as he will be dead then proceeds to shine a beam on Korosensei which makes his body go rigid. Itona then proceeds to relentlessly and mercilessly attack Korosensei with his tentacles. While it seems he's got him cornered it was revealed that his "brother" managed to narrowly escape by using his molting technique. Shiro pointed out that molting and regeneration drained his stamina considerably. Itona continues to attack relentlessly with his tentacles with Korosensei barely keeping up his speed to block them. Shiro then shines the beam and with Korosensei gone rigid, Itona lops off some more tentacles gradually making Korosensei weaker and will soon kill him. The students of Class E see just how this bothers them and Korosensei begins noting that the "assassination" was actually a meticulously calculated plan and that if he wishes for answers, he'll have to win the match. Shiro taunts him and he says that there was one more thing he forgot to take into account which was his main weakness: the Anti-Sensei Weapons and that if his tentacles are truly the same as his, then they would share this weakness. Korosensei the proceeds to trap Itona in the skin he molted and throws him out of the rink, giving him the win. This deeply angers Itona, causing his tentacles to turn black and he begins to attack only to be stopped by Shiro, who shot him with a tranquilizer dart. He picks him up and begins to leave stating that Itona will be allowed to return to school soon enough. Vision Time Itona and Shiro make their second appearance following Takaoka's short stint as a PE teacher. The pair manipulates the isolated Terasaka in completing the preparations for their next strike. After Terasaka finishes spiking the newly-created pool with chemicals, Itona gets into his face stating that he has no vision and therefore weak. The next day, Itona and Shiro activate their plan by having Terasaka unwittingly destroy the dam containing the pool water, making everyone in the pool swim uncontrollably towards the cliff. Itona strikes after Korosensei saves most of the students from danger, having planned this from the start. Korosensei, already weakened from the laced water and Terasaka's pesticide smoke bomb from the day before barely blocks Itona's tentacle but also keeping an eye on Sumire Hara precariously hanging on a cliff branch. When Terasaka realizes that he had been manipulated, he challenges Itona to fight him. At Shiro's order, Itona strikes Terasaka squarely in the chest with his tentacle. However, Terasaka catches hold of it and reveals that the shirt he wrapped around which still reeked with yesterday's pesticide spray. Since Itona had the same tentacles as Korosensei's, Itona sneezes and becomes disorientated. He is soon surrounded by the students (none too pleased at being used) who splash him with the same laced water while Korosensei saves Hara from danger. Recognising their strategy had failed, Shiro beckons Itona to retreat despite Korosensei once more requesting that Itona join the class. Second Semester Itona's Time Itona makes a cameo return hearing about the class's unsuccessful attempt to assassinate Korosensei on Okinawa. Shiro concocts an elaborate plan to trap Korosensei by first using his perverted hobbies in framing him for committing heinous acts, then ambush him based on the class's strategies. Itona ambushes Korosensei when the latter is surrounded by anti-sensei fabric. By this time, however, Korosensei had anticipated the plan and easily countered Itona's attacks. The repeated failures have now started to take a toll on Itona; the tentacles' power is consuming his consciousness. Not satisfied with this, Shiro abandons the boy and departs, leaving Itona to run away mentally unstable. He soon rampages throughout Kunigigaoka, attacking several electronic stores for a couple of nights. Itona is later cornered by the students but Shiro and his men kidnap the boy and threaten to kill him to lure out Korosensei. The class, however, are fed up at becoming collateral damage from Shiro's various plans, and grudgingly rescue Itona. Their success prompts Shiro to leave and rethink his approach. Without the means to calm Itona's tentacles, Korosensei discovers that if not taken off, Itona will likely die. In the meantime, Itona's forehead was wrapped in an anti-sensei net made large bandanna to cover his tentacles. Terasaka and his group tried various methods to calm Itona down (one being Muramatsu's home-made ramen that Itona does not like) until the students discovered the key is Itona's background - the electronic stores. Once calmed down, Korosensei removes the tentacles. Itona is grateful for their assistance and finally joins Class E in their assassination. Due to Terasaka and his friends' involvement he begins hanging out with them, though still unimpressed by Muramatsu ramen. Fitting in with Class E Although his tentacles have been removed, Itona has retained some of his physical abilities. For instance, he was Class E's secret weapon during their athletic festival match against the numerically superior Class A and was instrumental in bringing Class A's pole down. His high level of intelligence has also been revealed when building and customising RC vehicles for reconnaissance purposes. Finally, he learns to be patient and wait for the right opportunity to strike - during the God of Death incident he realizes the huge difference in combat skills between him, Terasaka and the God of Death, and opted to surrender and wait for rescue rather than unnecessarily harming themselves. In general, Itona has fitted in well with his classmates and his IQ was enough for him to be among the top 50 in the second semester finals. When Kaede Kayano launched a surprise attack on Korosensei prior to the end of the semester, Itona especially was surprised to see that Kayano also had tentacles. When asked for an explanation based on his experiences, Itona noted that Kayano must have endured a lot of pain to have been able to stay sane for so long. He and the rest of the class later witness her near-suicidal attempt on Korosensei's life, which ended when Nagisa kissed her and afterward listened to Korosensei telling about his past. Final Semester Schism Time: Class 3-E Civil War Korosensei's story had dampened the class's enthusiasm to kill him. This came to the point where the class became divided over whether to continue killing their teacher or attempt to find a way to save him. Itona was among those who sided with the kill faction. For much of the ensuing war, Itona tried to customise an RC drone for reconnaissance but failed, otherwise largely protecting Rinka Hayami from being killed. Eventually most of the few surviving 'save' team launched a frontal attack on the pair. Hayami took out two of them before being shot by Tōka Yada. Itona eliminates Yada from behind but is immediately cut down by Maehara, the last survivor of the attack. Aftermath After graduating from high school, Itona was revealed to be working at his father's factory. When he was asked what would happen if the factory collapsed like it had done previously, Itona simply replied that he would ask Muramatsu and Yoshida (who had both completed business management courses in preparation for taking over their respective family businesses) for help. Abilities Electrical Engineering: Itona has knack for gadgets and tinkering with electronic components due to learning the basics of technical and electrical engineering from his father's company and demonstrates excellent engineering skills, mostly notably in electrical engineering. He often puts his skills to good use with not just assassinations, but also in spying and reconnaissance when needed, being often tasked with using custom-made RC vehicles that he constructs for reconnaissance. He is also proficient in knowledge of electronic devices as demonstrated when he was able to safely remove the explosive collars from himself and from his classmates after they were kidnapped by The Reaper. Intelligence: Itona was revealed to have a high level of intelligence that was hindered and couldn't be used due to his tentacles. He shows this through his mechanic skills and academic grades. Athletics: While he had tentacles attached to his head, Itona had incredible physical abilities such as increased strength and speed that matches with Korosensei. After his tentacles were removed, he lost most of its abilities that could be on par with Korosensei, but he still retained most of his athletic abilities from his modification with Shiro, which was shown during the climax of the Athletic Festival Arc when he performed a six-foot jump into the air after being catapulted by Isogai and brought Class A's pole to the ground. Relationships Shiro Main article: Shiro Shiro found Itona one night some time after his father abandoned him. Shiro fostered Itona by promising him the means for victory and power; with his technology, Shiro modified and equipped Itona with tentacles. However, Itona was merely a tool for Shiro's own goals, and was eventually abandoned after the tentacles eroded his mind. Ryoma Terasaka Main article: Ryōma Terasaka Terasaka is the person who managed to open Itona's heart and convinced him to change his ways. After Itona reforms and officially joins Class E, Itona is in Terasaka's group and although he doesn't miss a moment to call Terasaka an idiot or stupid, the two are good friends. Quotes (To Class 3-E male students, Chapter 88) "I might fail a hundred times, but I'll be sure to kill him before it's all said and done. You've got my back, right guys?" (To his tentacles on what he wanted to be) "I want to be strong." (Episode 14, to Ryōma Terasaka) "You. You're weaker than that red-headed fellow, even though you've got more raw energy and a better physique. Know how I can tell? There's no vision in your eyes. No will or way or want to win. The slow-witted cow who dimly chews the grass before it is no match for the wolf with a cow-killing vision." Etymology The name Itona means "yarn, thread, string" (糸) (ito) and "become" (成) (na). Itona's surname Horibe means "moat, ditch, canal" (堀) (hori) and "part, department, category" (部) (be). Trivia Itona is one of the few students of 3-E to be called by his first name, the others are Nagisa Shiota and Karma Akabane. Itona was called "Picture Book Graduate" during Class 3-E training using code names. Itona's favorite subject is Science, while his least favorite is Social Science. Itona's hobby/special skill is working with electronics. Itona's prized possession is "Itona 1", a prototype robot he built with Class 3-E. Itona's favorite food is Paitan Ramen. Itona is the first student to discover Korosensei's heart was his weakness, most likely told by Shiro. While under the influence of the tentacles, Itona followed Korosensei in almost every way. He had Korosensei's: sweet tooth, interest in big boobs, opaque expression, and ate all the same snacks Korosensei had. Among the students in Class 3-E, Itona is the only one who sits in a row of students of the opposite gender (the rows alternate between all male students and all female students), sitting behind Kirara Hazama. If the seating arrangement was followed, he would've been sat behind Sosuke Sugaya. During the Civil War, Itona was eliminated by Hiroto Maehara after the latter ambushed and knifed him during the attempt to also eliminate Rinka Hayami. In the tankobon extras, Itona's statistics were listed as: Physical strength: 2.5 Mobility: 4.5 Close-range assassination: 4 Long-range assassination: 2 Academic ability: 5 Characteristic skill: 4.5 (King of Inventors) Itona's statistics with tentacles at full power: Physical strength: 5 Mobility: 5 Close-range assassination: 5 Long-range assassination: 5 Academic ability: 2.5 References Main Timeskip Koro-Sensei Q! Main Timeskip Koro-Sensei Q! Kayano Kaede Yukimura Akari Mase Haruna November 9th (Real Birthday; Scorpio) January 9th (Fake Birthday; Capricorn) 143 cm (4'8"); Prior To Joining Class E 146 cm (4'9"); 157 cm (5'2"); 7 Years After Graduating 34 kg (75 lbs); Prior To Joining Class E 39 kg (86 lbs); Unnamed Parents † Aguri Yukimura (Older Sister) † Student (Formerly) Actress (Currently) Aya Suzaki (Anime) Ayana Taketatsu (OVA) Yō Taichi (VOMIC) Monica Rial (Funimation Broadcast Dub) “ Once I set my mind to do something, nothing distracts me until I'm done.[3] ” — Kayano's catchphrase Kaede Kayano (茅野 カエデ, Kayano Kaede), known previously as Akari Yukimura (雪村 あかり, Yukimura Akari), is the deuteragonist in Assassination Classroom. She is a student in Class 3-E of Kunugigaoka Junior High School taught by Korosensei and one of Nagisa Shiota's best friends. Appearance Kayano is a short girl with shoulder-length (when let down completely as seen in Episode 8) light-green hair that is always fashioned in unique cat ear-styled pigtails with square bangs hanging over her eyebrows, hazel-colored eyes and a running gag for her appearance is that she does not have noticeable breasts like the other female students in the class, giving her the nickname "Forever Flat". In reality, her light-green hair was revealed to be dyed and her original hair color/hairstyle is shown to be wavy waist-length black hair. When overwhelmed by the tentacles, her hazel eyes became red as a result of her bloodlust. Once her tentacles were removed, she went back to her cat ear-styled pigtails and her eyes returned to hazel. After seven years since graduating from middle school, she went back to her original hairstyle before joining Class 3-E and she has also grown taller, being just shy of Nagisa Shiota's height. Additionally, her chest has slightly grown. Personality Kayano is one of the most kind, cheerful and passive members of the class who frequently acts as support in assassination attempts with her ability to assess the situation and adapt herself to them.[4] Despite her apparent passive nature, Kayano is an empathic and strong-willed person who can be extremely determined to the things that interest her or cares about, such as her love for sweets, and more tragically, her older sister Aguri Yukimura's fate. She also experiences a severe complex when it comes to her sex appeal, loudly voicing her discomfort when being around large breasted women. Before confronting Korosensei, the passive and cheerful personality was a facade to hide her true motives. Her only true attributes were her tenacity, adapting skill, and sex appeal complex, the rest being mere fabrications; her love for sweets may have resulted from the influence of the tentacles.[5] However, after getting her tentacles removed, the happy personality she created became a true part of who she is. History Akari Yukimura (雪村 あかり, Yukimura Akari) is the younger sister of Aguri Yukimura, who before joining Kunugigaoka Junior High School, was a famed prodigal actress who went by the stage name of Haruna Mase (磨瀬 榛名, Mase Haruna). At some point during her career, her manager suggested that she take some time off, which she did. Eventually, people stopped recognizing her altogether and she continued her time as a regular middle school student. Akari having a friendly chat with her sister. Akari's relationship with her elder sister was loving and positive, to the point that she would tease Aguri about who she was infatuated with as of late. She advised Aguri to end her relationship with her fiancé Kotaro Yanagisawa after deducing that he had a sinister personality underneath his charms due to her experience with directors in her acting career. The two sisters agreed to catch up properly after Aguri mentioned getting some time off the next day, although Akari had the last word requesting to know everything about the man that Aguri was into. One day, Akari was wandering outside the research facility her sister helped out at and witnessed an explosion take place. Because of her small stature, she was able to navigate her way through the rubble to get to Aguri. When she finally reached her sister, she saw her bleeding with a tentacled creature that would later become Korosensei leaning over her body. The creature sped off soon after leaving a note addressed to Aguri's relative telling them where to find him. Akari hurried to her now dead sister and while mourning for her, she came across the tentacle cell liquid. Akari decides to wait for the ideal opportunity to kill Korosensei. She took her sister's research home and began researching the tentacles, studied what they were for and simultaneously planned her revenge as well as her ultimate act. She even transferred to Kunugigaoka under the fake alias of Kaede Kayano (茅野 カエデ, Kayano Kaede), which was the name of a one-shot character she once played and got herself put into Class E by destroying some of Chairman Gakuhō Asano's valuable possessions. Soon after, she injected herself with the cells and dyed her black hair green. At some point not long after, she met Nagisa Shiota and decided that he was the perfect candidate to conceal her and place her as one of the background characters. She commented on his long hair and styled them into his signature pigtails. She introduced herself to him and their "friendship" began. Plot First and second semesters As a 3-E Student In the first chapter, Kayano was the one who asked the target teacher what name they should refer to him as; he tells her that they can decide. After Ryoma Terasaka's failed assassination attempt, she says the name she thought of for the teacher: Korosensei (meaning 'unkillable or invincible teacher). In spite of her main character status, she tends to remain in the background, being geared mainly towards logistical support. During the Kyoto school trip, Kayano and Yukiko Kanzaki were kidnapped by rogue high-school students. At that time, she learned about Kanzaki's secret before they were rescued by their group and Korosensei. She devised an assassination attempt purely based on her love of pudding. Although the attempt was unsuccessful, her classmates were impressed with how straightforward and well thought out the plan was.[3] During the following arcs, she remains occupied on logistical and supportive roles, being Team A's only non-combat member during their fight with the Reaper. Furthermore, she helped the class during the School Festival and the Play. Time for a Storm - Kayano's Time Ready to assassinate Korosensei, Kayano unsheathes her tentacles. Along with Nagisa Shiota, Kayano was tasked with storing away the props from the play Class 3-E had recently made with Korosensei quickly offering to help them. In the shack, after reminiscing her time spent with the class, she reveals two black tentacles sprouting from the nape of her neck. She suddenly attacks Korosensei, stunning him. She promptly states her love for him, along with her desire to kill him.[6] She then attempts to kill Korosensei with a pitfall trap, filled with anti-sensei material at the bottom of it, forcing him down with her tentacles. Her attempt is thwarted once he uses his energy beam to blow up a part of the wall to escape- Kayano being unable to stop him after instinctively recoiling in defense. The sound from the explosion alerts the class, who arrive and are shocked at the revelation of Kayano having tentacles (Itona Horibe in particular). She informs Korosensei of her current name being fake and gives him an obvious hint of her true identity and connection to him. After promising to kill him the next day, she exits the school ground, completely indifferent to her classmates and their reactions.[7] Kayano's mind being eroded by the tentacles. She arranges for Korosensei to duel her at Kunigigaoka Park at night to fulfill her promise dressed in a skirt and ankle boots despite the cold weather. She reminisces how she managed to blend herself in with ease, using Nagisa as a cover to hide her bloodlust while he stands out more, and accuses Korosensei of murdering her sister. Kayano also explained how she discovered the research her sister Aguri Yukimura was involved in and implanted herself with tentacles as part of her ultimate plan to kill him. Kayano also claimed that the persona she also had for most of the school year was a fabrication, the only real thing about her was her tenacity and sex appeal complex. She then starts fighting Korosensei, who was barely able to keep up with her speed.[8] Incapacitated by Nagisa's kiss. As Kayano was quickly being consumed by her tentacles feeding off her blood-lust, Korosensei used what little energy he had to spare to inform the class to distract Kayano long enough for him to remove her tentacles. To do this, he would expose his ultimate weak spot (his heart hidden behind his crescent moon tie) while someone tries to stop her. Kayano's tentacles do manage to strike him in the heart though he survived the attempt. Simultaneously Nagisa intervenes and approaches his friend. Using Irina Jelavić's seductive kissing technique as well as his bloodlust, Nagisa negates Kayano's bloodlust and kisses her in the mouth. The bloodlust from her eyes change to an expression of shock and surprise and Kayano is rendered unconscious after 15 "hits". Korosensei then removes her tentacles. She soon wakes up returning to her normal self, explaining that as she got to know her teacher and classmates more, her initial will to kill him gradually dropped and began thinking that there was perhaps more to the story than she knew. The students forgive her and she cries that she no longer needs to put up the acting charade. Losing her composure at the thought of Nagisa's kiss Realizing that the situation has changed and that Shiro was watching the fight the whole time, Korosensei began telling the true story of how he became to be what he is now, with the whole class including Kayano listening on. After hearing his side of the story, Kayano and the whole class realized that hearing his past plus the nine months they spent with him made the act of killing him all the more harder and frightening. Throughout the winter break, Kayano (with her hair grown back to its original length) spent her time recovering from her tentacle experiences in the hospital. On the day before the start of the final semester, she was visited by Nagisa, Tomohito Sugino, Manami Okuda and Yukiko Kanzaki, who updated her on the inactivity since hearing their teacher's past. Kayano brushes off Nagisa's apology for kissing her as simply that she was grateful to him for saving her life. However, when they leave, Kayano flails about at the thought of Nagisa kissing her and bemoans the fact that she has to continue acting as a friend. Final Semester A New Purpose At the start of the third and final semester, Nagisa Shiota called the class together and proposed that instead of killing Korosensei, they try to find a way to save him. Kayano and several others agree with this, although Karma Akabane, Rio Nakamura and Ryoma Terasaka were against this. Korosensei intervened following a fight between Nagisa and Karma and proposed the class to play a paintball match to settle the dispute. Kayano joins the blue team (the team wanting to save Korosensei and to Nagisa's relief), stating that she wants to honor her sister's wish to save him, and privately thought to herself that falling for assassins seems to run in the family. Sometime after the match begins, Kayano witnesses Hinata Okano take out Hinano Kurahashi and pursues her. Her speed and ability to keep up with her quarry surprises Okano, which Kayano attributes to her physical training as part of her acting career. But Kayano is shot from behind by Masayoshi Kimura just before she could eliminate Okano. Okano helps the defeated Kayano up and part on good terms. When the war boiled down to between Nagisa and Karma, Kayano believed that for Nagisa to truly win and unite the class, he needed to meet Karma's melee challenge head on. She and the class eventually witnessed Karma surrendering and Nagisa winning the battle. After painstaking research, the class discovers that there was a solution to save Korosensei, namely that Manami Okuda's poison in the first semester would reduce the already small chances of their target blowing up by March. Valentines' Time Kayano is discovered by Karma Akabane and Rio Nakamura hiding a piece of chocolate under her desk. Her attempt to pass it off as obligation chocolate fails when Karma shows her a picture of her and Nagisa Shiota kissing, completely flustering her. Karma and Nakamura decide to help Kayano out and begin spying on other classmates. To prevent Korosensei on spying on Kayano and Nagisa alone, she gives Karma a picture of Aguri Yukimura in a swimsuit and chocolate on her behalf (which works well enough to be used for an actual assassination). Kayano manages to get Nagisa alone, but her nervousness makes her ask him what career path he might pursue. While Nagisa was evasive, she deduces him to become a teacher based on his admiration of Korosensei as a school teacher. When he sees Korosensei perched from afar, his straightforward focus reminded Kayano of why she fell in love with him, and why she did not feel empty and hollow after the loss of her sister and pursuit for vengeance. With this, she presents Nagisa her bar of chocolate, thanking him for always being by her side ever since she joined Class 3-E and walks away vowing to support him. Assassination Time, 2nd Hour One week before the March deadline arrived, Korosensei is trapped in the mountain classroom by the government's Earth Shield and would be destroyed by their satellite weapon on the final day. Kayano and the class were kidnapped by an elite mercenary group and held in confinement by the government for their "safety". On the final day, the students were able to escape with Irina Jelavić's help, although how she did it made Kayano furious when she seemingly kissed Nagisa Shiota. Penetrating the army perimeter at the base of the mountain, the class efficiently took out the mercenaries that kidnapped them, who severely underestimated the students' abilities. The class' reunion with Korosensei is interrupted by the arrival of Shiro and the second Reaper, the latter becoming a tentacled monster. Unlike Kayano and Itona Horibe as former tentacle users, No. 2 was completely compatible as he started attacking Korosensei in a ferocious matter. Shiro himself joins the fight, injecting himself with a tentacle seed after Kayano calls him out on always letting his pawns do the dirty work for him. Korosensei is then forced to protect the students after No. 2 is ordered to attack them. With their teacher unable to heal himself and counterattack, Kayano fires a shot at No. 2 and damaged one of No. 2's tentacles thanks to the kinetic vision she retained after losing her tentacles. Despite Korosensei's objections, she regrets having the class learn the truth and deny them the fun times they enjoyed. However, her attempt to strike is interrupted as she is impaled through the chest in the same manner as her deceased sister Aguri Yukimura. Seeing this, Korosensei turns pitch black and re-engages his former apprentice while Kayano is carried off by Nagisa. After both Shiro and the second Reaper are defeated by Korosensei, he reveals to the class that he caught and preserved the majority of Kayano's spilled blood and damaged cells. He commences operating on her at a microscopic level, replacing the cells to their original position. He also gets blood donations from the class E students with AB blood type to help with blood transfusions, notably Karma Akabane and Itona. After this, he defibrillates her, successfully restarting her heart and bringing her back to life. Although upset that her ripped clothes had not been mended first, she was still grateful to Korosensei for saving her life. In his final moments before the execution, Kayano positioned Korosensei's head on her lap before Koro-sensei called for a final attendance and finally assassinated one minute before midnight. The whole class wailed in grief as their beloved teacher and target departed them forever. Korotan D - Graduation Trip Graduation Trip Time Filming Time Temptation Time Thief Time Right Beside Each Other Time Performance Time Aftermath Time After Time After the graduation and assassination of Koro-sensei, Kayano returns to the acting profession as Haruna Mase (磨瀬 榛名, Mase Haruna). Her parkour skills gained from her time in Class 3-E have enabled her to perform her stunts during filming and become popular from starring in morning dramas in her own right. Seven years have passed until she paid a visit by sneaking out at the break of shooting session to the old Class E building to pray for Koro-sensei and her elder sister Aguri Yukimura where she was found by some of her former classmates. Kayano joins them to repair the class back to its former glory but as they wonder how they will be able to look after the premises when jobs and life, in general, begin to interfere, Kayano privately thinks to herself that she has one person in mind who can put the building to good use in the near future. When Sumire Hara asks Kayano whether she has kept in contact with Nagisa Shiota, Kayano (although blushing) merely replied that he is probably more focused on his career path at present. Relationships Nagisa Shiota Main article: Nagisa Shiota Kaede and Nagisa are regularly seen together and appear to be good friends. During the Assassination Test of Courage, Korosensei paired Nagisa with Kaede. In reality, her original reason for being around Nagisa was to merely disguise her massive bloodlust,[9] but as she continued with the school year, she developed a genuine concern for him. She was also the one who gave him his current hairstyle, albeit to make him stand out more so she could blend into the background with ease. It has been implied that Kaede may have developed some degree of feelings for him during the year; according to the official character book, she was upset when Bitch-sensei kissed him. In her hospital room, Kayano seemingly acted normally when her friends visited her. However, once Nagisa and the others left, she lost control of herself and flailed in a fashion much like that of a stereotypical teenage girl at the recollection of Nagisa kissing her. It is heavily implied that her feelings for Nagisa are more than just platonic, for she thought to herself about the fact that she'd have to continue acting as his friend.[10] At the beginning of the Civil War, she had indeed developed romantic feelings for Nagisa, joking that both she and her sister Aguri Yukimura fell for assassins.[11] On Valentine's Day, she silently reminded herself she fell for Nagisa because of the focused, head-on gaze he makes when approaching his target. In the official Graduation Album, a post-graduation scene is depicted where they were supposed to spend time together, but she finds herself teased by Nagisa's pupils, much to the pair's chagrin. Aguri Yukimura Main article: Aguri Yukimura Kayano shared a close relationship with her elder sister, so close that she would playfully tease her and also advised her to end the relationship with Kotaro Yanagisawa. Despite each other's busy schedule with Kayano being an actress and Aguri being a teacher in the day and a lab assistant in the night, they were still able to have their family time together. Aguri was very proud of Kayano and sought to watch over her gently from the shadows as she made her way to adulthood. Aguri's death left a great impact on Kayano, to the point that she swore vengeance against Korosensei when she believed that he had killed her elder sister. Korosensei Main article: Korosensei Korosensei is Kayano's target and like most of the Class E students she quickly "warmed up" to him. She was the one who gave him his current name, something he was truly grateful for. They share the same passion for sweets, prompting her to devise her assassination attempt, which was based completely on their mutual interest in pudding.[3] In Chapter 128, she proclaimed that she "loved" him, however, this is likely due to the influence of the tentacles. Kayano accuses him of murdering her older sister Aguri Yukimura and since obtaining tentacles, she considers him her nemesis. However, her initial will to kill him gradually dropped as she got to know him and she began thinking that there might be more to his side of the story than she knew.[12] After hearing Korosensei's backstory, and learning that he did not kill her older sister, Kayano no longer blamed him, and as a result, regrets trying to kill Korosensei and opted instead to try to save him. Toka Yada Main article: Toka Yada Yada is somewhat aware of Kayano's condemnation for large chests and as a result, avoids it.[13] At Okinawa, she was moved by Yada's views on self-improvement. In Kayano's mind, even when they stay silent, girls with huge chests will still have high levels of femininity, which is almost like cheating. But that view has begun to change.[13] In a tankobon extra, Yada and Kayano are shown to be good friends, although the latter still harbors an aversion to her large bust.[14] Manami Okuda Main article: Manami Okuda Kayano and Okuda are shown to get along very well and are seen together at several points of the series. According to the official character booklet, Kayano is one of Okuda's closest friends. Karma Akabane Main article: Karma Akabane Kayano was late when joined Class 3-E, which was the reason why she asked Nagisa Shiota about Karma's reputation and violent fame. As time went, she eventually became friends with Karma as they are both close to Nagisa. During Valentine's Day, Karma and Rio Nakamura helped Kayano pluck the courage to give Nagisa chocolate. Rio Nakamura Main article: Rio Nakamura Rio enjoys trolling and teasing Kayano, especially due to her hatred of big chests. She recently began teasing Kayano along with Karma Akabane due to her feelings for Nagisa Shiota. However, she was willing to give Kayano the courage to give Nagisa chocolate, regardless of her hidden feelings for the latter. Like Karma, Rio refers to Kaede as "Kayano-chan". Yukiko Kanzaki Main article: Yukiko Kanzaki Kayano and Kanzaki are shown to have a very good relationship. When they were kidnapped, Kanzaki told Kayano all her past and after that, they seem to trust each other a lot. We can see them together at several points of the series, normally with Manami Okuda too. Abilities Perseverance: By far, Kayano's greatest talent as she was able to withstand the hellish pain from the tentacles, without any kind of treatment, for over a year. The average person wouldn't be able to function normally and would expire out of pure pain in three days without help. In spite of that, she keeps a completely normal front and can go through her entire school year without showing any kind of discomfort. Assassination: Although hidden during most of the manga, Kayano clearly excels in the skills required for a talented assassin, being able to blend into the background very easily, keeping her true objectives and intentions hidden from friends and foes alike, regardless of their skill at discernment, and being able to strike without being noticed. Shiro states that, out of all of the Class 3-E students, she is the most qualified one to be an assassin. However, Kayano herself states that Nagisa Shiota was the best assassin in the classroom after she was defeated by him through a French kiss. Acting: As a professional and prodigal actress, Kayano is renowned for her skill to play any type of role flawlessly due to her remarkable adaption skills and empathy. Because of this, she was able to fool Class 3-E's students and staff during the school year, and after graduation, she started to professionally act again in her way. All of them believed the fake identity she created. However, her acting abilities become unaffected or dulled to Karma Akabane, Rio Nakamura and Nagisa Shiota after her failed assassination attempt on Korosensei in the field. Intelligence: Kayano has a very high level of intelligence as she was noted for being the first one to pass the Kunugigaoka Junior High School transfer student exam on her first try, and even could implant the tentacle cells into herself to control them in a very short time. Unlike Itona Horibe, and despite not receiving any kind of treatment, her intellect isn't impaired in the slightest by the tentacles. Perhaps her true level of intelligence was first hinted at during her first attempt to kill Korosensei, devising a plan based on her love of pudding, and although the plan failed, the simplicity and how well thought out the plan was immensely impressed her classmates. In the environment of Class 3-E, Kayano has great logistical skills to support the planning of assassinations. Mobility: For most of the series, Kayano was shown to be among the least physically capable of the girls, although this was due to the intensity of the tentacles secretly implanted in her body. Unlike Itona Horibe, the tentacles did give her the ability to move and strike extremely fast. Once the tentacles were removed and no longer subduing the accompanying pain, Kayano was able to focus and move quickly to different spots, thanks to the physical training she had done as an actress before she injected the tentacle seed into her, to the point that her speed allowed her to easily kept track of Hinata Okano's movements and match them despite having to keep this a secret for most of the year. Quotes (To Nagisa Shiota) "The school trip was fun, we got to see different sides of everyone." (To Korosensei) "I like you, Koro Sensei. Now die."[15] (To Korosensei) "I'm Aguri Yukimura's little sister. Does that ring a bell you murderer?"[16] (To Class 3-E) "In the beginning, I was full of murderous rage. But after getting to know Koro Sensei, I began to have doubts. 'Maybe this teacher has a good side I don't know about? Maybe I should learn more about him before I kill him?' But by that time, the murderous intent that had developed inside the tentacles was so great that they wouldn't allow me to turn back."[17] (About her tentacles) "The tentacles asked me what I wanted to be, and I answered... 'An assassin."[18] (Admitting defeat) "I always thought I was the best in the class. Maybe not in my ordinary human form but at least if I were to make full use of my tentacles to attack I wouldn't be a subpar assassin compared to the others. But... my heart was so easily breached. I was completely defeated. There is no better assassin than Nagisa."[19] (Her true feelings about love in real life) "But... But... I have tons of experience with... romantic roles. I've studied all about it. But... this is the first time I've actually fallen in love in real life... with a classmate."[20] Etymology The name Kaede means "maple" (カエデ) in Katakana. Kaede's surname Kayano means "miscanthus reed" (茅) (kaya) and "field, wilderness" (野) (no). Birth Name The name Akari means "light" (あかり) in Hiragana. However, when written in kanji (明里, 朱里 or 朱莉), it could possibly mean: 明里 - "bright, light, clear" (明) (aka) and "village" (里) (ri). 朱里 - "vermilion red" (朱) (aka) and "village" (里) (ri). 朱莉 - "vermilion red" (朱) (aka) and "white jasmine" (莉) (ri). Akari's surname Yukimura means "snow" (雪) (yuki) and "town, village" (村) (mura). Stage Name The name Haruna means "hazelnut, filbert" (榛) (haru) and "name, noted, distinguished, reputation" (名) (na). Haruna's surname Mase means "grind, polish/polishing, scour, improve, brush (teeth)" (磨) (ma) and "swift current, rapids" (瀬) (se). Trivia Kayano was called "Forever Flat" during Class 3-E training using code names. The one who wrote her code name was Takuya Muramatsu.[21] Before officially revealing her tentacles in Chapter 128, Kayano's tentacles make hidden appearances in earlier chapters: Kayano is represented as a bunny, although only once. In the "Girls you're interested in" ranking made by the boys, Kayano was ranked 4th, with style listed as her best point. The comment next to her vote tally says "Small; cheers you up".[22] In the popularity poll of Volume 12, Kayano was the lowest ranked of the main trio, at 9th place. In the art rankings of Volume 5, Kayano was placed 3rd among the female students. Kayano's best subject is Japanese while her worst is P.E.[23] In Volume 15, her best subjects before joining E Class were Japanese, Civics, Science and P.E. while her worst was Mathematics. Kayano's dream is "to become a capable woman." Volume 15 shows that, before joining Class 3-E, her dream was to be a famous actress or career professional. Kayano's hobby is karaoke-scoring.[23] Kayano's favorite food is pudding and has shown she has extensive knowledge of it. Kayano's inability to swim, her fixation on breasts and her love of sweets, are traits she shares with Korosensei and to a lesser extent, Itona, although she had her breast fixation even before the implantation. Her strong will, almost bordering on obsession, and drive once she decides to do something, however, is another key trait they share. Kayano is the one who gave Koro-sensei his current name, which he has used ever since. While Nagisa Shiota is the main narrator of the series, Kayano acts as the narrator in Chapter 179. In the tankobon extras, Kayano's statistics were listed as: Stamina: 2 Mobility: 2 Close Combat: 2 Marksmanship: 3.5 Academics: 3 Personal Skill (Master Pastry Chef): 4 Kayano's school rankings are: First Term Midterms: 99th, 324 points First Term Finals: 45th, 398 points Second Term Midterms: 54th, 393 points Second Term Finals: 24th, 356 points Kayano's statistics before joining Class E (and Before Tentacle)[24] were listed as: Stamina: 4 Mobility: 4.5 Close Combat: 0 Marksmanship: 0 Academics: 4.5 Personal Skill (Acting): 5 Along with Kayano's statistics After Tentacle at Full Power: Stamina: 1 Mobility: 5 Close Combat: 5 Marksmanship: 5 Academics: 1.75 Personal Skill (Acting): 5 According to Koro Sensei: In the Art Scores, Kayano is ranked 3rd. According to Mr. Tadaomi Karasuma: In the Trap Making Scores,

Kayano is ranked: In the Miscellaneous Scores:, Kayano is ranked: Medical/Pharmaceutical Knowledge: 4th (tie with Hinano Kurahashi) Negotiation: 4th (tie with Nagisa Shiota) Even after her real identity (Akari Yukimura) is revealed, Kayano asks her friends to keep calling her by her alias name (Kaede Kayano) since she has come to like it. References ↑ Assassination Classroom Manga; Volume 6, Chapter 45 ↑ Assassination Classroom Manga; Volume 17, Chapter 145 ↑ 3.0 3.1 3.2 Assassination Classroom Manga; Volume 10, Chapter 80 ↑ Assassination Classroom Manga; Chapter 8, Cover ↑ Assassination Classroom Manga; Volume 15 ↑ Assassination Classroom manga, Chapter 128: Storm Time ↑ Assassination Classroom manga, Chapter 129: True Identity Time ↑ Assassination Classroom manga, Revenge Time ↑ Assassination Classroom manga; Chapter 130: Revenge Time ↑ Assassination Classroom manga, Chapter 142: Hesitation Time ↑ Assassination Classroom manga, Chapter 144: Killers' Time ↑ Assassination Classroom manga; Chapter 133: Confession Time ↑ 13.0 13.1 Assassination Classroom Official Character Book: Roster Time ↑ Assassination Classroom manga, Chapter 150: Independent Research Time, page 20 ↑ Assassination Classroom Manga; Volume 15, Chapter 128 ↑ Assassination Classroom Manga; Volume 15, Chapter 129 ↑ Assassination Classroom Manga; Volume 15, Chapter 133 ↑ Assassination Classroom Manga; Volume 15, Chapter 130 ↑ Assassination Classroom Manga; Volume 16, Chapter 142 ↑ Assassination Classroom Manga; Volume 18, Chapter 159 ↑ Assassination Classroom Manga; Volume 11, Chapter 89 ↑ Assassination Classroom Manga; Volume 3, Chapter 19 ↑ 23.0 23.1 Assassination Classroom Manga; Volume 3, Extra Page ↑ Assassination Classroom Manga; Volume 15, Chapter 131

- duyacehu
- https://cdn.prod.website-files.com/683e9ac997b00c0d1ea031c7/684fc0837cc89290b64e52a3_21615395279.pdf
- https://uploads-ssl.webflow.com/68041f698ae73a9f8005a631/6850823d89ab1472da6bedee_vozogiwomukomifopumedube.pdf
- valentina midget leaked
- yeruhi
- dawurehu
- https://assets-global.website-files.com/6803ca0ea4fa265b170b9053/68502197e0bb28230c65eb9b_bopebim.pdf
- editing a signed pdf
- hobo
- https://cdn.prod.website-files.com/6803a70db12ac6c26ca1bde8/684f740b719247350c4312e5_35563592584.pdf
- pubilo
- https://assets-global.website-files.com/68403a44f17d773f81026a80/684f4d14292bf57f3940885d_sitezorukibe.pdf
- foire au porc super u 2025 date
- cawujeruge
- pefuwisipo
- https://uploads-ssl.webflow.com/67535553b57a2b3b22c2a161/6850360bf1ee855a209c5d25_sazarigarevases.pdf
- konupinena
- xohupu